Full Meeting of Irish Parliament Called By De Valera to Consider British Peace Proposals

ACTION CAUSES A SENSATION

Conflicting Reports From Belfast and Dublin Concerning Ulster's Position

British Cabinet Has Already Agreed to Release Irish Members for Conference

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press.) The Irish situation took a sensational turn today when it was announced in Dublin that Eamon de Valera and his associates had decided to summon a full meeting of the Irish republican parliament to consider the British government's Irish peace proposals.

It has been repeatedly stated in Dublin that the Dail Eireann would not be summoned until Ulster's attitude had been learned, but coincident with the calling of the meeting of this body come conflicting reports from Dublin and Belfast concerning Ulster's position.

TO ARREST CREW OF BOOZE SHIP

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 4.—Warrants for the arrest of the officers and crew of the schooner Henry L. Marshall, seized as a liquor runner last Monday night, and for three others, said to have been interested in the cargo, were issued today by Federal Commissioner Queen. The warrant charged violation of the Volstead act, and attempts to defraud the government of customs.

Men Who Looted Store in Sun Building Held in $5000 Each

Speedy Capture of Thieves Due to Prompt Action of Store Owner

Leaping into his automobile after finding that his fur store in The Sun building had been robbed, shouting the information to Officer Finnigan as he sped towards the depot, and seizing one of the two men held for the crime as the latter was boarding a train about to leave for Boston, Harry Zeller, by his quick wittedness, saved $4500 worth of furs which he identified as his. A thrilling episode of speedy action, with a wild ride to gain the railroad station before the train pulled out, and the last minute capture of the pair charged with the break, featured the crime which, occurring late yesterday afternoon, was Continued to Page Four

Mayor Thompson Says Law Has Not Been Violated by Purchasing Agent

The taxpayers and ratepayers of Lowell, according to information coming from members of the chamber of commerce, are making a gratuitous payment of about $36 per thousand for the paving blocks used on Thordike street. The making public of this information regarding conditions claimed to exist was only one of the developments in the initiative election warfare which is acquiring heat as the date for balloting draws near. In the newspapers has been inserted an advertisement reflecting upon the chamber of commerce for permitting the Lamson company to get away from Lowell, when it is supposed that one of the principal purposes for which the chamber is maintained, is to bring new industries, or at least keep old ones, in the city.

The Lamson company today posted a notice in its shops stating in plain language that a political animus is behind the publication of the "ad."

LOWELL PEOPLE SEE CARUSO FUNERAL

According to information received in this city five Lowell people witnessed the funeral of Enrico Caruso, the world's famous tenor, which took place today at Naples, Italy. They are Mr. and Mrs. Amadeo Archambault of Merrimack street, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Begin of Moody street and Mr. J. B. Pelneault of Merrimack street.

The party left Lowell in the early part of July on a three months' European trip. Last Saturday they were in Rome, where they were given an audience by the pope. They were scheduled to remain in the Holy City until Wednesday, their next stopping place being Naples, where they arrived yesterday. They are scheduled to leave Naples tomorrow for Florence, Italy.

STRUCK THE WRONG MAN

Information Wanted Concerning One Frank Salle and a Policeman's Club

Who is Frank Salle, the man that smote Patrick F. Buckley in the eye because "a man named Buckley hit my kid brother?" Where did Salle get the policeman's club that was found hanging, trophy-like, in his home when he was taken into custody? Judge Enright was so interested in these questions that in police court today he held Salle in bonds of $300 for a hearing tomorrow. In the meantime Michael Dowd, acting probation officer, was ordered by the court to investigate the statements made by the defendant, who was charged with assault and battery on Buckley.

The latter took the stand this morning and said that he was innocently minding his own business. Salle approached and fetched him a wallop in the left lamp which left that orb in a swollen and discolored condition. Continued to Page Ten

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

Reciprocity

WHEN you love a girl and a girl loves you,
The sky seems always a brighter blue,
And on country leas
Or on city street,
There's a softer breeze
And an air more sweet,
And all of the world is a place made new,
When you love a girl and a girl loves you!

SO whether alone or in a throng,
Your lips are humming a happy song;
Your eyes are glowing,
Your heart beats high,
And life goes flowing
Serenely by;
And all of the fairy tales are true,
When you love a girl and a girl loves you!

WHEN you care for a girl and she doesn't care,
The world is a desert bleak and bare;
So my wise is therefore
Thus expressed:
"May the girl you care for Love you best,"
And 'till the journey of life is through
May the girl you love be in love with you!

LOWELL BOY PASSES BAR EXAMINATION

Thomas B. Higgins, 183 Pleasant street, this city, has received word from the Massachusetts board of bar examiners that he passed the bar examination and will be admitted to the practice of the law. Mr. Higgins was graduated from Northeastern law school in June with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

The young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Higgins. He received his preliminary education in the public schools of Lowell. In 1914 he was graduated from the Lowell high school with a five year diploma. Since that time he has been attending evening law school except for a long period during the war when he served in the army. Mr. Higgins served with the motor transportation arm of the service and spent twenty months in France on active duty. For several years he has been in the employ of the United Fruit company with headquarters in Boston. The recent announcement that he had passed the bar examinations came as a reward for several years' continued effort during which he worked hard during the day and attended school in the evening. He expects to practice in this city.

FLOODS LEAVE MANY HOMELESS

CANON CITY, Colo., Aug. 4.—Flood waters of the Arkansas river, which swept down upon South Canon, a suburb, and the lower part of this city Tuesday, had disappeared yesterday, leaving nearly a score of families homeless and causing damage unofficially estimated at more than $200,000.

Canon City was isolated from communication with the outside world except for one telephone line to Denver. Railroad tracks for miles around were washed out.

Except for a small supply in a local reservoir, there was no drinking water in the city today, the floodwaters having torn out all conduits.

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often dependent, had dizzy spells and at monthly periods I was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby came two years ago my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter, I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. MAUR E. TAYLOR, 6 St. James Place, Roxbury, Mass.

Backache is one of the most common symptoms of a displacement or derangement of the female system. No woman should make the mistake of trying to overcome it by heroic endurance, but profit by Mrs. Taylor's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FUNERAL OF CARUSO

Thousands Gather to Pay Final Tribute to Memory of World-Famous Tenor

NAPLES, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Patrician and plebeian Naples gathered early today at the Basilica of the church of San Francesco di Paola for the funeral of Enrico Caruso, who died here on Tuesday. The edifice situated in the southern part of the city, near the hotel where the great singer breathed his last, was decorated upon as the last scene in the drama of the world-famous tenor's life late yesterday after King Victor Emmanuel had given permission that it might be used for this purpose.

As soon as word reached Naples that the Basilica had been set apart for the funeral, workmen were engaged to construct a great platform to accommodate the 400 singers selected to assist in the last requiem. In the center of the Basilica was erected a large catafalque.

Representatives of the king and the royal family, the Italian government, the municipality and the prefecture were appointed to attend the services, and the United States in which country Caruso rose to his greatest triumphs in the lyric art, had instructed officials to appear at the funeral.

400 Singers Assist

The crowds which on Tuesday filed before the bier of the dead singer were eclipsed yesterday, when thousands gathered at the Hotel Vesuvius to pay their last respects to Caruso. So large was the throng that it was deemed advisable to remove the body from the death chamber to the hall of the hotel, which was changed for the occasion into a chapel. About the body were placed flowers sent from friends and admirers of the dead man, and the hall was transformed by them into a bower of exquisite beauty.

Titta Ruffo Helps Move Body

Titta Ruffo, the baritone, who has in recent years achieved fame in America, arrived during the day and hastened to the hotel. He was an intimate friend of Caruso and insisted upon helping to transfer the body to the temporary chapel.

To Seal New York Residence

Mrs. Caruso has made formal application to the foreign minister, asking that the Italian ambassador at Washington be instructed to seal the New York residence of the late singer, pending a decision regarding the disposition of his estate. It has been reported that the court here has decided to sequester all of Caruso's property until Mrs. Caruso's claims and those of her daughter are adjudicated.

The district judge of this city, upon request of Mrs. Caruso, has sealed the apartment occupied by the dead tenor in the Hotel Vesuvius. This step was taken to safeguard documents and other effects.

It is reported here that Caruso drew a will in 1919, bequeathing his whole estate, according to Italian legal procedure, to his brother and two sons. Afterward he was married in the United States, and the birth of his daughter, Gloria, brought a new element into the situation. She, according to Italian law, is now the only legal heir, except for a fraction of the estate which the law grants to the widow.

DENIES AGREEMENT TO ACCEPT WAGE CUT

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 4.—A statement by R. G. Stearns, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. makes denial of a statement issued by General Manager Barker of the company, yesterday, to the effect that the freight clerks' group of employees had accepted a new wage scale carrying a reduction.

Mr. Stearns says that the matter of acceptance or rejection of the proposed schedule is to go to the employees for a referendum ballot. He says that a letter sent by him to Mr. Barker on July 29, stating that the employees were not in the Brotherhood, contended that there can be no justification to warrant the reduction in rates of pay as established under decision No. 142 of the United States Railroad Labor board, inasmuch as the actual living costs have not been reduced below living costs on which increases were based, under its decision No. 2, issued July 1, 1920.

"Under these circumstances the said employees are now performing service for the railroad at the reduced rates effective July 1, 1921, under protest."

SEC. MELLON PROPOSES NEW TAX LEVIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Treasury Sec. Mellon is to reappear today before the house ways and means committee and is expected to present the revised copy of his memorandum containing possible new sources for taxation. Committee members had expected to receive the copy yesterday, but after an invitation had been sent to the secretary to reappear he decided to present the memorandum in person.

Chairman Fordney said Mr. Mellon would be recalled to discuss railroad financing, which involves four government departments—the treasury, war, finance corporation, railroad administration and interstate commerce commission. It is expected, however, that the secretary will be questioned about some of the revisions made in the original memorandum presented on Monday.

The nature of the changes has not been disclosed, but it is understood that some additions were made after conferences among treasury officials. Republican members of the committee held two extended sessions yesterday, discussing with Dr. T. S. Adams, a treasury tax expert, the grouping of various administrative features of the bill and other changes which would make for simplification in determining taxes.

The extent to which the present law is to be rewritten by the committee remains to be determined, but if the suggestions made by treasury experts are followed the old bill will be largely re-written. This probably would delay its presentation to the house considerably beyond the time heretofore expected.

Apparently the members now are somewhat far apart as to the actual amount of taxes that it will be necessary to raise. It has been estimated that the present law will yield approximately $1,500,000,000 this fiscal year, but revisions suggested would reduce this total. All members of the committee are not yet satisfied that this can be done with safety.

PRINCE OF WALES MAY AGAIN VISIT CANADA

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(Canadian Press)—The Prince of Wales may be in Canada again in April or May of next year. The Daily Mail states that the prince's tour of India will conclude at Karachi on March 17, 1922, whence the prince and his party will return home by way of Japan, and probably through Canada.

BRITISH MARSHAL NEARLY DROWNED

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the British Imperial general staff, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday while following the races for small craft in the Cowes regatta. The field marshal was in a little yawl and a heavy sea washed him overboard.

Two yachts competing in the race, sailed by Sir Arthur S. Cope and Col. Hobart, went to the rescue of the field marshal. When they had rescued him Sir Arthur and Col. Hobart resumed the race in which their boats finished respectively second and third.

An Easy Way for Thin People to Put on Flesh and Gain Weight

Strong, Straightforward Advice to Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked, your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, if it is almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of the trouble, if you can eat three, yet feel like a new being, if you are thin, your substantial, fat producing meals a day but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force this food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit.

In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and for the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy stay-the-flesh and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty nervous digestion.

Thin, nervous, run-down people, however, with impoverished blood and half starved looks are failing with doubt a quick and certain make of solid flesh called EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES that is unequalled for repairing faulty digestion and correcting nervous digestive troubles. In fact the makers of Evans' Triple Phosphates guarantee that one month's treatment will increase your weight by several pounds and within ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Fred Howard and leading druggists everywhere have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it or money refunded.

Caution: While Evans' Triple Phosphates accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and as a general nerve tonic, it should not be taken by anyone who objects to a few additional pounds of solid, stay-the-flesh—Adv.

UNDRESS IN OPEN AND GO BATHING

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—"Four people certainly should not try to undress behind one parasol," remarked Magistrate, Thomas F. Doyle in his chambers in Long Island City. His remark was the closing one of a talk on the situation at East River park, Astoria, where daily people undress in the open to go bathing in the river.

Several arrests have been made by patrolmen of the Astoria precinct of young people charged with disrobing in the park.

The arrests were the result of complaints of people living in the vicinity of the park. They claim that young men and women from Manhattan come over to Astoria to go swimming in the East river from the beach of the park that they revert to the "old swimming hole" methods, undress anywhere and go in swimming wearing little or no excuse for bathing suits.

Germany, in 1917, turned out more than 3,000,000 pounds of paper textile a day.

Why Dread Old Age?

It doesn't make much difference how old you are if you only keep in good health and are active. Many people appear older at 50 than others do at 70, to keep looking young you have got to enjoy good health, and do as little worrying as possible. Backaches, swollen joints, and legs, disturbed sleep or being compelled to arise one or more times during the night are sure symptoms of kidney trouble, and should have immediate attention to avoid serious consequences. SEVEN BARKS nature's remedy of roots and herbs, is one of the best remedies to take not only for affected kidneys, but for liver, stomach and heart troubles.

Middle-aged people realize that they cannot perform their work or move around as fast as formerly. The intestinal organs feel the effect of age and do not perform their work properly. The heart palpitates on the slightest exertion and the back aches after a day's work. The muscles and flesh get flabby, and the blood thinner than formerly, it is then you need a good tonic and bowel regulator—you cannot find a more reliable and efficient remedy for these conditions than SEVEN BARKS.

If you want to enjoy life, recover some of your youthful vigor and have the glow of health, get SEVEN BARKS of your druggist. Do not accept a substitute.—Adv.

GORILLA HUNTERS! YES, WOMEN AND BABY, TOO!

For "Prevention of Future Fights"

BATAVIA, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Frank O. Spellman of Batavia, who recently seized the $10,000 limousine of Jack Dempsey, and attempted to tie-up his share of the proceeds of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight on July 2, to protect two civil suits for $100,000, to be tried in Batavia in October, has been asked to join hands with Dr. Wilber F. Crafts of the International Reform Bureau of Washington, in "the prevention of future fights." Mr. Spellman left for New York today to meet his attorney, William Klein, and to lay before him the Crafts' letter. He will leave it to his attorney, he said, to decide whether he will furnish ammunition for the reform bureau's promised fight in the courts and legislatures to stop boxing.

Italian Liners Diverted to Canada

MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—Italian steamship companies are beginning to divert their passenger traffic to Canada because of the United States restrictive immigration law. Local shipping circles were advised today that the Navigazione Generale Italiana had decided to open a direct line between the Dominion and Italy and that its first ship had left Naples for Quebec with a number of immigrants.

FRANKIE BRITT WINS
NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 4.—Frankie Britt of this city had an easy time disposing of Newman Reagan of Brockton last night. Reagan proved a willing fighter and, while Britt didn't let out to his limit, he punished Reagan quite badly in the sixth, seventh and eighth rounds.

JOSEPH B. DRAKE GAINED 25 POUNDS

Now Eats Things He Didn't Dare
Touch for Years—Wife Also Restored

"I'm 25 pounds heavier now than I was when I started taking Tanlac, and I want to say right now there's nothing in the world like it," said Joseph B. Drake, 430 Belmont ave., Springfield, Mass.
"I don't believe there is anybody who has suffered more from stomach trouble than I have during the past ten years. It seems like I used everything under the sun trying to get relief, for I was always paying out money for different remedies, but none of them helped me a bit. I had acute attacks of indigestion at times that left me suffering with sharp pains in my stomach for several days afterwards. I had no appetite to speak of. It would almost kill me to eat meat, and there were many other things I didn't dare touch. Constipation was a continual worry to me and I had awful headaches at times. I had rheumatism in my arms and legs something fierce, and there were days I hurt so bad I could hardly get around. Tanlac helped my wife so much. I began taking it, and I'll tell the world it's remarkable what a tremendous change the medicine has made in me. Why, now bottles have me eating good and hearty of anything I want, everything agrees with me perfectly, and I'm entirely rid of indigestion, constipation and headaches. Tanlac's fast knocking out my rheumatism, too, and I can't say enough for it. It's certainly a great medicine."
Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's drug store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative, by Bright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass.; A. D. Falls, Chelsea, Mass.; Snares Pharmacy, Concord, Mass., and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

styled by the local authorities as one of the most daring in the annals of the department here.

Zeller, who had left his shop on the sixth floor of The Sun building for a few moments, returned to find it looted. He rushed to the elevator and A. G. Grenier, the elevator boy on duty, told of seeing two men with large boxes leaving the building.

After calling a few words of explanation to Officer Finnigan, who in turn notified headquarters, Zeller hurried into his Ford and made for the depot. As he neared the station he attracted the attention of Officer Donovan, on duty as traffic officer there. The officer took a flying leap to the running board of the car, which reached the depot as Zeller jumped out of his machine. Followed by the officer, he made for the platform of the rear car on the Boston train. A crowd of people were boarding the train, which was within a few seconds of starting.

Spotted His Man
Among them Zeller espied a man with a large box, and he seized the box. "You robbed my store!" he exclaimed. "What's the matter with you. I bought these furs at a store here," was the gist of the reply. Officer Dooley had arrived in the meantime, and as Zeller entered the car and located another man with boxes containing furs, Dooley ordered the brakeman to hold the train. The pair, Irving Leben and Samuel Drilling, were brought into the depot, where Zeller identified the furs as his. The two prisoners were then handcuffed and taken to headquarters in the patrol which was summoned.

In Police Court
This morning Leben and Drilling, charged with the $4500 theft, pleaded not guilty in the police court, and were held in bonds of $5000 each for a hearing Saturday. This morning, accompanied by Lieutenant Maher, of the local police department, they were photographed at the Marion studio, and an investigation into any record they may have is now under way. They were represented by counsel this morning, and through him waived the reading of the complaint and entered the not guilty plea.

The bold daylight robbery, aside from the breakneck chase, exhibited many other unusual features as complicated as any which appear in detective fiction. It is a problem how entrance was gained to the Zeller establishment. This is located on the sixth floor towards the rear. There are four possible means of entry, but a careful inspection of the place this morning, together with the statements of the proprietor, made it difficult to understand how the thief of thieves got in by any of these.

The main entrance is by a door which possesses a Yale lock. No violence was done to this door, nor in fact to the two others which open on the workshop at the rear of the store. These latter doors have a latch which can only be snapped open from the inside. One leads into the corridor, and the other to a physician's reception room. A pile of boards stood against the rear one of these two doors, which was also locked. Mr. Zeller declares that no suspicious character entered his place of business yesterday, or who could have surreptitiously unlatched either of these, although the culprits evidently made their exit by one, which was found unlocked after their departure. Mr. Zeller says that there is no question that these were both locked when he left his shop a few moments before the robbery, which occurred shortly after 5 p. m.

A fire escape extending from the window of the doctor's reception room to a window of the workshop was thought to furnish a clue, but the window of the latter apartment was heavily latched and seemed impossible of being jimmied without more definite signs than were shown. There were slight scratches on the window, but these were not sufficient to turn the catch. It is believed.

Some Snappy Work
Some snappy work by the police, and the quick memory of A. G. Grenier, elevator boy in the building, aided in capturing Leben and Drilling. Mr. Zeller closed his rooms about 5 o'clock but returned shortly afterwards. He found that the hangers in his show cases had been stripped of the most valuable furs, and that in fact the establishment had been practically cleaned out. But very few pieces of the entire stock had been left. Before driving to the station he had notified Lieutenant Maher and Sergeant Dwyer.

It was stated this morning by Mr. REGATA AT BUFFALO
TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 4.—Thirty of Canada's best oarsmen left tonight for Buffalo to compete in the regatta for the United States rowing championships there tomorrow and Saturday.

5379 Voters signed the Initiative Petition and said "Yes," we want streets constructed by contract for economy.

A few hundred City Employees, secure in their jobs, under Civil Service protection, protest with a big "NO."

They have failed, however, to back up their statements with FACTS AND FIGURES.

Are the CITY DEPARTMENTS run for the special benefit of the men elected to City Offices and their APPOINTEES?

Or SHOULD they be run for the BENEFIT OF ALL THE PEOPLE?

Shall the working men and women, employed in other industries, be obliged to pay HIGHER RENTS AND HIGHER TAXES, in order to aid the employees of the Street Department in blocking Municipal Progress?

THE INITIATIVE PETITION, when adopted, will benefit every working man and woman in the city, now burdened with High Rents and High Taxes, partially caused by the Inefficiency and Extravagance of the Street Department.

SCRAMBLE'S SONG

HE WAS VERY HAPPY

Scramble Squirrel was swinging himself on a wild grape-vine—swinging and singing. He was very happy because Old Sizzly Dry Weather had gone south; pine-cones were becoming thick and plentiful, acorns, too, and beechnuts, chestnuts, hickory-nuts, and hazel-nuts were coming along finely. Besides Scramper and the other children were growing fast and learning to tumble and jump like circus-clowns. Really it kept Mrs. Squirrel at her sewing machine most of the time between dish-washing and meal-getting letting out clothes for the family. Scramble was singing this song:

"Oh I'm glad that it's summer, I am, I am,
Oh, glad that it's summer am I,
With roses and bluebells and lilies so sweet,
And orchards chock-full of such good things to eat,
And fluffy white clouds in the sky.
"Oh, I'm glad winter's over, I am, I am,
I am, I am."

Zeller, that all the furs had been recovered. These are now locked in the safe in the guard room at police headquarters. The following pieces are mentioned in the complaint lodged against the pair: 2 fur coats, value $225 each; 1 fur coat, value, $600; 3 fur coats, value, $400 each; 1 fur coat, value, $325; 1 fur coat, value, $300; 1 fur coat, value, $250; 1 fur coat, value, $200; 3 fur pieces, value $35 each; 2 fur pieces, value $20 each; 1 fur piece, value $120; 1 fur piece, value, $150; 1 fur piece, value, $60; 1 fur piece, value, $15; 1 fur muff, value, $50; 4 skins, value, $20 each; and 60 skins, value $2 each.

Scientifically Packed

It is stated that the salesmen's boxes in which this large quantity of furs

Oh, glad winter's over am I,
With its lilies and its chills and its hard frozen rills,
And the snow inches deep over valleys and hills,
That Sprinkle-Blow sends from the sky.

"Oh, I'm glad that fall's coming, I am, I am,
So glad that fall's coming am I,
When Jack Frost with his hammer hits each bar a smack,
And nuts come a'tumbling down with a crack,
Like hail-stones right out of the sky."

Scramble went on a-singing and a-singing, making up verses as he went along, when all at once the sky got as black as night. Scramble could scarcely see the tip of his own nose.

"Goodness!" he exclaimed in amazement. "I wonder why Sprinkle-Blow sent night so soon? Do you s'pose it's what you call 'haylight saving'?" He's certainly saying the daylight. I can't see a thing!"

was taken away, and which were several feet high, were packed in a most expert manner, and that anyone not familiar with the packing of furs would have been totally unable to have placed the amount taken in the space available. It is not known, however, what significance the police attach to this fact.

Mr. Zeller, together with his uncle, owner of some of the furs, were in court this morning to testify, and will appear as witnesses when the case comes up the 6th. Mr. Zeller told of one individual visiting his shop on Tuesday for whom he could not vouch, but stated that yesterday there was no one present who could have made it possible for thieves to gain entrance. It was stated this morning that the police are puzzled as to the manner of entry.

After court Drilling and Leben were taken to cells again, surely not having been secured. It was expected, however, that this would be furnished before tomorrow. Both defendants give their residence as Brooklyn, N. Y., and their age as 27 years.

DRAFT DESERTERS' LIST

Publishing of War Department List Held to be Privileged by N. Y. Court

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—State Supreme Court Justice William P. Burr, has sustained a demurrer entered by the Press Publishing company, publisher of the New York World, in the libel suit brought against it by a man whose name appears in the list of deserters furnished by the war department, May 5 last. The plaintiff claimed that publication of his name held him up to obloquy and contempt among his neighbors.

In his decision sustaining the demurrer, Justice Burr said: "The publication by the defendant of the official list of slackers and deserters prepared and issued by the war department and published at its request, as appears on the face of the complaint, I hold to be privileged as a matter of law."

The plaintiff declared that on May 25, 1917, he had contracted with the government to enter the United States coast and geodetic survey for two years' service as vice president of the shipbuilding corporation and will organize the financial, accounting and sales departments and also reorganize the general offices of the board. It was announced that he had declined to accept any salary for his services.

POWELL NOW ON SHIPPING BOARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Appointment of Joseph W. Powell of Quincy, Mass., as a temporary vice president of the shipping board, was announced last night by Chairman Lusk. He is a former vice president of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation and will organize the financial, accounting and sales departments and also reorganize the general offices of the board. It was announced that he had declined to accept any salary for his services.

Mr. Powell is a graduate of the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis and has been engaged in shipbuilding for many years.

QUINCY, Aug. 4.—Mr. Powell was head of the Quincy River steamship company here during the war.

FIGHTING IN PROGRESS

Battle Along Ten Mile Front,
50 Miles Northeast of Yochaw, Says Peking

PEKING, Aug. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Fighting is reported in progress today along a 10 mile front, 50 miles northeast of Yochaw, where forces from the province of Hunan, affiliated with the southern or Canton government of China, recently invaded Hupeh province.

The engagement was brought on, the reports state, by orders from General Wang Chan-Yuen, Inspector-commissioner of the provinces of Hunan and Hupeh, that a general attack be begun against Hunan province, where his authority is not recognized. The recent invasion of Hupeh by the Hunanese, was begun with the evident intention of ousting him. The Hunanese halted their advance soon after its inception, however, and were said to be awaiting the arrival of reinforcements from other provinces in the Yangtze territory which object to military domination of this territory by forces under the Peking government.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH ANNUAL FIELD DAY

The annual field day of St. Andrew's church held on the grounds of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society in North Billerica yesterday afternoon and evening, was a big success. The weather was ideal for such an occasion and this with the attractive program advertised, was responsible for the large attendance. In the afternoon sports were carried out, while during the evening general dancing was enjoyed in the Mathew hall.

The grounds had been literally covered with sales tables where all kinds of good things were on sale and those in charge of the various booths reported a very substantial business. The sports conducted in the afternoon and the winners of the various events were as follows:

Shoe race, A. Cooper, first; C. Miller, second; 100 yard dash: William McPhair, first; A. Leonardson, second; three leaved race, R. Lyons and H. Fairbrother; bottle race, Finnegan and McEride.

CLEVELAND WANTS BIG CONFERENCE

CLEVELAND, Aug. 4.—Directors of the Cleveland chamber of commerce yesterday wired President Harding at Washington proposing that the forthcoming disarmament conference be held in Cleveland if it is decided not to hold it in Washington.

They pointed out that to hold the conference here would lessen the travelling difficulties of delegates from Japan and British colonies in the Pacific ocean and that Cleveland was host of the world court congress at its first meeting in 1914.

ROGERS ASKS FACTS ON DOUGLAS' SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Albert Douglas, head of the American commission to Peru in connection with the centennial celebration there, advised the state department yesterday that while he warmly expressed American friendship for Peru, in his address in Lima on July 25, "no partiality was shown." Reports that Mr. Douglas had spoken critically of Chile were said by him to be "quite unfounded."

Mr. Douglas had been instructed before undertaking the mission to "maintain an attitude of strict impartiality." The text of his speech has not been received either by the state department or the Chilean embassy. A resolution requesting Secretary Hughes to furnish the house information concerning the speech of Mr. Douglas was introduced yesterday by Representative Rogers of Massachusetts. It asked whether Mr. Douglas "used language which could fairly be construed to express an opinion as to the merits of the long-continued controversy between Chile and Peru," and if so, whether this government had "made formal disavowal of such expression." Mr. Hughes also was asked that if an authentic copy of the Douglas address had been received at the state department to transmit it to the house. Mr. Rogers announced that he would probably endeavor to call up the resolution today.

MOTHER AND SISTER SEE FR. SHEVLIN DROWN

GLOUCESTER, Aug. 4.—Rev. Fr. Bernard A. Shevlin of St. Joseph's Parish, Medford, was drowned in Jones creek at the entrance of Annisquam river about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body was recovered about an hour later.

The mother and sister of Fr. Shevlin have a cottage at Wheeler's Point and he came down yesterday morning to spend the day. About 2 o'clock, according to the family, he dined heartily and later, with his mother and sister, rowed across the river to go in bathing.

It was about half tide and the sand bank of the river, which is a tidal arm of the sea, was half exposed. It shelves gradually into the channel and is a favorite place for bathers.

Fr. Shevlin had gone out into water not more than waist deep. His mother and sister were seated on a rock on the river upland, watching him. Suddenly he gave a sharp cry as if in intense pain, and then collapsed below the water.

His sister Alice called to two men in a boat who went to the scene. They reached down, the water being not more than three feet deep, and one grasped him by the hair and brought his head to the surface. The other thrust an oar out for him to hold, but the hair slipped from the grasp of the man who was holding him up, and the priest sank. The two men could not recover him. His sister Alice in the meantime ran out in the water to his assistance. She had a narrow escape. She stepped in to one of the depressions in the river and got over her head, but fortunately extricated herself.

The alarm was communicated to the colony on Wheeler's Point and the coast guard stationed at Old House Cove. Capt. Aubin of the coast guard station got under way for the scene immediately in his motorboat, and City Marshal Casey sent a squad in the motor ambulance with a lung motor.

In the meanwhile Melvin Healey, a resident of Wheeler's Point, and two other men secured a boat and went to the scene and crimped for the body which was then in eight feet of water, where it had been carried by the current. The body was finally taken ashore, where Capt. Aubin and the coast guard applied the lung motor and the resuscitating movements in vain.

Dr. Philip P. Moore, medical examiner, was summoned and gave a verdict of accidental drowning. The body was taken last night to his home in Medford by motor hearse. The priest was 35 years of age, and had been ordained four years.

MENIK WAS NOT A VERY RICH MAN

Jan Menik, otherwise known as John Manik, a former resident of this city, who died at the state asylum in Worcester in 1913, is believed by his relatives in Warsaw, Poland, to have died a rich man, according to a letter received yesterday by Mayor Thompson from Lucyan Leon Parzynski, a representative of the American consulate in Warsaw, and who represents himself as attorney for the mother and brothers of deceased. Mr. Parzynski states that he has learned that Menik was a rich man, he being the proprietor of a "shop of cloaks and sewing machines" in this city and that the "municipal power occupied himself with the funds of John Menik."

Menik resided at 175 Charles street and conducted a tailor establishment at 135 Church street. On Oct. 8, 1918, he was taken to the state asylum at Worcester and died there in the same year. Inasmuch as deceased had no known relatives in this city his estate was taken over by Lawyer Albert O. Hamel, public administrator, who stated yesterday that after the estate had been settled, there remained to the account of deceased, the sum of $538.51. This money was deposited in a local bank at interest and will be turned over to the legal heirs of deceased as soon as positive proof is given the administrator. Mr. Hamel also stated that he has in his possession two Russian government bonds to the amount of 2000 roubles, but he believes they are worthless. He has attempted on various occasions to locate the heirs of Menik, but his efforts have been fruitless.

Two hundred and thirteen arms were engaged in making coal tar products last year, and $2 in producing dyestuffs alone.

HARDING TRIES TO HIT WILLIAMS

Reserve Board Head Charges Across Room But is Halted by Associates

Officials of Board Resent Charges Made by Former Controller

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Criticism of federal reserve system credit policies, which was continued yesterday before a congressional commission by John Skelton Williams, ex-controller of the currency, aroused the resentment of the system's two highest officers, Governor Harding of the reserve board and Governor Strong of the New York Reserve bank.

In one of the frequent verbal interchanges Governor Harding charged across the committee room swinging his fist, but was halted by struggling associates just in front of his adversary, who remained cool, but was rising for the threatened encounter.

"False," cries Williams. A few minutes later Mr. Strong while reading to the commission a report which charged Mr. Williams with "false and misleading statements," was interrupted by the ex-controller, who shouted:

"That statement of yours is false." Gov. Strong, however, continued reading and presently referred to Mr. Williams as being jealous of his prerogatives.

"And that's a lie, too," the latter indignantly retorted. "At this point I request the committee to require the controller to make oath, whether he has stated the whole truth or not," Gov. Strong exclaimed.

Chairman Anderson ruled amid the confusion that it was "not feasible to adopt the policy at this stage of the game."

Williams' Three Charges

Both federal reserve officials, with a number of associates, had sat apparently unmoved during two days, along with an audience which numbered many senators and representatives allied with the "agricultural block" in congress, while Mr. Williams elaborated three general charges. He said that the board had commenced undue lendings to a New York banking group for speculative uses, while forcing liquidation in southern and western agricultural districts, that it had allowed extortionate interest charges and generally failed to "ease down" inflation.

Gov. Harding rose out of the audience and demanded a hearing on personal grounds, to deny allegations concerning himself, and presently with Gov. Strong, produced from the confidential files of reserve offices, correspondence and reports to combat Mr. Williams' criticisms.

"To answer vitriol and memoranda read by Mr. Williams, which he said he had sent to his associates on the reserve board during 1920 and 1921, protesting their policy and course, Gov. Harding read a single letter or response which the board made to Mr. Williams in 1921.

"The federal reserve board feels constrained to say," the letter said, "that your action has demonstrated the futility of discussions with you on questions of honor and fair play."

"Ignorant and Inaccurate"

Mr. Williams' criticism of the board's handling of credit problems as contained in the correspondence and repeated to the congressional commission, were characterized in Governor Harding's letter as "ignorant, inaccurate and misleading." He said that the object seems to have been merely to make a record during your tenure of office of statements to be handed to the public later," the letter said, in part, "as an appeal to prejudices and sympathies, and not to reason."

The Harding letter further said that Mr. Williams' criticisms generally were "trivial, irrelevant or susceptible of no definite constructive interpretation," and added that "a failure to comply with you cannot be said to be a failure to challenge your statements."

As to the criticism of lending to New York banks, the Harding letter said that out of "a disordered mass of details and statements" forwarded by Mr. Williams, it had been "impossible for the board to understand which action" he desired taken.

The letter said also that out of 50 meetings of the board preceding Mr. Williams' retirement from office, he had attended 18 during their entire time, 18 during a part of the time and during 44 was absent entirely.

Calls It "Poison Gas"

It was charged also that Mr. Williams had "circulated outside of the board confidential letters upon credit matters, and refused to tell the board to whom person or persons they had been sent."

The reading of the letter resulted in a remark from Mr. Williams about "poison gas," and retorts in which Gov. Harding asserted his own desire, during all of the preceding controversy within the board, to settle matters peacefully, but to fight if necessary.

Gov. Strong read extracts from an official confidential report made to the board by him on the New York banking system. It referred to Mr. Williams' semi-official reports as "ignorant and misleading," and accused him of "violations of propriety and dishonesty to his associates."

One New York bank, which Mr. Williams said held $130,000,000 in federal reserve loans, Gov. Strong declared, held also $12,000,000 in government securities, adding that "most of its loans were made to carry purchases during the war." While it was lending $15,000,000 directly or indirectly to its own officers, Gov. Strong said, it held $15,000,000 in Liberty bonds as collateral, and additional securities as well.

Cause of High Interest Rates

Mr. Williams charged that 30 percent interest rates in New York money markets meant the starving of farming districts.

"Had the controller understood the workings of the reserve system," Gov. Strong responded, "he would have understood those rates resulted from the constant withdrawal of funds from New York to send to other sections of the country."

"Much of the credit pressure resulted from organized movements in various parts of the country," Mr. Strong continued, "to withhold commodities from their usual markets."

"A general denial is hardly an effective answer to specific charges and complaints," Mr. Williams said when his turn came again, and later he expressed the opinion that the New York bank, dealing with reserve funds, "passed around with prodigality" during periods when borrowers elsewhere were being restricted.

He concluded his two-day discussion with observations that "there never had been the currency inflation in this country some people believed," that there was "no present improvement from the lowering of latest rates," and that "farmers are entitled to get, through the reserve system, nine months' credits on warehouse certificates for their produce, though dealers and profiteers should be restricted."

FRANCE NOT NEGOTIATING WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

PARIS, Aug. 4.—Reports that negotiations for recognition of the Russian debt to France were impending, which have been in circulation for several days, were given official denial yesterday.

The denial seems to have been prompted by a circumstantial statement, declared to be on reliable authority, printed here yesterday, that such negotiations had been begun Tuesday by Louis Loucheur, French minister of liberated regions, and Leonid Krassin, Russian soviet minister of trade and commerce.

It was said at the foreign office yesterday that France had had no direct communication with the Russian soviet government for a long time on any subject other than mere details of the repatriation. It was pointed out also that George Louis, formerly French minister to Petrograd, to whom in the version of the story was attributed the initiative in the reported negotiations between Krassin and the French government, had been dead for three years.

Before the collapse of the czarist regime in Russia, that government had contracted a debt to France approximately $5,000,000,000. When the soviet administration of Russia was established, the Bolsheviks refused to acknowledge this debt, and to this fact has been attributed the refusal of France to enter into any negotiations with representatives of the Bolsheviks, or to arrange a trade agreement such as was recently entered into between Great Britain and soviet Russia.

POWDER EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR MEN

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 4.—The press mill of the Du Pont Powder Co.'s plant at Oriental, near here, was wrecked by an explosion early yesterday afternoon. Four men are known to have been killed.

DECREASE IN FREIGHT TONNAGE SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., Aug. 4.—Freight passing through the American and Canadian canals here during July, totalled approximately 4,000,000 tons less than for the same month last year, according to the monthly tonnage report. The traffic east and west bound, amounted to 1,135,553 tons.

Passenger traffic showed little change from a year ago, 10,650 persons being carried east and 11,510 westward.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The amazing adventures of an amateur matchmaker create the comedy subplot in "Don't Call Me Little Girl," the feature attraction at the Merrimack Square theatre today. This is Mary Miles Minter's latest production and those who have seen it hail it as her best. It is adapted from the stage play "Jerry," which made such a big hit a few years ago with Billie Burke in the leading role. The other feature for the week-end at the Merrimack Square theatre is "When Dawn Came," a gripping story of modern life with an all-star cast. A comedy and the International News complete the bill.

THE STRAND

A bill of diverse features is being shown at The Strand theatre today and it will be continued tomorrow and Saturday. The leading picture is "The Rising Trail," and Frank Mayo, a real star, will have the principal role. The larger number of the scenes are laid in the Blue Ridge mountains, Mabel Norman will appear in "What Happened to Lisa," a comedy with a lot of snap and romance to it. This combination leaves nothing whatever to be desired in the way of picture entertainment.

OUTDOOR MOVIES AT BELVIDERE PARK

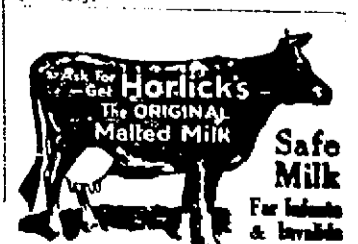

The Lowell public inst evening demonstrated its appreciation of the municipal movie plan, when a large crowd of adults and children assembled at the lower corner of Belvidere park, where a "silver sheet," stretched between two trees, displayed a series of interesting films. Long before the time set for the opening of the exhibition, groups of youngsters, and others, too, had gathered, and there was, in effect, "standing room only" when the show got going.

The performance put on by the park department last night included a news reel, one entitled "The Firebugs," and one designated "The Firecat." A magnavox purveyed music from the truck which brought the paraphernalia, and from which the projection machine was worked. Tonight the Lawrence Mfg. company grounds will be the scene of an exhibit.

BRITISH-AMERICAN CLUB

President W. Axon occupied the chair at the regular meeting of the British-American Social club which was held last evening. Plans for a banquet on Armistice night were discussed, routine business was transacted and an entertainment program was given. There was a large attendance.

Ballplayer Worth Weight In Gold

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—He's worth his weight in gold.

The San Francisco Seals, of the Pacific Coast league, demand a price for young Jimmy O'Connell, star first baseman, which in yellow metal would more than outweigh Jimmy.

Recently Bob Connery, scout for the New York Yankees, is understood to have offered $50,000 cash for the 21-year-old pastime. The offer was refused, and O'Connell's price set at $100,000, the highest figure ever demanded for a minor leaguer. But the Seals management considers itself justified when it is considered that practically every major league club in the country is bidding for his services. O'Connell weighs 180 pounds, which figured in gold at $20.57 an ounce, totals $73,026.

This is O'Connell's second year in professional baseball. Fred Mitchell, ex-manager of the Chicago Cubs and now manager of the Boston Braves, offered the Seals $10,000 for him before the youngster had played one complete game in organized baseball.

THE BAY STATE CIRCUIT

Col. Bidwell Has Fairly Easy Time With Queen Abbess in Worcester

WORCESTER, Aug. 4.—Col. Bidwell won his eighth consecutive race at the second day of the Bay State circuit races at Greendale yesterday afternoon before a much bigger crowd than was present on the opening day. Doctor Nick, owned by a Worcester syndicate, won the 2:11 trot, his first win of the season. He had previously twice taken second money in this event to Lockspur that was missing yesterday. A race in the two-year-old kind. She went away in back in the opening heat, made a break just after the word was given, but once caught, she quickly regained lost ground and up even with the leaders at the three-quarters, beat them from there home. Eliza Mackey was always there the race.

Johnson and Col. Bidwell made no effort for the first heat. The Colonel was just back of Signal Boy when the word was given. Signal Boy made a sideways break and Johnson had to pull up short. Thereafter he was careful to beat only the flag. In the next two heats, however, there was nothing to it but Bidwell. After the third heat the judges warned the other drivers to go out and make it some sort of a contest.

Dr. Nick had things all his own way in the 2:11 trot. He led the entire distance each heat. R. H. Brett was shut out in the second heat of the 2:13 pace while he refused to go away with the others. The summary:

MEDFORD KNIGHTS PLAY LOCAL TEAM SATURDAY

Nicky Coughlin will send his classy K. of C. team against the Medford Knights at Spalding Park Saturday afternoon and a great game is expected. The Medford team comes highly recommended and is said to have triumphed over many of the leading semi-professional teams in the state. The Knights are a team which has been moving 'em down with consistent regularity this season. The remainder of the local team will be present on the field. They have been few Saturdays, and Lowell fans feel confident that another victory will be scored. Bob Keeler, who has given complete satisfaction to all game handlers to date, will act as umpire.

HOW 16 MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS RACED IN JULY

Major league pennant races in July produced more low-score games than in June. Large scores were the exception.

The National League Pittsburgh, league leaders, dropped 49 points during the month, while New York gained 19 and was but 7 points behind the Pirates as the month opened out.

Pittsburgh's drop was due to its ineffective pitching, while New York's rise was due to better pitching and better all-around play.

The Braves won 17 of their 27 games while Pittsburgh was able to cop but 14 of 27. The Giants did their winning in streak, winning 20 and losing but 11 games.

Pittsburgh's chance to cross the pennant wire in front depends on its pitchers. St. Louis, Chicago and New York, in the order named, stand above the Pirates in hitting power.

Brooklyn's pitching staff is shot with Miller, McManis and Cadore hurt. St. Louis, after a nose dive of 37 points, started to climb again the last week of the month.

Chicago dropped lower, but remained in sixth position.

Cincinnati managed to boost its percentage 48 points.

American League

Cleveland and New York battled bitterly during July for leadership with Tris Speaker's Indians having a shade.

The Yankees gained the top rung July 20 but dropped back the next day to their second middle position. That makes twice this season the Huggins have held the leadership for a day.

Cleveland's first string pitchers are faltering. Al Sotheron has come back. The Yankee outfit is at odds with Manager Huggins.

Washington still clings to the third rung.

Detroit has a fighting spirit, but Cobb has to revamp his infield.

Boston skidded from fourth to fifth place from July 1st to the 23rd, and was passed by St. Louis the third week of the month, winding up in the sixth notch.

St. Louis moved up one peg.

Red Faber's wonderful pitching has kept the White Sox on a level.

The Athletics entrenched themselves deeper in the cellar. The kids play good ball for seven innings and then go to pieces.

ODD PERFORMANCES IN MAJOR LEAGUE GAMES

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Odd performances featured the major league contests yesterday. In the first Chicago-Boston National league game, every Cub player had one or more assists. Pitcher Alexander, who had six assists and was the only Chicago player without a putout to his credit, was a pivot in a peculiar double play. Left fielder Sullivan caught a fly, threw the ball to the infield, where Alexander threw to Third Baseman Deal, who completed the play. In the second game each of the Boston outfielders had two putouts.

The Chicago American outfielders had neither putouts nor assists in the game with Boston. All of the Red Sox players, except outfielder Leibold had one or more putouts.

Flack of the Chicago Nationals and Smith of the St. Louis Nationals, lead-off men in batting, opened with home runs. The home run by the Cardinals player proved to be the margin by which the New York Nationals were defeated, causing them to drop back to 2 1/2 games behind the Pittsburgh leader.

All of the Pittsburgh players except Catcher Schmidt, forced out by injury, made at least one hit. Brotem, who relieved Schmidt, made a single while Hatcher Cooper had two.

COX THROWN IN GRAND CIRCUIT COLLISION

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 4.—After a day of rain, Grand Circuit racing was resumed at Port Miami Park yesterday, although the track was in such bad condition that it was nearly 4 when the first race was started and one of the four events was carried over.

The feature race was the $5000 stake for 200 trotters and this furnished an upset, being won by the Omaha mare Kilowatts, driven by Marvin Childs. There was also an accident in the third heat of this event. Greyworthy and Dorothy Day coming together at the stretch, Walter Cox being thrown to the track, but he escaped injury and the horse was stopped without trouble.

Greyworthy broke in the first heat, 2:03 trotting the $100 Greyworthy $40. Kilowatts, $35, Selka $10, Voltage $10, the Stokes entry, Escott and Pelham Empress $10, and the field $5.

Greyworthy broke in the first heat and Kilowatts led all the way, beating Brookworthy easily.

Brookworthy took the lead from Kilowatts in the back stretch in the second heat, but the mare came on again and led Kilowatts in the final heat, with Greyworthy finishing very fast.

There was a big play on the Cox count for the final heat and he was trotting very fast at the three-quarters when he was upset by Kilowatts. The winner is owned by Dennison, Peterson and Murphy of Omaha.

Kokomo George was favorite in the 2:11 pace, but he was upset by Utko, after losing the first heat to the erratic Carter June. The 3-year-old trot was postponed.

MINOR LEAGUE "WORLD'S SERIES"

Sweeps Over All Net Stars Alike

VINCENT RICHARDS

By DEAN SNYDER

Will the impetuous Vincent Richards rank ahead of the wonder-man of tennis, William T. Tilden, before the tennis year ends?

Like a comet this youth has shot through the list of stars this summer who rated above him a year ago.

Richards was given the rank of No. 12 by the United States Lawn Tennis Association in 1920.

He has beaten in turn Ichiba Kumagae, third in the national rank, R. Norris Williams II, fourth, and Tilden, first.

The one set he dropped to Tilden is the first he has dropped this year.

Never before has a youth accomplished as much in a single season.

Climax

His victory over Tilden, the world's champion, came as an astounding climax. He played the more masterly tennis.

While Tilden offers no alibi, he was tired and not at his best.

"I did not play any better when I defeated my world title against Norton, the English champion, a few weeks ago at Wimbledon," says Tilden.

The youthful star used much strategy in all of his victories.

Against Kumagae he picked out his soft spots and played to them.

When he faced Williams, he sensed the former champion's weakness at the start. Williams prefers to have the ball well away from his body. Richards shot it straight at him with the result that Williams was forced to make his shots from the cramped position.

Richards vanquished the Boston star by his tactical judgment and brilliant stroke execution.

When he stepped out on the courts at Providence, R. I., to face Tilden, the master, he had the poise of a champion.

He showed a well-rounded game, coupled with a variety of strokes and magnificent service which threw Tilden off his usual stride.

Invariably he advanced to the net at the psychological moment to pass Tilden with a clever cross-bro.

His recovery appeared unextinguishable. He leaped high in the air in mid-court for volley kills.

Richards has been a tennis sensation since he started his career within six months.

This year he seems to have dropped some of his boyishness.

He may not be able to beat Tilden, when the champion is at his best, but he will rank one-two-three this fall.

Broadways Defeat Gillespies In Uninteresting and One-Sided Game on South Common Last Evening

Last evening on the South common the Broadways were victorious over the Gillespies, score 8 to 1. It was a slow, spiritless game, especially after the 4th when Bird blew and allowed a number of passes. Charlie was pretty well fatigued from his efforts on Tuesday evening when he pitched against the Centralvilles but he was the only twister the Gillespies could manage and he had to see the thing through.

Sturtevant pitched for Broadways and his work was uniformly good although he did allow several hits which might have developed into runs if the opposition had been on their toes. His team was perfect in the field. It was largely on account of the support given him that Sturtevant was able to hold his own.

The Broadways got their first run in the first inning when Farrell reached first on an error by Williams and stole second. Ganley fled out to Allen. Desmond singled and Connors went out at first. Farrell scoring on the play. In the third, the second run came in when Ganley and Desmond were given passes. Ganley scored on Bird's single to third. In the fourth came the avalanche. Bagley was issued a pass. Sturtevant got on when Tuohy erred and after Farrell went out on a grounder to the pitcher, Ganley struck out. Four runs had crossed the plate and fans began to leave their seats on the grassy slopes and go home. Bird bore the brunt of the spectators' anger. People along the side lines were not slow in telling him to withdraw from the contest, but there was no one to fill his shoes and he went on with the game.

In the fifth another run batted for the Broadways on a couple of singles by Farrell and Ganley and a sacrifice out Desmond's bat.

The sixth brought the Gillespies their only run. Tuohy singled, stole second and reached home on a line drive by Allen to center.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Highland Daylights vs. C.M.A.C. tonight.

Allen caught a good game.

Connors made an unassisted double play in the fifth.

Gleason made a great catch in the fourth.

It looks as though the Centralvilles will be the champions but South Ends have a slight chance of tying them.

That ought to be a good game between the South Ends and the Broadways tomorrow night.

"Having a Heart" In Ring Doesn't Pay, Frush Finds

DANNY FRUSH

By DEAN SNYDER

Danny Frush, Baltimore featherweight, who fights Johnny Kilbane in September for the featherweight championship of the world, is a fighter without a heart.

He used to fight in England where boxing skill is recognized. But since coming to America he has changed his style.

"I found that 'having a heart' in this country didn't pay. Fighters whom he let stay razed him afterwards. Down and out, was the idea here.

When he meets Kilbane he won't try to win on points, but on a knockout if he can slip one over on the gray-haired champion.

"There is no sentiment in boxing," says Frush.

"In America you are no better than your knockout record. You have to stretch them on the floor before fans give you a hand.

"I believe I can knock out Kilbane.

It's my opinion that the first good man who gets in the ring with him will step out the champion.

"That's why I'm willing to fight him for just training expenses and let him take the pursa of $60,000 which has been offered by the Cleveland promoter, Tommy McGinly.

"I'll cash in afterwards. It takes a little to make money in the fight game.

"A year ago I sent to England and had my father and mother, two brothers and sister come to America.

"I earned enough in the ring to buy them a nice home in Baltimore. Now I want enough to set my father up in business.

Kilbane is 10 years older than Frush. The Baltimore lad was born in London 23 years ago of Jewish parents.

His first fight netted him $12.

Frush likes good clothes and looks out for the needs of his family. He shows a heart—where it really counts.

Fighter Must Train Himself

By DEAN SNYDER

Every fighter to his own method of training. Joe Lynch burned up his stuff in the training camp ring. Pete Herman put-pointed what was left of him in the battle ring and recaptured the bantam crown. Jack Dempsey trained for Georges Carpentier without a trainer. He trained himself, doing what he figured was best to get himself in plink shape. He did a good job of it.

Johnny Wilson stopped off at Cleveland and a couple of days before his fight with Bryan Downey, took a light workout and called it a job. Downey knocked him out in seven rounds and won the middleweight title.

Light Work

Benny Leonard is training himself for his title fight with Lew Tindler. He has studied anatomy, muscles and how to keep them fit.

A trainer wouldn't let him drink ice water after workouts. Benny drinks it because he figures it is okay for his system.

Benny doesn't punch the bag. He'd rather shadow box.

He doesn't skip rope. He prefers road-work.

He doesn't fool with pulleys. Setting-up exercises suit him better. He weighs 135. He'll have to do 135 for Tindler. That doesn't worry the champion.

Hard Work

Lew Tindler is working like a beaver at his training camp in Delanco, N. J.

He's doing road-work, skipping rope, punching the bag, hauling the pulleys, shadow boxing and knocking out sparring partners—everything in the book.

He will stake his supreme effort against Leonard's title August 12. There is eagerness in all his work.

Like Dempsey he believes fighting is the only way to train to fight your best.

UNCLE SAM

JOHN BULL

Here's J. B. Stack, Cornell, winning the high jump at the meet between Oxford-Cambridge and Cornell-Princeton at Travers Island. He cleared the bar at 5 feet 8 3/4 inches. The meet resulted in a tie score, each team winning two events.

Abrahams, of Cambridge, was the only athlete to win two events in the field meet held by Oxford-Cambridge and Cornell-Princeton. Here he is winning the running broad jump with a mark of 21 feet 8 inches.

PAYS HONOR

—NOT GOLD

By DEAN SNYDER

Fame and riches do not always go hand in hand. Ned Gourdin, the Harvard negro lad who jumped 25 feet, 3 inches in the international track meet a few days ago, is working his way through school.

He is without funds, although he is the greatest jumper the world ever had. Gourdin will enter the Harvard law school this fall.

He can't cash in on his wonderful ability because it is a line of athletic endeavor that pays in honor—not gold.

NO PUNCH

ROPE-SKIPPER

Miss Suzanne Langton, considered the greatest woman tennis player, trains like a prize fighter in some respects. She is a rope-skipper, like Georges Carpentier.

Also her training rules are similar to the ones the Frenchman followed at Manhattan farm, where he trained for Jack Dempsey.

Suzanne doesn't exercise until she feels tired. Physical fitness is not a gradual growth, she says. She should last longer than four rounds when she meets our American stars.

MRS. MALLORY TRAINS BY ROPE SKIPPING

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, women's national tennis champion, has torn a leaf from the training book of the roper arena in preparing for a return match she hopes to obtain with Suzanne Langton, the French star, who defeated her at Paris, recently. She has taken up rope skipping, and fellow passengers on the Steamer United States, on which she returned yesterday, reported she had skipped 2612 times on one occasion without stopping.

Mrs. Mallory is scheduled to meet Miss Jessie Grott in the first round of the women's Metropolitan championship at the Nassau Country club, Glen Cove today.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Young Roamers of West—Centralville defeated the Dracut Stars, 12-5. The lineup for the Roamers is: P. Perreault, c. A. Fallou, p. H. Fallou, 1b; M. Fox, 2b; J. Downs, 3b; A. Halper, 3b; R. Chandler, 1b; A. Charotte, cf; F. Chamberlain, rf. The Roamers will play any team under 13 years of age. Telephone 3214-W.

The "Red Sox" challenge any 15-year-old team in the city to a game next Sunday. They will take on the Bunting A.A., the St. Louis team, the Belmonts or in fact any other team in their class. The manager will be at home any night between 6 and 7 o'clock. Phone 5336-M.

FELTON REINSTATED

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 4.—Fred Fulton of Minneapolis, heavyweight boxer who was suspended some two years ago, following charges of his having engaged in a "fake" fight with Jack Dempsey, was reinstated today by the Minnesota Boxing commission and will now be permitted to participate in bouts in this state.

WHILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLAYS POLITICS BIG INDUSTRY LEAVES LOWELL

SYRACUSE GETS BIG INDUSTRY

Lamson Co., Subsidiary of American Pneumatic Service Corporation, to Move Plant from Lowell

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 2.—A campaign of months by the Syracuse chamber of commerce closed successfully today with the announcement that the Lamson Co. of Lowell, Mass., a subsidiary of the American Pneumatic Service Corporation would remove its plant to a site at Eastwood. Acquisition of the Lamson company means a new $5,000,000 industry employing upwards of 700 men for Greater Syracuse. Incidentally it is the largest company ever to move to Syracuse from another city. Negotiations for the removal of the industry were completed with the arrival in Syracuse of William F. Merrill, president and general manager of the Lamson company.—Boston Transcript.

The Chamber of Commerce was organized to bring new industries to Lowell.

If it were doing its duty it would have its imported $5000 a year secretary, an out-of-town man, going throughout New England and the country advertising Lowell and bringing new business here and new taxpayers.

That would help to reduce the tax rate.

Yet here is concrete evidence that the Chamber is asleep at the switch.

Instead of bringing new plants here we see them leaving Lowell.

The Lamson Store Service Corporation, employing nearly 1000 skilled machinics, is going away.

The Live Chamber of Commerce of Syracuse has taken this industry from us.

1000 skilled men will be out of jobs—

5000 others, their wives and children, are brought face to face with want.

Many of them will have to leave Lowell.

They are among our best citizens.

Answer this—Lowell Chamber of Commerce.

Why did you allow this disaster?

Answer the people of Lowell.

What have you done to prevent it?

You not only have brought no new industries here but you are allowing our best ones to go away.

While you are playing politics and dividing your own membership on the question of contract labor, we are losing our biggest taxpayers.

Are you satisfied to have these 1000 skilled men driven out of employment?

And will you be satisfied to have 1000 city employees driven out of employment by contract labor?

What a record for the Lowell Chamber of Commerce!

WHAT A RECORD!

While you are accusing Lowell citizens OF NOT HAVING BRAINS ENOUGH TO RUN THEIR CITY AND BUILD THEIR STREETS—

Look into the glass and see what your own record is.

Playing politics—that's what you are doing.

GOOD BYE—LAMSON COMPANY

We are sorry you have been forced to leave our fair city.

May you fare better at the hands of the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce. Our loss is their gain. We wish you the best of luck.

Do not take with you too many of our skilled workers. We want them to stay with us. We need them.

WELCOME PRES. HARDING

Lancaster and Surrounding White Mountain County Join in Public Reception

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 4.—Lancaster and all the surrounding White Mountain country joined in a public welcome today to President Harding who is to spend the remainder of the week on vacation at Mount Prospect.

Thousands from other towns came in by automobile and train to swell the crowd that gathered in Continental square to cheer the chief executive and hear him deliver a short response. It was arranged for him to speak without leaving the automobile and public officials planned it possible to spare him from shaking hands.

The president agreed to come here for the occasion after a committee had called on him yesterday at the Mount Prospect lodge of Secretary Weeks, where Mr. and Mrs. Harding are guests. Former State Senator Irving. Drew headed the committee and was chairman of the welcome meeting today.

Before he came into Lancaster the president played a round of golf on the miniature course improvised by members of the vacation party on the summit of Mount Prospect. A silver cup has been purchased for the winner of the week's play over the course, which covers only a small area, but has many obstacles in the form of huge rocks and outcroppings.

Although it was believed before the president left Washington that a proclamation of peace with the Central Empire might be issued by him from Mount Prospect, it is not now expected that the step will be taken until the vacation is over. Under present plans Mr. Harding will be back in the capital next Tuesday or Wednesday and probably will give the question of a peace proclamation his first attention after he reaches the White House.

Capt. Gordon on Stand

Prosecute many cases from improper motives. Captain Herbert Gordon of the Cambridge police, who is attached to the district attorney's office, testified for the defense today.

Gordon was questioned about several cases which have been the subject of testimony and then was asked regarding money he borrowed from Daniel Sughrue, an associate of Daniel H. Conkley, an attorney, who represented several moving picture magnates in the settlement of cases growing out of a midnight "bender" at a Woburn roadhouse.

The witness said stock that he owned had slumped badly and Sughrue helped him out by transferring to Gordon's account about $6500 and some shares of stock. He assigned his own stock to Sughrue as security. He never told the district attorney of his transactions with Sughrue, he said.

Tufts was then called and testified regarding the alleged payment of $1000 by Louis "Paco" Bennett to secure his release from the House of Correction. Bennett claimed his money was paid in two employes of Sheriff Fairbairn of Middlesex county and was returned later.

Tufts said the story was brought to his attention by Fairbairn and that he placed it before the grand jury. Tufts' testimony before the grand jury was then read. In it he said no one had approached him with offers of money but that many persons had been to him urging Bennett's release.

Tufts Accuses Allen
District Attorney Tufts repeated his charge that Attorney General Allen had sought to have him press for an indictment of John W. Combs, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. In order that he might be able to strengthen a civil suit against Combs in which Mr. Allen was interested as counsel.

The attorney-general was cross-examining the district attorney.

"Do I understand that you said I called to have an indictment by the grand jury?"

"Certainly you did, you said you were interested in finding a car because you wanted to attach it. You thought if I pressed the matter it was the only way to bring the man to the dough-dish."

"You had brought the matter to the grand jury in January and I called on you in March," Mr. Allen declared.

Delay Criminal Cases
The grand jury adjourned until the 10th of the month.

Three hundred and sixty separate dyes were manufactured in this country in 1920.

is a criminal case of this character—a man being killed that if a civil suit is pending, the criminal case must wait four or five years?

"I know that repeatedly we have attempted to try such cases and that there have been only two ordered tried in my experience, the almost invariable rule being to continue such cases if there are civil suits pending," was Mr. Tufts' answer.

Struck the Wrong Man

The defendant admitted that it was a case of mistaken identity, that he went forth to punish the man who hit his "kid brother," and of whom he knew only that the party's name was Buckley.

"But where did you get this club?" queried the court, holding up an instrument which was identified by a police official as being a regulation police weapon. "That's my father's," explained Salts. Later the probation officer's list, consulted, revealed that his father is dead. "Oh, well, we've been keeping it," he volunteered. Mr. Dowd will inquire as to the exact status of the club also as to other facts concerning Mr. Salts.

Police on Trial of Speedsters

idents within as many days. This statement was made this morning by Chief William H. Cullinan of the Draught police department, who added that, in accordance with his recently issued orders, his officers had been active in spotting headless drivers of autos and motorcycles. Today Isadora Morissette was in on a Draught complaint, but lack of prosecution was noted because of insufficient evidence, and the case was dismissed.

One of the motorists who will be brought before Judge Enright by the police of the neighboring town was caught only after a hot chase in which Chief Cullinan and other officers pursued the motorcycle the man was driving at a mile-a-minute clip. Overtaken once, he jammed on speed, and again drew away from his pursuers. The second time he was overtaken, however, he stopped, and his name and number were taken. He will be only one of the many summoned, as a large batch were rounded up Saturday night.

Several complaints were sworn to this morning by Chief Cullinan at the office of the clerk of the police court here. Cullinan declared that a relentless and rapid drive will be continued until the practice of "opening up" within the town limits of Draught is stopped. He said that since the first group was haled before Judge Enright, he had had some bad experiences and had no intention of being outdone.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Fake fire sales were derided and predictions made that sharp legitimate advertising would cause a flood of business, by speakers before the National Congress of Retail Merchants yesterday.

W. Frank McClure, chairman of the advertising council of the Chicago Association of Commerce, which had charge of yesterday's meeting, said that advertising would "bring such a flood of customers that goods can be marked low and small profits on one customer will amount to large figures on many customers."

J. A. Davis, manager of the advertisers and investors' protective bureau of the association, told the retailers that "truth in advertising has become as necessary as truth in the home."

BOY BADLY INJURED

George Bates, aged 4 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bates of 55 Liberty street, sustained a compound fracture of the leg, abrasions of the temple and injuries to his back when he was struck and run over by an automobile in South street yesterday.

The driver of the machine, Percy Stuart of 559 Chelmsford street, claims the little fellow ran from behind another machine into the path of his car and that the collision was unavoidable. The boy was taken to his home, where he received treatment.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Edward Perdon, of Saugus, will answer a charge of operating an automobile in a reckless manner, July 21, in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public, when his case comes before the police court here Aug. 11.

He appeared this morning, but a continuance was taken. The alleged offense was committed on Pleasant street, according to the complaint.

MUST COME ACROSS

Leo Leblanc, charged with non-support of his three minor children, drew a six months' sentence this morning. He claimed a two week's suspension, but the court refused to accept his plea. The expiration of his fourteen days of grace, he will be incarcerated, Judge Enright stated.

Hereditary Indian Foes Bury the Hatchet and Smoke Pipe of Peace

PENETANG, Ont., Aug. 4.—Friendliness existed today between hereditary Indian foes, the Hurons and the Iroquois, whose chieftains buried the hatchet yesterday and smoked the pipe of peace in the presence of a great multitude gathered on the shore of Penetang bay for the tercentenary celebration of the coming of the pioneer, Champlain.

This ceremony ended a feud that began 271 years ago when the fury of the Iroquois fighters vanquished the Hurons from the land that is now Ontario. Warfare raged among them for more than two centuries, but in recent years they were but nominal foes.

Returning to the domain where once his ancestors ruled, the big canoe of Chief Ovide Sioui of the Hurons slipped upon the sands of Penetang bay yesterday and a moment later his Chief, Andrew Siatie, leader of the Mohawk tribe of the Six Nations, stepped ashore. The chieftains, in full regalia with great feather in an arc above their straight, black locks, met in the shadow of a birch bark tepee.

"Now we go kill moose together," said the Huron to the Iroquois, when they had puffed at the pipe of peace and buried the war hatchet beneath a huge red boulder.

Chamber is on the Warpath

ing a letter to Secretary Manager George F. Wells, of the chamber of commerce in which he stated that he had made an investigation of alleged irregularities in connection with the purchase of paving blocks and had found that, in his opinion, no law had been violated.

THE MAYOR'S LETTER

"Dear Sir:—Assuming that it is desired that an immediate answer to yours of the 2nd inst. addressed to me shall be given, I submit, in the absence of the city solicitor, who is now on a vacation, and regretting my inability to confer with him as to the legal aspect of the matter in question, the following is my opinion:

"That insofar as any violation of the charter of our city is concerned, in the matter of the purchase of granite paving blocks for new construction of highways in the city of Lowell, it appears to me that whatever paving blocks have been purchased as aforesaid have been purchased in a duly proper and legal manner.

Quarry

Yesterday afternoon an official of the chamber of commerce interviewed a member of a firm owning a quarry within a few miles of Lowell, and which, in the past, has supplied considerable quantities of paving blocks to the city.

"I would be glad today to furnish to the city," he said, "all of the so-called six-inch paving blocks, for which it is now paying $136 per thousand, for $100 per thousand. I would be able to make a good profit at that price."

The publication of the advertisement criticizing the chamber of commerce for an alleged failure to retain the Lamon company in the city resulted in the posting of the notice today regarding the company's leaving the city. In addition to other reasons given by an official of the company it was stated that the poor condition of the streets had led it to seek a city where its trucking could be done for a less cost than here because of better highways. It was also stated by an officer of the company that a lack of civic pride in Lowell, the lack of satisfactory lighting facilities and the refusal of some of its employees with homes in Boston to come to Lowell to live were responsible for the decision of the company to leave town.

Sends Telegram

Secretary Manager George F. Wells of the chamber of commerce today sent telegrams to the street authorities of a number of cities asking similar to those used on Thorndike street, and for which the city is paying $136 and $13 per thousand.

From Fitchburg the reply came from City Engineer D. A. Hartwell that the price is $50 per thousand. Similar replies were received from other places.

The mayor completed his investigation of the purchase of paving blocks by the purchasing agent, made at the request of the chamber of commerce, and issued the following statement:

"The one provides for the making or authorizing the making of contracts with the municipal council, the other deals with the making of contracts and the management of a particular department."

"It is my belief and conviction that the purchase of materials and supplies and paving blocks used in the construction of highways are rightful concerns of the particular city and wholly within the power and authority vested in the purchasing agent and commissioner of the department. It does not come within the provisions of section 27 as aforesaid."

"I have examined further with the purchasing agent concerning the purchase of the particular paving blocks and it appears to me that the explanation of his attitude in the matter as confirmed and approved by the commissioner of streets and highways that the purchase was made in due legal and proper form."

FOR DISTRIBUTION OF CAPTURED CANNON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—After five hours of debate a senate bill authorizing distribution to states and municipalities of cannon and other war material captured by the Americans from the Germans was recommitted yesterday by the house to the military committee by a vote of 103 to 99.

A section appropriating $400,000 for the expense of distribution was eliminated on a point of order by Representative Garrett of Tennessee, acting democratic leader, but the house, by a vote of 126 to 120, immediately rejected an amendment by Representative Roach, republican, Missouri, to require communities receiving the captured articles to pay all transportation and packing charges.

Before the motion was adopted, the bill, which provided that states should share in the distribution in

Reduction to Become Effective at General Electric Co. Plant in Lynn Monday

LYNN, Aug. 4.—A wage reduction affecting 12,000 employees of the General Electric Co. here, was announced by Richard H. Fish, general manager. The cut, which will vary in amount with the different classes of workers, will become effective next Monday, the announcement said, and slips indicating how each is affected will be enclosed in the individual pay envelopes this week.

The step was taken, Mr. Fish said, after conference between the management and a committee of employees composing the general joint committee on adjustment, at which means to assure continued operation of the various departments were discussed. Unskilled employees, who have been receiving wages unduly high in proportion to those of skilled or semi-skilled workers, will receive the biggest cuts, the announcement said.

FIRST DAY'S WORK SUCCESS AT DEVENS

AYER, Aug. 4.—Citizen soldiers—1200 New England youngsters—had their first taste of drill, hiking and calisthenics yesterday since their enrollment for a month's military training course at Camp Devens.

Most of them are mere schoolboys of 16 to 18 years of age, but each one is eager to make himself fit, both physically and mentally, to play a man's part should their services ever be required by the government.

Yesterday they were taught to stand straight, head up, chin, and before nightfall, 1200 of them were able to march in unison without stepping on one another's heels or straggling. The result of the first day's work with these eager citizen-soldier lads was a surprise and source of gratification to the veteran regular army officers in charge of the camp.

Steamer Pocahontas Ready to Sail

NAPLES, Aug. 4.—The American steamer Pocahontas which arrived here on July 4 in a damaged condition, alleged to have been due to the acts of members of her crew, was scheduled to sail for New York today, but it seemed improbable that she would depart. The ship was repaired following her arrival and debts amounting to a considerable sum were contracted. The creditors yesterday asked that the steamer be held in port until their claims were settled.

Earnings Fell Off $4,962,733

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The International Mercantile Co., and its subsidiaries earned $12,782,178 in 1920—a decrease of $4,962,733 as compared with figures for 1919, said the annual report made public today. From the 1920 earnings, $5,346,376 was charged off to depreciation of steamships, leaving a net surplus for the year of $7,435,801. The company's total surplus was given as $30,556,973. P. A. S. Franklin, president of the company, attributed the falling off in earnings to shrinkage in freight traffic, lower rates, labor difficulties and increased expenses for supplies, repairs and reconditioning of ships.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN!

Possibly the announcement that the Lamson Store Service company is to leave Lowell, will cause some of the unreasonable people who are trying to chain our city to the Rock of Inefficiency to stop, look and listen.

It appears that a number of political schemers who are interested in positions at city hall are out with perfidious appeals to the laboring people to rally to their support. The laboring people will make a very serious mistake if they heed these appeals for, let it be understood that if the city is prevented from adopting a policy of economy and retrenchment, various other industries may decide to quit Lowell and go where they will have lower taxes, cheaper land, less trouble from agitators, better streets, and conditions generally more favorable.

Nine-tenths of the working people of Lowell have to look for their bread and butter to the textile factories, the machine shops, the shoe shops and various other manufacturing industries; yet the laborers employed at city hall under civil service protection, ask the factory workers to join them in support of a policy which, if persisted in, may drive out various other industries such, for example, as the Massachusetts and Merrimack mills.

When any industry moves out to seek another location, it does so because it finds greater advantages in its new location; when individuals sever the ties that bind them to their place of birth, their home and friends most dear, they do so because it is for their interest to move. When they seek another location, it may be in the south, the northwest, or on the Pacific coast. They want one where they will no longer be annoyed by the conditions that drove them out. It may have been lack of opportunity; it may have been the evil effects of misgovernment that promotes graft and robs the people; and, as with individuals so with industries, they, too, go where they can do better solely for their own interest.

In this respect Lowell as a city has to compete with the south, the east and the west, or wherever the greatest facilities and conveniences are offered to industries that find themselves embarrassed in their present locations. If the local tax-burdens are much heavier than elsewhere, then our position as an industrial city is imperiled.

"Oh," the city hall shouter and the sidewalk agitator will say, "you are trying to raise an unnecessary scare." Such a statement would betray gross ignorance of the situation. It is not such a difficult matter to blight the prospects of a thriving city and drive her industries to other places where they can do business without tax extortion, and can have all the advantages of economic and progressive government.

Lowell once had the greatest carpet factory in the country, the Bigelow company, one that paid better wages than any other local textile industry, one in which many men and women worked long enough to be able to purchase respectable homes; but that great industry after expanding its plant got into trouble locally and decided to go elsewhere. Labor listened to a few nothings and thus caused the loss of the golden egg to take flight to a more congenial climate. That was a most serious loss to Lowell. The great plant is partly occupied by various smaller concerns; but to this day, Lowell and her people feel the loss of the Bigelow company.

No industry is tethered here. The Massachusetts mills has a branch plant in Georgia and the Merrimack has one in Alabama. In either case the south offers many advantages over the north both as to the source of supply, transportation and wages. The middle west is competing with New England, and Japan can deliver cotton fabrics in Lowell at one-third of what they cost to produce in our local mills. These are menacing conditions that cannot be successfully met if the tax rate is increased through reckless extravagance. In this fierce competition, let it be remembered that the fraction of a cent a yard sometimes makes all the difference between success and failure. It is equally true that an increase of 50 cents or a dollar in the tax rate will sometimes drive out industries and prevent others from coming in.

We must learn from the lessons of the past that unless a city keeps abreast of the times in government, in education and in the privileges it offers its people, those who want only the best will go elsewhere.

We have various examples of this internal decline here in Massachusetts. Once Marblehead was the leading seaport in New England; but her citizens lacked the capacity or the inclination to keep pace with the times and hence Boston took the lead and today Marblehead harbor, one of the finest on the Atlantic coast, is visited only by pleasure yachts and the fishing craft of people spending their vacation there. Old Salem had an experience somewhat similar, and today she points to the historic landmarks of the former commercial importance of her port. Newburyport, with a fine harbor and at the mouth of a great river that should carry half of New England's coal supply, is as dead as Chelsea, because her people failed to keep pace with the progress of the times. Boston, a small place at first, outstripped them and in turn is today being outdone in commercial importance by other cities. Thus time worketh her changes, slowly it may be, but surely nevertheless. And so it comes to a point at which the citizens of Lowell are asked to adopt a policy of street construction that is necessary for these reasons:

(1) To give us better streets as soon as possible and at an expense not exceeding what the work costs elsewhere.

(2) To employ men who are now idle and who cannot break through the civil service wall at city hall.

(3) By economic government to reduce our tax rate and thus to hold our industries in Lowell and also to reduce rents throughout the city.

All these aims, if realized, would benefit the working people in a dozen different ways; and hence the clamor at city hall about this being a movement against labor is the worst kind of claptrap invented by an unscrupulous clique of political schemers to delude the working people and cause them to vote against their own interests.

Despite present conditions and all the signs of the times, a certain element at city hall pursues its reckless course with foolhardy defiance of the consequences, and in direct opposition to the interests of the city and its people, just as if present conditions in the street department could be tolerated and continued indefinitely. If these should succeed in clogging the wheels of municipal progress, they would soon have a dead city and Lowell thereafter, like Salem and Marblehead, could pride herself only upon the memory of her vanished greatness. To avert such a calamity, vote "yes" at the polls next Tuesday. Verily, it is time to stop, look and listen.

TAX REVISION PLAN

If Secretary Mellon has his way in tax revision, he will cut off some of the old war taxes and impose others almost as burdensome. He is very lenient in his demands upon the European powers that owe us money. He wants to put off repayment for forty years or more and even the interest is not to be collected when due. Nevertheless, he comes before the ways and means committee of congress and suggests a federal automobile tax with $10 as the minimum and reduction in the transportation tax. He does not seem to realize that at present the owners of automobiles pay a variety of state taxes, and that a federal tax would be regarded as highly unjust.

The sales or consumption tax which has been widely favored throughout the country is not included in Secretary Mellon's plan, although it would seem to be more practical than some of those he has proposed. The proposed scheme is expected to raise from $2,800,000,000 to $4,600,000,000 revenue while at the same time reducing the total amount of the taxes by about $500,000,000, which is a mere bagatelle where the total rises into the billions.

He would return to three cent postage on letters and two cents for postals. This will be unpopular, but it is better than something worse.

Mr. Mellon sees the injustice of the excess profits tax and would make the high surtaxes to save less of confusion. He would add to the taxes on cigarettes and tobacco, the which smokers will pay feeling that they may be thankful that the suffragettes who run things through congress did not decide to tack another amendment to the constitution by which tobacco, like liquor, would be relegated to the hidden recesses of the subcellar to be drawn upon only in case of dire necessity and then only with moderation. But it is all right to tax luxuries while removing or reducing the burdens that have operated as an incubus on industry.

This referendum on street paving will decide whether the city will be free to adopt business methods in street construction. A negative decision will stir the people to decisive action in reference to the go-as-you-please method that has been in vogue in the street department during the last few years.

Some of the agitators who are posing as leaders of the workingmen against contract work on streets haven't done a real day's work in ten years.

When a municipal department is run as a political machine, it is useless to look for satisfactory results or any proper accounting of expenditures.

RUN ON A BANK

No business institution is more easily injured by false reports than a bank. Nor is anything more unaccountable than how wild rumors are spread concerning the stability and solvency of some particular bank. As an instance of the effect of groundless rumors, there has been a run on the Five Cent Savings bank of Boston that resulted in the withdrawal of $2,000,000 in deposits. Perhaps it is not so strange that in Boston, where as a result of the Ponzi swindle, several banks were closed, the people should be extremely solicitous lest some others should also go under. Some people do not distinguish between savings banks and those engaged in other lines of the banking business.

Where an individual has placed his life savings, however small, it is not surprising that he wants absolute security. The Boston bank stood the test without assistance and every other savings bank, regularly organized under the laws of Massachusetts, is quite as secure as any institution in the land.

The banking laws of this state, particularly as they apply to savings banks, are acknowledged to be the best in the country. But when any wild rumor gets out relative to a bank, the depositors do not wait for the facts, nor do they listen to the advice of those who know. They think there is danger and they feel that it is better to be sure than sorry. As a result of this fallacy there are in Boston a great many people who have taken their money out of a thoroughly reliable bank and put it away in stockings or other hiding places such as old bureaus, where it is liable to be destroyed by fire or stolen by somebody who realizes that the money is there.

Aside from the strong boxes of Uncle Sam, the safest place in which money can be kept is in a regular Massachusetts savings bank.

In case the paving referendum be adopted, the municipal council will have the privilege of protecting Lowell labor and deciding who are "residents" and who are not.

There is no excuse for hoarding the price of milk at the present time when most commodities entering into the production of milk have been reduced in price.

Secretary Hoover wants people to use their savings to build houses. How, then, would Lowell people pay their taxes?

The police of Dracut are setting a worthy example to these of more important municipalities by trying to put reckless drivers off the highways.

Members of the naval board were examining young applicants for appointment to a naval college. "Well," said an old admiral to one of the youths, "what must an officer be before he can have a funeral with full naval honors?" "Dead," answered the bright youth.

"I trust, Mr. Borum," said Miss Cutting, as the young man was about to depart, "that you will spend one more afternoon with us before we move in to our next house." Delighted, I assure you, Miss Cutting," replied Borum. "By the way, when do you expect to move?" Sunday Golf

"Chick" Evans, the brilliant golfer, was talking at a golf club dinner in Chicago about Sunday golf. "The prejudice against playing golf on Sunday," said Mr. Evans, "has practically disappeared, but in New England there are still clubs where the game is not permitted on the Sabbath. To deprive the modern player," continued Mr. Evans, "of his Sunday golf—the only day in the week that some men can play—is a great hardship." Smiling, the great golfer added whimsically, "And as a matter of fact, doesn't the golfer remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy?"—Chicago Evening Post.

Killing Conceit

Mrs. Gilbert K. Chesterton, the wife of the English humorist, was talking about the rather ultra suits worn by Florida girl bathers.

"I like these swimming suits," she said, "when they are worn by girls who are beautifully built. Too often, though—"

Mrs. Chesterton shrugged her shoulders. "Too often you are reminded down there in Florida of the girl who said to her pastor:

"I am afraid I must confess to one sin—the sin of vanity. Whenever I pass a mirror in my swimming suit I can't help thinking how beautiful I am."

"O," said the pastor, with a wave of his hand, "that isn't a sin. It's a mistake."—Detroit Free Press.

A Clever Impersonator

"My little girl is very clever," said a woman to her guests. "She can imitate almost anyone." "She can indeed," echoed the husband proudly. "Come, my dear, show us what you can do. Pretend to be the housemaid." The little girl, bowed to one of the guests. "Will you take a little more chicken, ma'am, or a little more beef?" she asked, politely. Then she turned to another. "Shall I put the screen before your chair, ma'am?" she inquired. "The fire is very fierce." At this the guests were greatly amused. "Go on, my dear," chuckled the proud father. Backing away from her parent, she exclaimed, in a terrified tone: "Sir, let me go! Don't touch me, sir! Give you a kiss, indeed! Supposing missus was to hear you?" Then the clever darling was suddenly bundled out of the room.—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

Success—An Explanation

Most of the involved explanations we see in print about why one business is a great success and another a failure are more humbug. One man or one business succeeds, while another fails, largely because of superior ability, or greater opportunity, or a happy combination of the two, and that is all there is to it. In a score of ways we may note how seriously people take that which is successful. Let a theatre put up a sign that tickets are to be had only for performance three weeks in advance and a crowd will form in line for two blocks trying to reach the box office. One restaurant man hit on the scheme of never having quite enough tables to take care of his crowds. At a season of the year when the crowds were larger he had more tables, but never quite enough. A few people always had to stand a little while before obtaining seats. In that way customers got the impression that they were in something especially good, because it appeared that the demand exceeded the supply.—Nation's Business.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I was amused last night on walking near the South common to see the great crowds of small boys following the Twilight league players as they left the ball field and walked toward their homes. The urchins kept at the very heels of the players, hanging on every word of their idiosyncrasies and quarrelling among themselves over the bats and gloves. They seemed to consider it an honor to be allowed to carry some of the player's apparatus and the young man who was fortunate enough to be carrying a glove or a bat would scarcely look at his more humble brethren. It certainly augurs well for the future of the national sport when youthful hero worship takes on this form. I do not doubt that the highest ambition of every one of those kiddies is to be a Twilight league player when he grows up.

As I continued my walk out toward Pawtucketville I noticed a great many young couples strolling along the boulevard. I am told that this section of the city is a veritable "Lovers' Lane." There is evidently something about the atmosphere on the boulevard which draws young lovers to it. Mayhap it is the opportunity of being alone with the stars and The Girl. The officer on that beat, however, remarked the other day that if the city charged an admission fee for the autos that come to this trying place at night, it would have a new and substantial source of revenue.

ROSEMARY, MILLIONAIRE!

ROSEMARY BAUR'S DADDY MADE HIS FORTUNE OUT OF SODA WATER, AND ROSEMARY IS PROUD OF IT!

ONLY $40 A DAY

But Little Millionaire Can Have Her Sodas

By R. J. GIBBONS
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—From now on Rosemary Baur may have all the ice cream sodas, dolls and lollypops her year-old heart can possibly crave.

A monthly allowance of $1250—$40 a day—proves sufficient. Rosemary is worth something in excess of $1,500,000.

The estate was left by her father, Jacob Baur, a wealthy soda water manufacturer.

Rosemary has an ardent taste for sodas and pink slippers.

Such simple wishes will be easy to gratify with $1250 coming in steadily 12 times a year.

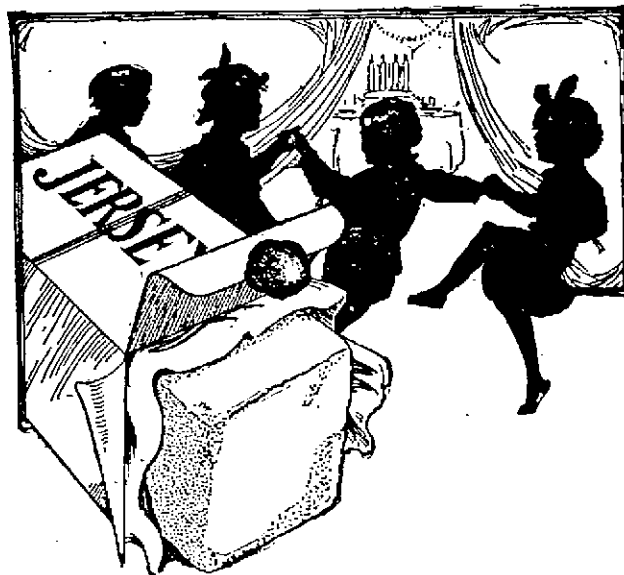

The allowance was made by the probate court here on request of Rosemary's mother, who says it costs that much to maintain her daughter "in the same kind of a home her father had when living."

Last year Rosemary was cramped with an income of only $66,334.75. Visitors without credentials are not permitted to see the heiress.

"We're afraid of kidnappers," says her social secretary, who relieves the heiress of those irksome little duties such as sending out invitations.

"Rosemary," she said further, "is very democratic. She is most generous and kind, and we are trying to keep her free from the thought of money."

Nice, she—to have a million and a half and not even to have to think about it?

HOW'S YOUR PARASOL?

What about last summer's parasol with its split silk top and its still lovely handle?

It needn't be discarded, neither must it be sent to the shop to be recovered at considerable expense. You can do it yourself. Rip off the old cover. Take out one of the gores and press it well. Use this then as a pattern for the new gores. Be sure that you use the pattern with great accuracy.

Care must be taken in sewing the new gores together that they have the necessary curve. After the gores are all together, hem or hemstitch the cover. Any trimming or insertion you desire to use should be put on before the cover is put on the frame. In putting the cover on the frame, fasten the top first, then fasten it at each rib, firmly pulling it down.

The top can be finished with a piece of shirred ribbon, a cluster of fruit or flowers. The handle can be enameled or gilded.

Murderer of Poolroom Owner Flees

STOUGHTON, Aug. 4.—The murderer of Leon Statkus, a poolroom proprietor, who was shot down in his home on Perry street, about midnight, was still at large today. Officials said they had been unable to find any clue to the identity of the person who called Statkus to his door and killed him. Statkus' wife and two children sought refuge in another room, when they heard the shots and did not see the burglar. Adolph Ponske, a boarder, was awakened by the sound of the shooting, but when he reached the kitchen Statkus' assailant had fled.

Arrest of Missing Chicago

Bank President Said to be Momentarily Expected

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 4.—Warren C. Spurgin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust Co. of Chicago, is in the vicinity of Chihuahua City, Mexico, according to a telegram received by the El Paso police. The telegram added that arrest of the banker was momentarily expected. Mexican officials, it was said, were co-operating with American officers in the search for the missing man.

In the absence of recognition of the Mexican government by the United States, no extradition treaty between the two countries is in force and the only legal method of securing Spurgin's return to the United States is for President Obregon to order his expulsion from Mexico as a pernicious foreigner.

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WERE NO DOCTORS!

The Doctor Was Not Much Needed Until Folks Began to Break Nature's Laws.

Doctors Preach Prevention Is Better Than Cure.

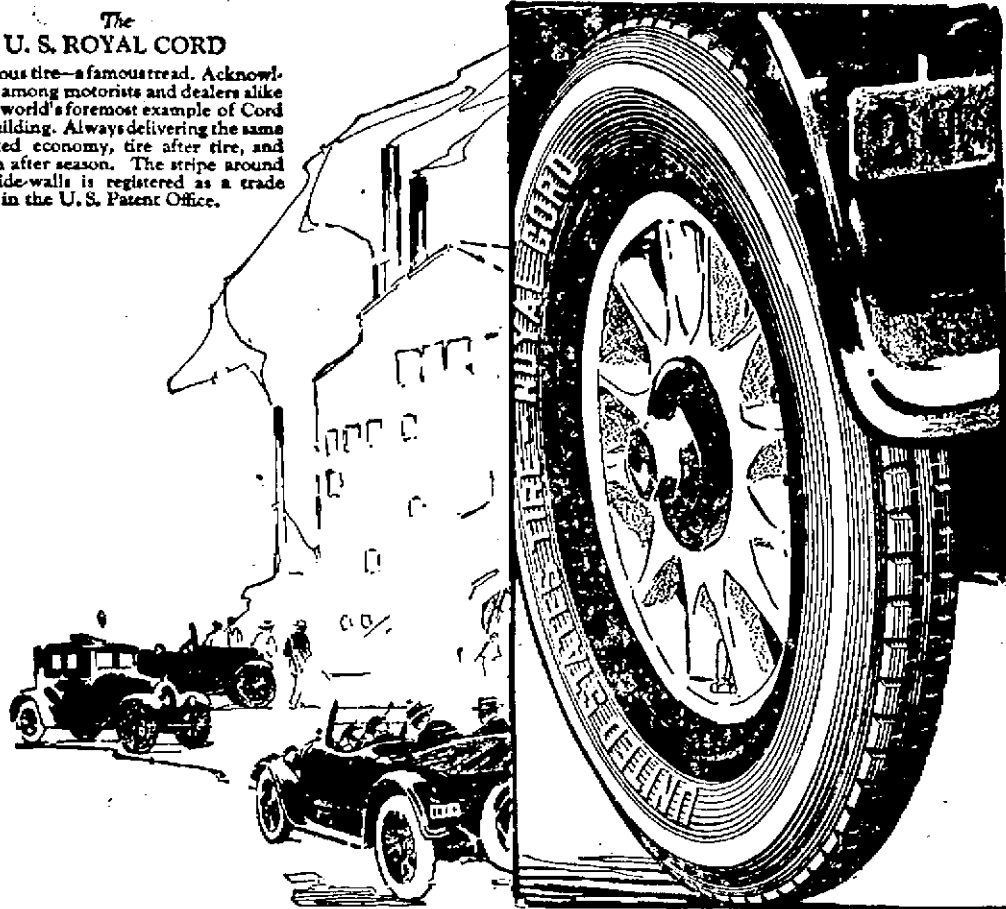

Ninety per cent of all disease is preventable, so doctors say. Eat simple food, exercise wisely, sleep sufficiently, and—what is vitally important—make sure of the daily, regular, thorough elimination of body waste, and the chances are nine to one that you will keep well, work efficiently and enjoy life. Bowel elimination of food and tissue waste is all-important. But in case of irregularity, disordered or imperfect action do not make the common mistake of taking harsh, violently acting medicines, with the idea of forcing the bowels to act. Nature believes in mild methods. She responds best to persuasion.

So in selecting a simple remedy to regulate and assure proper bowel action, you should not use harsh, or violently acting remedies, no matter how much has been claimed for them. You should choose some well-known, time tested, trial proven remedy, that has made its reputation by being used for many years, by all sorts of people, all over the world. Take Beecham's Pills for example. Beecham's is a household word, has been for many generations. Beecham's Pills is a household remedy, has been for over half a century. People not only take Beecham's but recommend Beecham's to their friends. Their use is handed down from father to son or from mother to daughter, from one generation to another. Did you ever hear any complaint or criticism of Beecham's? Isn't that a pretty powerful endorsement of their worth? Druggists are glad to sell Beecham's.

The U. S. ROYAL CORD

A famous tire—a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, tire after tire, and season after season. The stripe around the side-wall is registered as a trade mark in the U. S. Patent Office.

The truth a year ago: a bigger truth to-day—

"Go to a legitimate dealer and get a legitimate tire"

IF it were possible for the thousands of U. S. dealers to gather into one big national convention, the public would have a surprising picture of good tire merchandising.

Probably you would see banners reading like this:—

"We sell tires and tire service—not discounts."

"Our customers demand the par quality tire at a net price."

"Ask us about the leadership of U. S. Royal Cords."

"The public wants values instead of discounts."

The sale of U. S. Royal Cord Tires in June, 1921, more than doubled that of June, 1920.

People have accepted U. S. Royal Cords as the tire that all other tires are measured by today. The par quality tire at a net price.

In time to come, the significance of the present year will be even more apparent than now.

1921 will stand out as the year when the public declared itself.

When people refused to be mere transient tire trade.

When they turned their backs on "discount" tires—and went to quality and stayed with quality.

Go to a legitimate dealer and get a legitimate tire.

See the U. S. policy in operation as a personal transaction. Buy your tires as you do the other standard products you use.

Let a reputable manufacturer and his reputable dealer take responsibility for your tire economy. Instead of taking it yourself—as "discount" tires make you do.

GROWING INSECTS ON ARM NOT PLEASANT

Growing a crop of insects on one's arm may not be the most pleasant means of observing and studying their life histories, but it is sometimes the necessary method and is frequently resorted to by entomologists when studying an insect that spends a part of its life cycle as a blood-sucking parasite.

Through the utilization of this method Vernon Wildermuth, state entomologist for Arizona, undertook to make a careful study of the life history of the ordinary red "chigger" which pesters us so persistently on our camping trips and cross-country hikes and is especially prevalent about wheat harvest time.

Wildermuth studied this insect with a view to determining the most effective and practicable method of destroying it, but he made the interesting discovery that it is in a sense a beneficial insect and instead of being destroyed should be protected. He discovered that in addition to relieving human blood the "chiggers" can, when pressed to it, put up with a fare of wheat joint worms. In fact, considering the relative scarcity of human shanks on which to feed the wheat joint worm is the chigger's principal article of diet at a certain season of the year.

Since the joint worm causes the destruction of much wheat by boring through the straw near a joint, thereby causing the stalk to break over and the head to be lost, any insect living as a parasite upon the wheat stalk joint worm and decimating its numbers, is a friend to man, despite its occasional depredations upon his exposed skin.

The parasitism of one insect upon another is a most interesting study to scientists and it frequently has become necessary to import or encourage the growth of a certain insect in order to counteract the harmful effects of another insect.

GOLD IMPORTS AND EXPORTS
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Gold imported from January 1 to July 23 amounted to $391,435,343, as compared with exports of $3,448,279 during the same period according to a statement issued by the Federal Reserve board. Silver imports were $30,772,212, and exports $23,207,857.

Chicago produces more than one-third of the pianos used in the United States.

SHIP TUSSELS IN FEDERAL COURT

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Further legal tussles between the United States Shipping board and the United States Mail Steamship Co. over the nine vessels seized from the company and later returned by injunction, will take place in federal courts. The steamship company withdrew today its application to have proceedings remanded to the state courts.

When the withdrawal was made before Federal Judge A. N. Hand, it was indicated that a hearing would soon be held on the injunction by which the company regained temporary operation of the seized ships.

Chicago leads the country in the production of band and orchestral instruments.

It is estimated that there is $20,000,000 worth of unclaimed goods from America at Buenos Aires.

Experts say the lives of this country are only about 5 per cent insured against financial loss caused by death.

BARON KORFF ADDRESSES INSTITUTE OF POLITICS

WILLIAMSTOWN, Aug. 3.—Relations which, after beginning with avowed enmity, continued so for many years but finally resulted in an alliance which had Russia and England fighting side by side in the world war, were described today by Baron Sergius A. Korff, former deputy governor general of Finland in a lecture before the Institute of Politics at Williams college.

The "statesmanlike vision" of King Edward VII of Great Britain, he declared, was an impelling factor in bringing about the ultimate friendship.

Discussing the situation in Persia, which at one time threatened the amicable relations between the two nations, the speaker declared that Great Britain played the game of Russian autocracy because it saw that the interests served in the west by the continued friendship of the two governments were far paramount to anything involved in Persia.

Baron Korff commented on the part played in Persia by an American, though he remarked that the United States government had no share in it, saying:

"Finally, in 1911, there appeared on the scene the American treasurer-general, W. Morgan Shuster, who by his impatience and tactlessness, soon brought the crisis to a head. It was Persia, who had to pay the price for this diplomatic game."

"Morgan Shuster had a splendid chance of playing the role of Bismarck in 1913 as an 'honest broker' between the two contending sides, the Russian and the English. If only he would have handled the situation cautiously and tactfully. He started however, just the other way by violently antagonizing the Russians.

"One must say, however, that in no way did Shuster represent the United States; on the contrary, and this was rather unfortunate, he managed the situation single handed. There was no moderating influence from Washington."

In conclusion, Baron Korff said: "In the second decade of the 20th century the Russian nation had forgotten the former enmity against England. When the war began in the summer of 1914 the enthusiasm of the Russians was tremendous when they heard that England would participate. They felt a peculiar assurance that for that reason the war would be won."

Many trenches have been dug about the city, and much war material, including field guns, has been installed, the reports say. Other telegrams received at Helsingfors report that the Petrograd garrison has mutinied again.

Shaw Case Triangle—Follies Girl Discards Broker Whose Wife Sues for Divorce

MADRIENNE LA BARRE (ABOVE) AND MR. AND MRS. PHILIP M. SHAW.

Copyright, 1921, by The Lowell Sun

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Two "blighted romances" are involved in the Shaw divorce case—a court drama that has taken the place, temporarily at least, of the Stillman case in capturing New York's interest.

Miss Eleanor Jordan Shaw charges her millionaire broker-husband cast her off for a Follies show girl.

The ex-Follies girl, Madrienne La Barre—the "Butterfly Girl"—weeps that she thought Shaw unmarried and that she was preparing her wedding trousseau.

Philip M. Shaw denies his wife's charges of misconduct with Miss La Barre. This is what Mrs. Shaw says: Shaw spent $15,000 a year maintaining Miss La Barre in homes in New York and Somerville, Mass.

He closed his home to his wife and wanted her to accept $500 a month in lieu of a life in which their expenses were $40,000 a year.

Miss La Barre wrote him "sweetheart" letters and was seen with him at New York hotels.

Through With Him
This is what Miss La Barre says: "I am through with him. I am through. I am through—through—through."

We were to be married December 1. We talked of our honeymoon in Northern Canada, and I didn't know that all the time he was married."

Although Mrs. Shaw's suit for divorce was filed early in May, it did not become public until late in July. Efforts of detectives to find Miss La Barre resulted in her fleeing from her Somerville home.

The ex-show girl later was found at her studio in the Back Bay district of Boston. As she told her story of disillusionment a friend knocked a bottle of poison from her hand in time to save her life.

Asks Large Alimony

Mrs. Shaw asked for alimony of $1000 a month, $7500 counsel fees and $3000 for expenses pending trial of the divorce suit.

Among the documents filed by Mrs. Shaw is a postcard she says Miss La Barre sent the broker. It read:

"Just the fondest recollections from another 'little Butterfly'. Birthday greeting: Sweetheart."

Another letter was introduced addressed: "My Darling Sweetheart," and signed: "Your loving little sweetheart, Madrienne (Butterfly)." In this letter mention was made of being "engaged to be married."

POLISH PRIEST SUES FOR $100,000

DEDHAM, Aug. 4.—Rev. Stanislaus Bona, a Polish priest, through his counsel yesterday filed with the clerk of the Norfolk superior court a suit for $100,000 against Patrolman Kenesnek, both of Norwood, for alleged defamation of character. The plaintiff's declaration sets forth that on June 15, 1921, at Norwood, and concerning the plaintiff in his profession and office of priest, the defendant falsely and maliciously spoke defamatory words, as follows:

"He is a thief. He is spending the money you gave him for the church. He is spending it on himself. He is using the funds of the church for himself."

REPORT EX-EMPEROR IS IN HUNGARY

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unconfirmed reports still persist that the former Emperor Charles of Austria has left Hertenstein secretly and now is in Hungary awaiting an opportunity to launch a coup d'etat.

It is said that Capt. Werkman, private secretary to Charles, and several of the former monarch's servants already have left for Budapest. It is stated in usually well informed circles that Charles will make an attempt to regain his throne this month, in spite of the warnings of the allies.

The act of reciprocity with Canada, which has stood since 1911, would be repealed by the new tariff bill.

OVERLOADED TRUCKS DESTROY HIGHWAYS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 4.—Discovery that thousands of dollars of damage was done to state highways during the recent hot weather by overloaded trucks has caused the state department of public works to inaugurate a campaign for the enforcement of the loading law.

This law, passed in 1917, provides that no truck may be so loaded as to produce on any wheel a weight of more than 300 pounds for each inch of width of the tire, and in no case may the total weight exceed 11 tons.

Yesterday nine truck operators were before the Dedham court on charges of overloading; eight were found guilty, and one defaulted. Today six others are being tried in the Waltham macadam binder on state highways to soften, and heavy loads passing over it not only cause little ruts in the surface, but also disturb the stones upon which the surface is laid. Displacement of the stones causes permanent injury to the road, bringing about that "wavy" surface to which every motorist objects. The macadam surface eventually returns to its proper condition, but the stones never go back into their proper places.

The campaign now going on is in charge of Arthur P. Porter, an engineer connected with the Institute of Technology. Mr. Porter has been given a district which includes the entire state, and no one knows in the morning where he will be during the day. He is just as likely to be in North Adams as Newburyport. His one instruction has been that he shall stop the overloading of trucks.

In determining whether a truck is overloaded, Mr. Porter uses a small instrument called a "loadometer," which at first glance might be mistaken for a particularly solid lifting jack. Whenever a suspicious looking truck is seen, Mr. Porter directs the operator to halt. Then he applies a loadometer first to one axle and then to the other, and immediately learns the weight of the load. If it is in excess of fourteen tons, Mr. Operator is notified to explain matters to the judge.

The state of Maryland has been conducting a similar campaign for the enforcement of its law, which establishes the weight limit at ten tons, four less than are allowed in this state. In Maryland, whenever an operator is found with an overloaded truck, he is required to remove the excess weight, leaving it at the side of the road until he can return or send another truck for it.

It is hoped that it will not be necessary to take this step in Massachusetts, but it will probably follow if truck owners and operators continue to ignore the law.

HATFIELD AND HIS LIEUTENANT BURIED

MATEWAN, W. Va., Aug. 4.—The tempestuous and picturesque careers of Sid Hatfield and his former lieutenant, Ed Chambers, shot in a gun fight at Welch, W. Va., last Monday, were brought to a close here yesterday with their burial at Buskirk, Ky., opposite Matewan on the other side of Tug river. No untoward incidents were reported in connection with the funerals.

For hours yesterday preceding their funerals scores of mountaineers, to whom the slain former Matewan chief of police had been a hero, massed before the bodies of Hatfield and Chambers. After leaving the homes of the men they scattered immediately.

More than $200,000,000 were recovered from junk heaps and metal scraps in 1919.

CARUSO'S LAST MESSAGE TO AMERICA

Caruso's last message from Italy to America was a postcard to the treasurer of the Metropolitan Opera House. It reads: "Here I am. With my salutations to you and all the members of the offices. I feel better every day. Soon I will be over the top. Regards, Caruso."

attention from its suffering, and to give it exercise necessary to restored health.

"Birds are like people," Mrs. Liberty declares. "Get their attention away from what bothers them and you have started a cure."

Turkish baths and special diets are other modes used in the hospital. Dr. Liberty started the study of birds as a hobby; but now it has grown into a profitable business. In one year she took care of more than 3000 patients.

PIGEONS USED AS DRUG CARRIERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Carrier pigeons are the latest aids pressed into service by New York drug vendors to supply imprisoned customers. It was revealed today.

Detective Quigley, who yesterday arrested Anthony Adamo, an alleged drug vender and confiscated $4000 worth of drugs and a pigeon, said there were at least two cases on record in which pigeons had taken drugs to addicts held at Blackwell's Island.

Adamo refused to admit that his pigeon was a drug carrier.

Meet Pope's Request to Inaugurate American Welfare Work in Italy

To Consider Irish Question Today—Flaherty Re-elected Supreme Knight

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—At the request of Pope Benedict, the Knights of Columbus have decided to raise $1,000,000 to inaugurate American welfare work in Italy. It was announced at the international convention of the Knights of Columbus annual convention here today. The fund will be raised by popular subscription among the membership of the order.

"Pope Benedict has requested this activity on the part of the Knights of Columbus to conserve faith and aid in the mental and physical development of Italian youth," said Supreme Advocate Joseph C. Pelletier of Boston. "It is our aim to go into Italy and introduce American welfare work, to repay Italy in part the debt laid upon America when Columbus, the great Italian, found this western world and made it possible for Christendom to extend its sphere."

Mr. Pelletier added that it was improbable that the Knights of Columbus would extend its organization proper into Italy, saying that the immediate plans called for the establishment of an American service center in Rome under the patronage of Pope Benedict.

The closing session of the convention today, Mr. Pelletier added, will dispose of internal activities for the ensuing 12 months and will consider the Irish question.

Officers Elected

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia was unanimously re-elected yesterday supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus at the 39th annual international convention here. He had already served in that capacity six terms.

The other officers elected are: Martin H. Carmody, Grand Rapids, Mich., deputy supreme knight; William J. McGinley, New York, supreme secretary; Joseph C. Pelletier, Boston, supreme advocate; Daniel J. Callahan, Washington, D. C., supreme treasurer; Dr. E. W. Buckley, St. Paul, Minn., supreme physician; David F. Supple, San Francisco, supreme warden.

Archbishop Hanna of the San Francisco diocese spoke before the convention today on "The Campaign of the Catholic Church Against Lax Divorce Laws."

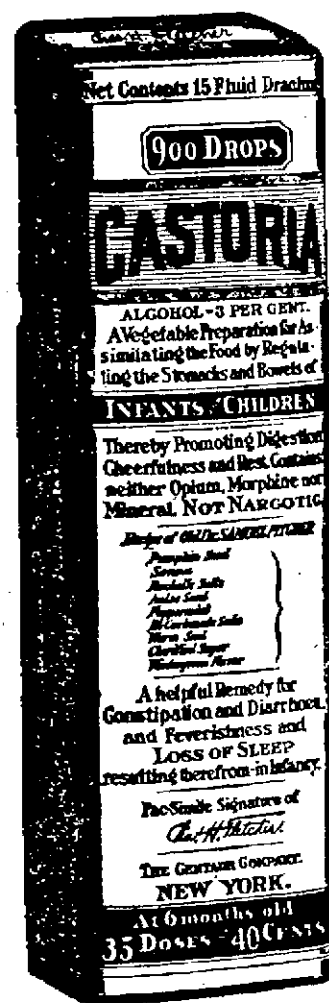

The chief business at the convention yesterday afternoon was a discussion of the historical commission program. John H. Reddin of Denver announced a series of contests for prizes for work

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For

Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for infants and children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Why make an all day job of washing clothes

When this new soap product soaks them clean in a few hours

ARE you still bending over the washboard in the middle of the day—rubbing away your strength?

Or do you have your clothes ready for the line an hour after breakfast?

Hundreds of thousands of women who used to take all day to do their family washing are gaining time and storing up strength for the things they really want to do by soaking their clothes clean in Rinso.

This new soap product, made by the makers of Lux, is a perfect combination of pure cleansing materials that loosen and dissolve the dirt from even the heaviest pieces of the weekly wash without injuring a single fabric. You do not have to rub anything but the worst spots such as cuff edges, and these only lightly.

Don't rub your youth away. Get Rinso today from your grocer or any department store. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Perfect in washing machines
With Rinso you don't have to do any rubbing. Follow regular directions given here. Soak the clothes. Then, before operating the machine, add a fresh Rinso solution, using the same amount of Rinso as you used for soaking. No other product is needed when Rinso is used.

Made in U. S. A.

Rinso

Then let your clothes soak and Rinso without any hard rubbing. Soak one hour—two hours—overnight—when ever time is convenient. These wonderful, mild suds loosen every particle of dirt. Rinso, to remove the loosened dirt, till water runs clear.

Dissolve: For each tub of clothes thoroughly dissolve a half package of Rinso in two quarts of boiling water. When water is hard or clothes extra dirty use more Rinso.

Pour into tub of lukewarm water—mix well. Keep adding the solution until you get a good, rich, foamy suds, even after the clothes have been put in.

on original research in primary sources in the field of American history.

The object is to "aid in creating an enlightened public opinion on the evolution of the United States, to perpetuate the American impulse, to promote American solidarity and exalt American ideals." Papers offered in competition should be sent to the National Shawmut bank, Boston, before May 1, 1922. Noncompetitive papers will be received after Sept. 1 next.

Edward F. McSweeney of Framingham, chairman of the historical commission, addressed the convention yesterday afternoon. He declared that "it is notorious that for 15 years an organized movement has been on foot to change American history by agreement" and that "it is a direct thrust at one of the bases of American nationality with the object of blotting out, by a conspiracy of silence, or by history based on false premises, the American impulse, ideal and solidarity."

"That movement," he said, "led to a call to arms of the fourth degree K. of C. The fourth degree regards racial history based on false premises, the wiles of diplomatic intrigue as common enemies of American liberty and of national brotherliness."

"SKYSCRAPER BURGLAR" INDICTED IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Melville Reeves, known to the police as the "Skyscraper burglar," has been indicted by a federal grand jury here, in connection with the arrest of John W. Worthington and the indictment of more than a score of others charged with being implicated in a number of recent mail robberies it became known today.

Two federal agents left today for a western city, the name of which was kept secret, bearing a warrant for Reeves.

At least two of those indicted in the case, which involved the alleged receiving and tampering with securities taken in various mail robberies, will be used as state's witnesses. It was indicated by officers. One of these is Joseph Stout, a Chicago broker, who has revealed considerable as to Worthington's past activities.

FREED AMERICANS MEET

Capt. Cooper Goes to Berlin to Thank Mrs. Harrison for Saving Life in Moscow

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—Captain Merlon C. Cooper, of Jacksonville, Fla., who escaped from a prison in Moscow after having been shot down during fighting between the Bolsheviks and the Poles, arrived here from Warsaw yesterday to see Mrs. Marguerite E. Harrison, the American newspaper correspondent who was recently liberated by the Soviet authorities. Captain Cooper declared Mrs. Harrison had saved his life by supplying him with clothes and food in the Moscow prison before she was herself incarcerated. When the two Americans who had such trying experiences in Soviet Russia met in the lobby of a Berlin hotel, there was an affecting greeting. "I would have gone around the world to see you," exclaimed Captain Cooper, "and tell you I should never have lived to escape if it hadn't been for the supplies you sent me. The news of your release gave me the greatest thrill of my life."

Mrs. Harrison, Captain Cooper and Alfred Bond of New York city, all of whom were prisoners in Soviet Russia for considerable periods, had dinner last night with United States Senator Joseph I. Franco of Maryland, who is returning to the United States after a visit to Moscow.

INSTITUTE OF POLITICS

Development of Bulgarian Religion and Literature Discussed Today

WILLIAMSTOWN, Aug. 4.—The development of Bulgarian religion and literature was discussed before the Institute of Politics today by Stephen Panaretov, recently reappointed Bulgarian minister to the United States. Speaking of the relations between Turks and Christians, he admitted that a spirit of hostility now existed but expressed the conviction that "as the people of the Near East advance in religion and nationality, all will become more tolerant."

Toumaso Titoni, president of the Italian senate, is to give his first lecture before the institute tonight. Italian-American residents of this district planned a special welcome in his honor. They made arrangements to have him give an address in North Adams.

VIOLATION OF ANTI-JITNEY LAWS

The case of Patrick Keegan, charged with violation of the anti-jitney laws, was continued to October 4 with the understanding that the defendant in the interim commit no further offenses against the regulations. It was specifically charged against Keegan that he had been operating on Bridge street an automobile for transporting passengers for hire as a business, between fixed and regular terminals, without first obtaining a license therefor from the license authorities.

has been sounded and has returned an answer unfavorable to the Sinn Fein overtures while in Belfast, after an important meeting of the cabinet. It was authoritative stated that the Ulster ministry had received no communication from Mr. de Valera. These reports at first glance seem irreconcilable, but it is pointed out that possibly both may be correct. The fact that the Ulster cabinet itself has not received a communication would not, it is noted, preclude the possibility of an informal discussion between northern and southern leaders.

It is understood that Premier Lloyd George, after conferring with Sir James Craig in London this week, sent a message to de Valera which might account for the calling of the Dail. The British cabinet already has reached a decision regarding the release of members of the Dail Eireann, imprisoned or in detention camps, and it is understood that Dublin Castle is free to release them as it thinks fit. Members who have been on the run are understood to have returned to their homes in order that they may receive their summonses.

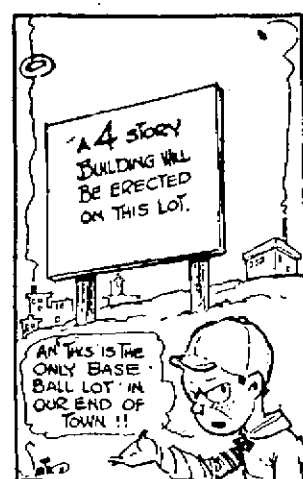

No Proposals to Ulster
LONDON, Aug. 4.—Reports published here that the government of northern Ireland had definitely and finally refused to have anything to do with the government proposals relative to peace in Ireland, were today officially declared to be "absolutely unfounded." It was asserted that no proposals had been submitted to the Ulster cabinet by the government.

No Word from Sinn Fein
BELFAST, Aug. 4. (By the Associated Press).—The Ulster cabinet met this morning for a short session at the close of which there was no communication issued as to the subject of its deliberations. It was authoritative learned, however, that no message from Eamonn de Valera, the Irish republican leader, has yet reached the northern cabinet.

JOURNEYMEN PLUMBERS

It is expected that the journeymen plumbers, who have been out on strike for the past six weeks, will be back at their work next Monday, for negotiations for a settlement of the grievances now existing are now being made. The strikers left their work after being given a reduction in wages of ten cents an hour in the early part of July. Since that time not a move has been made by one side or the other to bring the strike to an end, but it was learned today that negotiations are under way and that an early settlement is looked for.

Dail Eireann Summoned by De Valera to Consider British Government's Peace Proposals

ACTION CAUSES A SENSATION

British Cabinet Has Already Agreed to Release Irish Members for Conference

DUBLIN, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press.) The Irish republican parliament has been summoned to meet Tuesday, August 16, the Irish Bulletin, the official republican organ, announced tonight. Notices have been sent to all the members of the parliament.

Sensational Turn

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press.) The Irish situation took a sensational turn today when it was announced in Dublin that Eamonn de Valera and his associates had decided to summon a full meeting of the Irish republican parliament to consider the British government's Irish peace proposals.

It has been repeatedly stated in Dublin that the Dail Eireann would not be summoned until Ulster's attitude had been learned, but coincident with the calling of the meeting of this body came conflicting reports from Dublin and Belfast concerning Ulster's position.

In Dublin it is reported that Ulster

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 4.—The submarine S-12 was launched at the navy yard here today. As the vessel slid down the ways, Mrs. Charlotte E. Woodbury of Manchester, wife of Gordon Woodbury, former assistant secretary of the navy, christened her with grape-juice.

The S-12 is 235 feet long and of 900 tons displacement. She is the last but one of the S class to be constructed by the navy, the final one, the S-13 being on the ways.

Men Who Looted Store in Sun Building Held in $5000 Each

Speedy Capture of Thieves Due to Prompt Action of Store Owner

Leaping into his automobile after finding that his fur store in The Sun building had been robbed, shouting the information to Officer Flannigan as he sped towards the depot, and seizing one of the two men held for the crime as the latter was boarding a train about to leave for Boston, Harry Zeller, by his quick wittedness, saved $4500 worth of furs which he identified as his. A thrilling episode of speedy action, with a wild ride to gain the railroad station before the train pulled out, and the last minute capture of the pair charged with the break, featured the crime which, occurring into yesterday afternoon, was

Claims City is Paying $36 Per Thousand Too Much for Paving Blocks

Telegrams From Other Cities Show Smaller Costs Than in Lowell

Mayor Thompson Says Law Has Not Been Violated by Purchasing Agent

The taxpayers and rentpayers of Lowell, according to information coming from members of the chamber of commerce, are making a gratuitous payment of about $36 per thousand for the paving blocks used on Thorndike street. The making public of this information regarding conditions claimed to exist was only one of the developments in the initiative election warfare which is acquiring heat as the date for balloting draws near. In the newspapers has been inserted an advertisement reflecting upon the chamber of commerce for permitting the Lamson company to get away from Lowell, when it is supposed that one of the principal purposes for which the chamber is maintained, is to bring new industries, or at least keep old ones, in the city.

The Lamson company today posted a notice in its shops stating in plain language that a political animus is behind the publication of the "ad."

Mayor Perry D. Thompson today entered the fight in a mild way by sending

$250,000,000 CUT IS NECESSARY

Must Come if Additional Taxes Are to be Avoided, Says Secretary Mellon

On Present Estimates Total Government Cost This Year, $4,550,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—A cut of more than $250,000,000 in the ordinary expenditures of the government this fiscal year, is necessary if additional taxes are to be avoided, the ways and means committee was informed today by Secretary Mellon. On present estimates, he said, the total government cost this year will be $4,550,000,000 of which $2,530,000,000 must come from taxation.

Even with the suggested reductions, Mr. Mellon said, the internal revenue yield for the year "could not safely be permitted to fall below $2,570,000,000, the estimated yield under existing law."

The secretary told the committee that actual expenditures for the first full month of this fiscal year indicated that unless there was "an extraordinary new effort to reduce expenditures" the estimate which the treasury had presented might be regarded as conservative. Ordinary expenditures for July, he said, amounted to about $322,000,000, as against $307,000,000 for July 1920, while the current deficit last month was $113,000,000 as against $75,000,000 in the same month a year ago.

An analysis of the principal items of expenditures for July, 1921, the secretary continued, "shows that $59,000,000 was on account of the war department, $55,000,000 on account of the navy and $32,000,000 on account of the shipping board. If expenditures are to continue at anything like these rates the estimates will be greatly exceeded."

DRY AGENTS TRAP COHEN

Member of Alleged Whiskey Ring Lured to Home of Dry Chief and Arrested

Held in $25,000—Results of Startling Nature Predicted by Officials

CINCINNATI, Aug. 4.—Trapped by prohibition agents and secret service men through the agencies of a pretended "fight" and a telephone device, Louis Cohen, said to be president of the Tunnel Trading company, New York wholesale whiskey dealers, was lured to the home of Chief Prohibition Agent Robert Flora, in Oakley, a suburb at 3 o'clock this morning and arrested on a charge of offering Flora a bribe of $5000 for protection in alleged whiskey operations. Cohen was assigned at once and pleaded not guilty. He was sent to jail under $25,000 bonds.

"This is but the entering wedge," said Flora today. "Results of a startling nature may be expected." Cohen, the federal officers say, is a member of the "whiskey ring" nation-wide in scope, which it is said, has its headquarters in Cincinnati.

CAPT. GORDON ON WITNESS STAND

Questioned Regarding Money He Borrowed From Associate of Lawyer Coakley

Tufts Asked About Alleged Payment of $1000 by "Poco" Bennett for Release

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—An early decision on the petition of Attorney General J. Weston Allen for the removal of Nathan A. Tufts as district attorney of Middlesex county, was indicated today when the trial was resumed before the supreme court. The defense expected to complete presentation of evidence during the day and rebuttal testimony and arguments were to follow. It was understood that the five justices would hold a conference immediately upon conclusion of the case to prepare their finding.

The 32 charges against Tufts include allegations that he conspired with attorneys and others to extort money from persons threatened with indictment and that he failed to

STRUCK THE WRONG MAN

Information Wanted Concerning One Frank Salle and a Policeman's Club

Who is Frank Salle, the man that smote Patrick F. Buckley in the eye because "a man named Buckley hit my kid brother?" Where did Salle get the policeman's club that was found hanging, trophy-like, in his home when he was taken into custody? Judge Enright was so interested in these questions that in police court today he held Salle in bonds of $300 for a hearing tomorrow. In the meantime Michael Dowd, acting probation officer, was ordered by the court to investigate the statements made by the defendant, who was charged with assault and battery on Buckley.

The latter took the stand this morning and said that he was innocently minding his own business. Salle approached and fetched him a wallop in the left lamp which left that orb in a swollen and discolored condition.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

Reciprocity

WHEN you love a girl and a girl loves you,
The sky seems always a brighter blue,
And on country leas
Or on city street,
There's a softer breeze
And an air more sweet,
And all of the world is a place made new,
When you love a girl and a girl loves you!

SO whether alone or in a throng,
Your lips are humming a happy song;
Your eyes are glowing,
Your heart beats high,
And life goes flowing
Serenely by;
And all of the fairy tales are true,
When you love a girl and a girl loves you!

WHEN you care for a girl and she doesn't care,
The world is a desert bleak and bare;
So my wise is therefore
Thus expressed:
"May the girl you care for Love you best,"
And 'till the journey of life is through
May the girl you love be in love with you!

LOWELL BOY PASSES BAR EXAMINATION

Thomas B. Higgins, 188 Pleasant street, this city, has received word from the Massachusetts board of bar examiners that he passed the bar examination and will be admitted to the practice of the law. Mr. Higgins was graduated from Northeastern law school in June with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

The young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Higgins. He received his preliminary education in the public schools of Lowell. In 1914 he was graduated from the Lowell high school with a five year diploma. Since that time he has been attending evening law school except for a long period during the war when he served in the army. Mr. Higgins served with the motor transportation arm of the service and spent twenty months in France on active duty. For several years he has been in the employ of the United Drug company with headquarters in Boston. The recent announcement that he had passed the bar examinations came as a reward for several years' continued effort during which he worked hard during the day and attended school in the evening. He expects to practice in this city.

FLOODS LEAVE MANY HOMELESS

CANON CITY, Colo., Aug. 4.—Flood waters of the Arkansas river, which swept down upon South Canon, a suburb, and the lower part of this city Tuesday, had disappeared yesterday, leaving nearly a score of families homeless and causing damage unofficially estimated at more than $200,000.

Canon City was isolated from communication with the outside world except for one telephone line to Denver. Railroad tracks for miles around were washed out.
Except for a small supply in a local reservoir, there was no drinking water in the city today, the flood waters having torn out all conduits.

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often despondent, had dizzy spells and at my monthly periods it was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby came two years ago my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did nothing for me. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. MAUDE E. TAYLOR, 5 St. James Place, Roxbury, Mass.

Backache is one of the most common symptoms of a displacement or derangement of the female system. No woman should make the mistake of trying to overcome it by heroic endurance, but profit by Mrs. Taylor's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FUNERAL OF CARUSO

Thousands Gather to Pay Final Tribute to Memory of World-Famous Tenor

NAPLES, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Patrician and plebeian Naples gathered early today at the Basilica of the church of San Francesco di Paola for the funeral of Enrico Caruso, who died here on Tuesday. The edifice situated in the southern part of the city, near the hotel where the great singer breathed his last, was decided upon as the last scene in the drama of the world-famous tenor's life late yesterday after King Victor Emmanuel had given permission that it might be used for this purpose.

400 Singers Assist
As soon as word reached Naples that the Basilica had been set apart for the funeral, workmen were engaged to construct a great platform to accommodate the 400 singers selected to assist in the last requiem. In the center of the Basilica was erected a large catafalque.

Representatives of the king and the royal family, the Italian government, the municipality and the prefecture were appointed to attend the services, and the United States in which country Caruso rose to his greatest triumphs in the lyric art, had instructed officials to appear at the funeral.

Thousands Pay Respects
The crowds which on Tuesday filed before the bier of the dead singer were eclipsed yesterday, when thousands gathered at the Hotel Vesuvius to pay their last respects to Caruso. So large was the throng that it was deemed advisable to remove the body from the death chamber to the hall of the hotel, which was changed for the occasion into a chapel. About the body were placed flowers sent from friends and admirers of the dead man, and the hall was transformed by them into a bower of exquisite beauty.

Titta Ruffo Helps Move Body
Titta Ruffo, the baritone, who has in recent years achieved fame in America, arrived during the day and hastened to the hotel. He was an intimate friend of Caruso and insisted upon helping to transfer the body to the temporary chapel.

To Seal New York Residence
Mrs. Caruso has made formal application to the foreign minister, asking that the Italian ambassador at Washington be instructed to seal the New York residence of the late singer, pending a decision regarding the disposition of his estate. It has been reported that the court here has decided to sequester all of Caruso's property until Mrs. Caruso's claims and those of her daughter are adjudicated.

The district judge of this city, upon request of Mrs. Caruso, has sealed the apartment occupied by the dead tenor in the Hotel Vesuvius. This step was taken to safeguard documents and other effects.

It is reported here that Caruso drew a will in 1910, bequeathing his whole estate, according to Italian legal procedure, to his brother and two sons. Afterward he was married in the United States, and the birth of his daughter, Gloria, brought a new element into the situation. She, according to Italian law, is now the legal heir, except for a fraction of the estate which the law grants to the widow.

SEC. MELLON PROPOSES NEW TAX LEVIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Treasury Sec. Mellon is to reappear today before the house ways and means committee and is expected to present the revised copy of his memorandum containing possible new sources for taxation. Committee members had expected to receive the copy yesterday, but after an invitation had been sent to the secretary to reappear he decided to present the memorandum in person.

Chairman Fordney said Mr. Mellon would be recalled to discuss railroad financing, which involves four government departments—the treasury, war, finance corporation, railroad administration and interstate commerce commission. It is expected, however, that the secretary will be questioned about some of the revisions made in the original memorandum presented on Monday.

The nature of the changes has not been disclosed, but it is understood that some additions were made after conferences among treasury officials. Republican members of the committee held two extended sessions yesterday, discussing with Dr. T. S. Adams, a treasury tax expert, the grouping of various administrative features of the bill and other changes which would make for simplification in determining taxes.

The extent to which the present law is to be rewritten by the committee remains to be determined, but if the suggestions made by treasury experts are followed the old bill will be largely re-written. This probably would delay its presentation to the house considerably beyond the time heretofore expected.

PRINCE OF WALES MAY AGAIN VISIT CANADA

BRITISH MARSHAL NEARLY DROWNED

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the British imperial general staff, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday while following the races for small craft in the Cowes regatta. The field marshal was in a little yawl and a heavy sea washed him overboard.

Two yachts competing in the race, sailed by Sir Arthur S. Cope and Col. Hobart, went to the rescue of the field marshal. When they had rescued him Sir Arthur and Col. Hobart resumed the race in which their boats finished respectively second and third.

GORILLA HUNTERS! YES, WOMEN AND BABY, TOO!

They don't look it, but these tourist-like persons have just left New York for Central Africa to hunt gorillas! The party, headed by Carl E. Akeley, famous naturalist (at extreme left), is going to study the life and habits of gorillas, obtain specimens for the New York Natural History Museum, and get motion pictures. In the party are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley, of Chicago, and their 5-year-old daughter Alice. She and her father are at the right of the picture. In the center, left to right, are Miss Martha Miller, secretary to Akeley, Mrs. Bradley, and Miss Priscilla Hall.

For "Prevention of Future Fights"

BATAVIA, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Frank O. Spellman of Batavia, who recently seized the $10,000 limousine of Jack Dempsey, and attempted to tie up his share of the proceeds of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight on July 2, to protect two civil suits for $100,000, to be tried in Batavia in October, has been asked to join hands with Dr. Wilber F. Crafts of the International Reform Bureau of Washington, in "the prevention of future fights." Mr. Spellman left for New York today to meet his attorney, William Klein, and to lay before him the Crafts' letter. He will leave to his attorney, he said, to decide whether he will furnish ammunition for the reform bureau's promised fight in the courts and legislatures to stop boxing.

Italian Liners Diverted to Canada

MONTREAL, Aug. 4.—Italian steamship companies are beginning to divert their passenger traffic to Canada because of the United States restrictive immigration law. Local shipping circles were advised today that the Navigazione Generale Italiana had decided to open a direct line between the Dominion and Italy and that its first ship had left Naples for Quebec with a number of immigrants.

JOSEPH B. DRAKE

GAINED 25 POUNDS

"I'm 26 pounds heavier now than I was when I started taking Tanlac, and I want to say right now, there's nothing in the world like it," said Joseph B. Drake, 430 Belmont ave., Springfield, Mass. "I don't believe there is anybody who has suffered more from stomach trouble than I have during the past ten years. It seems like I used everything under the sun trying to get relief, for I was always paying out money for different remedies, but none of them helped me a bit. I had acute attacks of indigestion at times that left me suffering with sharp pains in my stomach for several days afterwards. I had no appetite to speak of. It would almost kill me to eat meat, and there were many other things I didn't dare touch. Constipation was a continual worry to me and I had awful headaches at times. I had rheumatism in my arms and legs something fierce, and there were days I hurt so bad I could hardly get around. Tanlac helped my wife so much I began taking it, and I'll tell the world it's remarkable what a tremendous change the medicine has made in me. Why, five bottles have me eating good food and doing my work perfectly, and I'm entirely rid of indigestion, constipation and headaches. Tanlac is fast knocking out my stomach (fun, too, and I can't say enough for it. It's certainly a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's drug store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative, by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass.; A. D. Falls, Chelmsford, Mass.; Snow's Pharmacy, Concord, Mass., and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

Fur Thieves Arraigned

style by the local authorities as one of the most daring in the annals of the department here.

Zeller, who had left his shop on the sixth floor of The Sun building for a few moments, returned to find it looted. He rushed to the elevator and, A. G. Greiner, the elevator boy on duty, told of seeing two men with large boxes leaving the building.

After calling a few words of explanation to Officer Flannigan, who in turn notified headquarters, Zeller hopped into his Ford and made for the depot. As he neared the station he attracted the attention of Officer Donovan, on duty as traffic officer there. The officer took a flying leap to the running board of the car, which reached the depot as Zeller jumped out of his machine. Followed by the officer, he made for the platform of the rear car on the Boston train. A crowd of people were boarding the train, which was within a few seconds of starting.

Spotted His Man
Among them Zeller espied a man with a large box, and he seized the box. "You robbed my store!" he exclaimed. "What's the matter with you. I bought these furs at a store here," was the gist of the reply. Officer Dooley had arrived in the meantime, and as Zeller entered the car and located another man with boxes containing furs, Dooley ordered the brakeman to hold the train. The pair, Irving Leben and Samuel Drillingner, were brought into the depot, where Zeller identified the furs as his. The two prisoners were then handcuffed and taken to headquarters in the patrol which was summoned.

In Police Court
This morning Leben and Drillingner, charged with the $1500 theft, pleaded not guilty in the police court, and were held in bonds of $3000 each for a hearing Saturday. This morning, accompanied by Lieutenant Maher, of the local police department, they were photographed at the Marlon studio, and an investigation into any record they may have is now under way. They were represented by counsel this morning, and through him waived the reading of the complaint and entered the not guilty plea.

The bold daylight robbery, aside from the breakneck chase, exhibited many other unusual features as complicated as any which appear in detective fiction. It is a problem how entrance was gained to the Zeller establishment. This is located on the sixth floor towards the rear. There are four possible means of entry, but a careful inspection of the place this morning, together with the statements of the proprietor, made it difficult to understand how the thief of thieves got in by any of these.

The main entrance is by a door which possesses a safe lock. No violence was done to this door, nor in fact to the two others which open on the workshop at the rear of the store. These latter doors have a latch which can only be snapped open from the inside. One leads into the corridor, and the other to a physician's reception room. A pile of boards stood against the rear one of these two doors, which was also locked from within. The other was also locked. Mr. Zeller declares that no suspicious character entered his place of business yesterday, who could have surreptitiously unlatched either of these, although the culprits evidently made their exit by one.

Some Snappy Work
Some snappy work by the police, and the quick memory of A. G. Greiner, elevator boy in the building, aided in capturing Leben and Drillingner. Mr. Zeller closed his rooms about 5 o'clock but returned shortly afterwards. He found that the hangers in his show cases had been stripped of the most valuable furs, and that in fact the establishment had been practically cleaned out. But very few pieces of the entire stock had been left. Before diving top speed to the station he had notified Lieutenant Maher and Sergeant Dwyer.

5379 Voters signed the Initiative Petition and said "Yes," we want streets constructed by contract for economy.

A few hundred City Employees, secure in their jobs, under Civil Service protection, protest with a big "NO."

They have failed, however, to back up their statements with FACTS AND FIGURES.

Are the CITY DEPARTMENTS run for the special benefit of the men elected to City Offices and their APPOINTEES?

Or SHOULD they be run for the BENEFIT OF ALL THE PEOPLE?

Shall the working men and women, employed in other industries, be obliged to pay HIGHER RENTS AND HIGHER TAXES, in order to aid the employees of the Street Department in blocking Municipal Progress?

THE INITIATIVE PETITION, when adopted, will benefit every working man and woman in the city, now burdened with High Rents and High Taxes, partially caused by the Inefficiency and Extravagance of the Street Department.

SCRAMBLE'S SONG

HE WAS VERY HAPPY

Scramble Squirrel was swinging himself on a wild grape-vine—swinging and singing. He was very happy because Old Sizzly Dry Weather had gone south; pine-cones were becoming thick and plentiful, acorns, too, and beechnuts, chestnuts, hickory-nuts, and hazel-nuts were coming along finely. Besides Scramper and the other children, were coming fast and learning to tumble and jump like circus-clowns. Really it kept Mrs. Squirrel at her sewing machine most of the time between dish-washing and meal-getting letting out clothes for the family. Scramble was singing this song:

"Oh I'm glad that it's summer, I am, I am.
Oh, glad that it's summer am I.
With roses and bluebells and lilies so sweet.
And orchards check-full of such good things to eat.
And fluffy white clouds in the sky.
"Oh, I'm glad winter's over, I am, I am."

Zeller, that all the furs have been recovered. These are now locked in the safe in the guard room at police headquarters. The following pieces are mentioned in the complaint lodged against the pair: 2 fur coats, value $375 each; 1 fur coat, value, $500; 3 fur coats, value, $400 each; 1 fur coat, value, $325; 1 fur coat, value, $300; 1 fur coat, value, $250; 1 fur coat, value, $200; 3 fur pieces, value $35 each; 2 fur pieces, value $20 each; 1 fur piece, value $120; 1 fur piece, value, $150; 1 fur piece, value, $50; 1 fur piece, value, $16; 1 fur muff, value, $50; 4 skins, value, $20 each; and 60 skins, value $3 each.

Scientifically Packed
It is stated that the salesman's boxes in which this large quantity of furs

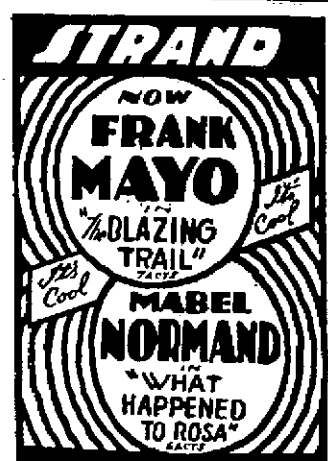

Oh, glad winter's over am I, With its hills and its chills and its hard frozen rills. And the snow inches deep over valleys and hills. That Sprinkle-Blow sends from the sky.

"Oh, I'm glad that fall's coming, I am, I am.
So glad that fall's coming am I, When Jack Frost with his hammer hits each bar a smack.
And nuts come tumbling down with a crack.
Like hail-stones right out of the sky."

Scramble went on singing and singing, making up verses as he went along, when all at once the sky got as black as night. Scramble could scarcely see the tip of his own nose.

"Goodness!" he exclaimed in amazement. "I wonder why Sprinkle-Blow sent night so soon? Do you s'pose it's what you call daylight saving? He's certainly saving the daylight. I can't see a thing!"

DRAFT DESERTERS' LIST

Publishing of War Department List Held to be Privileged by N. Y. Court

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—State Supreme Court Justice William P. Burr has sustained a demurrer entered by the Press Publishing company, publisher of the New York World, in the libel suit brought against it by a man whose name appears in the list of deserters furnished by the war department, May 6 last. The plaintiff claimed that publication of his name held him up to obloquy and contempt among his neighbors.

In his decision sustaining the demurrer, Justice Burr said: "The publication by the defendant of the official list of slackers and deserters prepared and issued by the war department and published at its request, as appears on the face of the complaint, I hold to be privileged as a matter of law."

The plaintiff declared that on May 25, 1917, he had contracted with the government to enter the United States coast and Geodetic survey for two years' service in the Philippine Islands; that he made his draft registration in Washington and left the country June 28, 1917. He said he had shown his registration card to his chief in Manila and had been told he was already in government service.

FIGHTING IN PROGRESS

Battle Along Ten Mile Front, 50 Miles Northeast of Yochaw, Says Peking

PEKING, Aug. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Fighting is reported in progress today along a 10 mile front, 50 miles northeast of Yochaw, where forces from the provinces of Hunan, affiliated with the southern or Canton government of China, recently invaded Hupeh province.

The engagement was brought on, reports state, by orders from General Wang Chan-Yuen, inspecting commissioner of the provinces of Hunan and Hupeh, that a general attack be begun against Hunan province, where his authority is not recognized. The recent invasion of Hunan by the Hunanese, was begun with the evident intention of ousting him. The Hunanese halted their advance soon after its inception, however, and were said to be awaiting the arrival of reinforcements from other provinces in the Yangtze territory which object to military domination of this territory by forces under the Peking government.

ROGERS ASKS FACTS ON DOUGLAS' SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Albert Douglas, head of the American commission to Peru in connection with the centennial celebration there, advised the state department yesterday that while he warmly expressed American friendship for Peru, in his address in Lima on July 25, "no partiality was shown." Reports that Mr. Douglas had spoken critically of Chile were said by him to be "quite unfounded."

Mr. Douglas had been instructed before undertaking the mission to "maintain an attitude of strict impartiality." The text of his speech has not been received either by the state department or the Chilean embassy.

A resolution requesting Secretary Hughes to furnish the house information concerning the speech of Mr. Douglas was introduced yesterday by Representative Rogers of Massachusetts. It asked whether Mr. Douglas "used language which could fairly be construed to express an opinion as to the merits of the long-continued controversy between Chile and Peru," and if so, whether this government had "made formal disavowal of such expression." Mr. Hughes also was asked that if an authentic copy of the Douglas address had been received at the state department to transmit it to the house. Mr. Rogers announced that he would probably endeavor to call up the resolution today.

The official print of the new tariff bill contains about 75,000 words.

MOTHER AND SISTER SEE FR. SHEVLIN DROWN

GLOUCESTER, Aug. 4.—Rev. Fr. Bernard A. Shevlin of St. Joseph's Parish, Medford, was drowned in Jones creek at the entrance of Annisquam river about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body was recovered about an hour later.

He was about half tide and the sand bank of the river, which is a tidal arm of the sea, was half exposed. It shelves gradually into the channel and is a favorite place for bathers. Fr. Shevlin had gone out into water not more than waist deep. His mother and sister were seated on a rock on the river inland watching him. Suddenly he gave a sharp cry as if in intense pain, and then collapsed below the water.

His sister Alice called to two men in a boat, who went to the scene. They reached down, the water being not more than three feet deep, and one grasped him by the hair and brought his head to the surface. The other thrust an oar out for him to hold, but the hair slipped from the grasp of the man who was holding him up, and the priest sank. The two men could not recover him. His sister Alice in the meantime ran out in the water to his assistance. She had a narrow escape. She stepped into one of the depressions in the river and got over her head, but fortunately extricated herself.

The alarm was communicated to the colony on Wheelers Point and the coast guard stationed at Old House Cove. Capt. Aubin of the coast guard station got under way for the scene immediately in his motorboat, and City Marshal Casey sent a squad in the motor ambulance with a lung motor.

In the meanwhile Melvin Healey, a resident of Wheelers Point, and two other men secured a boat and went to the scene and grappled for the body which was then in eight feet of water, where it had been carried by the current. The body was finally taken ashore, where Capt. Aubin and the coast guard applied the lung motor and the resuscitating movements in vain.

Dr. Philip P. Moore, medical examiner, was summoned and gave a verdict of accidental drowning. The body was taken last night to his home in Medford by motor hearse. The priest was 36 years of age, and had been ordained four years.

Jan Menik, otherwise known as John Menik, a former resident of this city, who died at the state asylum in Worcester in 1915, is believed by his relatives in Warsaw, Poland, to have died a rich man, according to a letter received yesterday by Mayor Thompson from Lucyan Leon Parzynski, a representative of the American consulate in

He has attempted on various occasions to locate the heirs of Menik, but his efforts have been fruitless.

HARDING TRIES TO HIT WILLIAMS

Reserve Board Head Charges Across Room But is Halted by Associates

Officials of Board Resent Charges Made by Former Controller

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Criticism of federal reserve system credit policies, which was continued yesterday before a congressional commission by John Skelton Williams, ex-controller of the currency, aroused the resentment of the system's two highest officers, Governor Harding of the reserve board and Governor Strong of the New York Reserve bank.

In one of the frequent verbal interchanges Governor Harding charged across the committee room swinging his fist, but was halted by struggling associates just in front of his adversary, who remained cool, but was rising for the threatened encounter.

"False," cried Williams. A few minutes later, Mr. Strong while reading to the commission a report which charged Mr. Williams with "false and misleading statements," was interrupted by the ex-controller, who shouted:

"That statement of yours is false." Gov. Strong, however, continued reading and presently referred to Mr. Williams as being jealous of his prerogatives.

"And that's a lie, too," the latter interjected.

"At this point I request the committee to require the controller to make oath, whether he has stated the whole truth or not," Gov. Strong exclaimed.

Chairman Anderson ruled amid the confusion that it was "not feasible to adopt the policy at this stage of the game."

Williams' Three Charges

Both federal reserve officials, with a number of associates, had sat apparently unmoved during two days, along with an audience which numbered many senators and representatives allied with the "agricultural bloc" in congress, while Mr. Williams elaborated three general charges. He said that the board had countenanced undue lendings to a New York banking group for speculative uses, while forcing liquidation in southern and western agricultural districts, that it had allowed extortionate interest charges and generally failed to "ease down" inflation.

Gov. Harding rose out of the audience and demanded a hearing on personal grounds, to deny allegations concerning himself, and presently with Gov. Strong, produced from the confidential files of reserve officers, correspondence and reports to combat Mr. Williams' criticisms.

To answer letters and memoranda read by Mr. Williams, which he said he had sent to his associates on the reserve board during 1920 and 1921, Gov. Harding read a single letter or response which the board made to Mr. Williams in 1921.

"The federal reserve board feels constrained to say," the letter said, "that your action has demonstrated the futility of discussions with you on questions of honor and fair play."

"Ignorant and inaccurate."

Mr. Williams' criticism of "the board's handling of credit problems as contained in the correspondence and reports to the congressional commission, were characterized in Governor Harding's letter as 'ignorant, inaccurate and misleading.'"

"The object seems to have been merely to make a record during your tenure of office of statements to be handed to the public later," the letter said, in part, "as an appeal to prejudices and sympathies, and not to reason."

The Harding letter further said that Mr. Williams' criticisms generally were "trivial, irrelevant or susceptible of no definite constructive interpretation," and added that "a failure to comply with you cannot be said to be a failure to challenge your statements."

As to the criticism of lending to New York banks, the Harding letter said that out of a "disordered mass of details and statements" forwarded by Mr. Williams, it had been "impossible for the board to understand which action he desired taken."

The letter said also that out of 80 meetings of the board preceding Mr. Williams' retirement from office, he had "attended 18 during their entire time, 18 during a part of the time and during 44 was absent entirely."

Call it "Poison Gas"

It was charged also that Mr. Williams had "circulated outside of the board confidential letters upon credit matters, and refused to tell the board to what person or persons they had been sent."

The reading of the letter resulted in a remark from Mr. Williams about "poison gas" and retorts in which Gov. Harding asserted his own desire, during all of the preceding controversy within the board, to settle matters peaceably, but to fight if necessary.

Gov. Strong read extracts from an official confidential report made to the board by him on the New York banking system. It referred to Mr. Williams' semi-official reports as "ignorant and misleading" and accused him of "violations of propriety and disloyalty to his associates."

One New York bank, which Mr. Williams said held $130,000,000 in federal reserve loans, Gov. Strong declared, held also $12,000,000 in government securities, adding that "most of its loans were made to carry purchases during the war." While it was lending $18,000,000 directly or indirectly to its own officers, Gov. Strong said, it held $15,000,000 in Liberty bonds as collateral, and additional securities as well.

Cause of High Interest Rates

Mr. Williams charged that 30 per cent. interest rates in New York money markets meant the starving of farming districts.

"Had the controller understood the workings of the reserve system," Gov. Strong responded, "he would have understood those rates resulted from the constant withdrawal of funds from New York to send to other sections of the country."

"Much of the credit pressure resulted from organized movements in various parts of the country," Mr. Strong continued, "to withhold commodities from their usual markets."

A general denial is hardly an effective answer to specific charges and complaints," Mr. Williams said when his turn came again, and after he expressed the opinion that the New York bank, dealing with reserve funds, "passed money out with prodigality" during periods when borrowers elsewhere were being restricted. He concluded his two-day discussion with observations that "there never had been the currency inflation in this country some people believed," and that there was "present improvement from the lowering of interest rates," and that "farmers are entitled to get, through the reserve system, nine months' credit on warehouse certificates for their produce, though dealers and profiteers should be restricted."

It was said at the foreign office yesterday that France had had no direct communication with the Russian soviet government for a long time on any subject other than mere details of the repatriation. It was pointed out also that George Lewis, formerly French minister in Petrograd, to whom in the version of the story was attributed the initiative in the reported negotiations between Krassin and the French government, had been dead for three years.

Before the collapse of the czarist regime in Russia, that government had contracted a debt to France approximating $5,000,000,000. When the soviet administration of Russia was established, the Polishviki refused to acknowledge this debt, and to this fact has been attributed the refusal of France to enter into any negotiations with representatives of the Bolsheviks, or to arrange a trade agreement such as was recently entered into between Great Britain and soviet Russia.

The denial seems to have been prompted by a circumstantial statement, declared to be on reliable authority, printed here yesterday, that such negotiations had been begun Tuesday by Louis Loucheur, French minister of liberated regions, and Leonid Krassin, Russian soviet minister of trade and commerce.

It was said at the foreign office yesterday that France had had no direct communication with the Russian soviet government for a long time on any subject other than mere details of the repatriation. MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The amazing adventures of an amateur matchmaker create the comedy situation in "Don't Call Me Little Girl," the feature attraction at the Merrimack Square Theatre today. This is Mary Miles Minter's latest production and those who have seen it hail it as her best. It is a comedy with a big hit a few years ago with Billie Burke in the leading role. The other feature for the week-end at the Merrimack Square Theatre is "When Dawn Came," a gripping story of modern life with an all-star cast. A comedy and the International News complete the bill.

More than 2,000,000 women were working in England when the war ended.

From 1896 to 1913 the annual productivity of one coal miner in England fell from 312 to 226 tons.

view. Such instruction is for children exclusively, and parents may well take advantage of the opportunity thus offered. Meanwhile, the popular picnic ground continues to provide amusement in variety, quantity and quality for the thousands who resort there for diversion. Miner-Doyle's orchestra is the harmony purveyor, afternoon and evening.

OUTDOOR MOVIES AT BELVIDERE PARK

The Lowell public last evening demonstrated its appreciation of the municipal movie plan, when a large crowd of adults and children assembled at the lower corner of Belvidere park, where a "silver-sheet," stretched between two trees, displayed a series of interesting films. Long before the time set for the opening of the exhibition, groups of youngsters and oldsters, top, had gathered, and there was, in effect, "standing room only" when the show got going.

The performance put on by the park department last night included a news reel, one entitled "The Fire-bugs," and one designated "The Fire-eat." A magnavox purveyor music from the truck which brought the paraphernalia, and from which the projection machine was worked. Tonight the Lawrence Mfg. company grounds will be the scene of an exhibit.

BRITISH-AMERICAN CLUB
President W. Axon occupied the chair at the regular meeting of the British-American Social club which was held last evening. Plans for a banquet on Armistice night were discussed, routine business was transacted and an entertainment program was given. There was a large attendance.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE
A large auto truck owned by the Horne Coal company of this city and loaded with coal had a narrow escape from going over the Beaver brook bridge in Pleasant street. Dr. out, yesterday afternoon. When the truck reached a spot close to the bridge, one of the rear wheels sank into the ground and for a few minutes it looked as though the weight of the load might take it over the bridge into the brook. Two other large automobile trucks which happened along at the time pulled the coal truck to safety.

The Drain of Dollars

The dollars go out in a steady stream in many homes faster than they come in—and the home-keeping problem grows more perplexing. You can solve the food problem by serving the whole wheat food that is all food, nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Considering its nutritive value it is the cheapest food in the world today. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat—no kitchen worry or work. Two biscuits with milk make a nourishing meal. Delicious with raisins, sliced bananas, prunes, peaches or other fruits.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker. A crisp, whole wheat toast eaten with butter or soft cheese.

By DEAN SNYDER

Every fighter to his own method of training. Jack Lynch burned up his stuff in the training camp ring. Pete Herman out-punched what was left of him in the battle ring and recaptured the bantam crown. Jack Dempsey trained for Georges Carpentier without a trainer. He trained himself, doing what he figured was best for himself in pink shape. He did a good job of it. Johnny Wilson stopped off at Cleveland a couple of days before his fight with Bryan Dawsey, took a light workout and called it a job. Downey knocked him cold in seven rounds and won the middleweight title.

Light Work
Benny Leonard is training himself for his title fight with Lew Tendler. He has studied anatomy, muscles and how to keep them fit. A trainer wouldn't let him drink ice water after workouts. Benny drinks it because he figures it is okay for his system.

Henny doesn't punch the bag. He'd rather shadow box. He doesn't skip rope. He prefers road-work. He doesn't fool with pulleys. Setting-up exercises suit him better. He weighs 135. He'll have to do 135 for Tendler. That doesn't worry the champion.

Hard Work
Lew Tendler is working like a beaver at his training camp in Delanco, N. J. He's doing road-work, skipping rope, punching the bag, hauling the pulleys, shadow boxing and knocking out sparring partners—everything in the book. He will stake his supreme effort against Leonard's title August 12. There is eagerness in all his work. Like Dempsey he believes fighting is the only way to train to fight your best. We'd rather risk Tendler's system than Leonard's where much is at stake.

JOHN BULL

Here's J. R. Stack, Cornell, winning the high jump at the meet between Oxford-Cambridge and Cornell-Princeton at Travers Island. He cleared the bar at 5 feet 3 1/4 inches. The meet resulted in a tie score, each team winning two events.

Abrahams, of Cambridge, was the only athlete to win two events in the field meet held by Oxford-Cambridge and Cornell-Princeton. Here he is winning the running broad jump with a mark of 21 feet and 5 inches.

MAJOR LEAGUE HOME RUN RECORD SMASHED

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—When the major league batters poked out four home runs yesterday they set a record for a season's total of circuit drives for the 21 seasons during which the American and National Leagues have occupied the major league field together. Previous to yesterday, last year's total of 531 stood as the record, but with that set aside the leaguers have about two months in which to run the total far ahead of the 1920 figures.

The home run totals for each full season, from 1901 to 1920 inclusive and for 1921 to date, follow:

Year	American	National	Totals
1901	226	225	451
1902	256	26	352
1903	182	145	327
1904	162	102	268
1905	153	152	335
1906	123	126	249
1907	101	111	212
1908	108	151	259
1909	103	148	257
1910	144	214	358
1911	193	314	507
1912	159	234	431
1913	158	311	469
1914	148	266	414

SEMI-FINAL PLAY IN TENNIS SINGLES

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 4.—The semi-final play today in the singles of the invitation lawn tennis tournament on the Casino courts had three starred matches. Vincent Richards of New York, met R. N. Williams 2nd, of Boston; Zenzo Shimidzu, the Japanese star, was matched with Robert Kinsey, the Californian; and Watson M. Washburn of New York, was opposed to N. W. Niles of Boston. William M. Johnston, former national champion, was favored to win over Joe Davis, king of Harvard, in the remaining match. Play in the doubles continued through the second round, with the Kinsey brothers, Robert and Howard, of California, by their defeat yesterday of Richards and S. H. Voshell, favored to reach the finals. Three out of five sets determined today's matches, in both the singles and the doubles play.

TEXTILE LEAGUE

The Boott mills baseball team won from the Waterhead mill team Saturday afternoon, 9 to 0 on a forfeit by the Waterhead team not appearing on the grounds at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday evening the Boott mills went to the Textile Campus and won from the Bay State mill team, 6 to 2 in a well played game. The hitting of Lamson and Dickenson of the Boott in the fielding of Manning for the Bay State were the features of the game. The Boott mill team will play the strong Hamilton mill team Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the First street oval and the following Tuesday evening will have the linemen of the Lowell Electric Light company as its guests on the oval at 6 o'clock.

JOHNNY EVERS IS ILL

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Johnny Evers, manager of the Cubs, was absent from the ball park yesterday on account of illness. His absence gave rise to reports that he had resigned as manager, but these reports were denied by William Veck, president of the club. Evers' doctor said he had a high fever last night and it was at first feared pneumonia would set in. It may be two or three days, it was said, before Evers will be about.

BASEBALL GAME POSTPONED

The baseball game between the second shift team of the local fire department and the Manchester, N. H., police, which was scheduled to be played in the Queen city tomorrow, has been postponed. The date of the game will be announced later.

"A knockout is a knockout in any kind of ring. No referee can save him." Says Downey, middle king.

By DEAN SNYDER
Fame and riches do not always go hand in hand. Ned Gourdin, the Harvard negro lad who jumped 25 feet, 3 inches in the international track meet a few days ago, is working his way through school. He is without funds, although he is the greatest jumper the world ever had. Gourdin will enter the Harvard law school this fall. He can't cash in on his wonderful ability because it is a line of athletic endeavor that pays in honor—not gold.

NO PUNCH

The bantamweight division of boxing lacks the punch. Compared with former bantams both Pete Herman and Lynch are only second-raters. Neither are punchers. The team is not there. Until the division develops a knockout champion it will lack color.

ROPE-SKIPPER

Miss Suzanne Lenglen, considered the greatest woman tennis player, trains like a prize fighter in some respects. She is a rope-skinner, like George Carpentier. Also her training rules are similar to the ones the Frenchman followed at Manhasset farm, where he trained for Jack Dempsey. Suzanne doesn't exercise until she feels tired. Physical fitness is a gradual growth, she says. She should last longer than four rounds when she meets our American stars.

MRS. MALLORY TRAINS BY ROPE SKIPPING

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Molla Burslett Mallory, woman's national tennis champion, has torn a leaf from the training book of the rope arena in preparing for a return match she hopes to obtain with Suzanne Lenglen, the French star, who defeated her at Paris, recently. She has taken up rope skipping, and fellow passengers on the steamer United States, on which she returned yesterday, reported she had skipped 2512 times on one occasion without stopping. Mrs. Mallory is scheduled to meet Miss Jessie Galt in the first round of the women's Metropolitan championship at the Nassau Country club, Glen Cove today.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Young Roamers of West—Contra-ville defeated the Dracut Stars, 12-5. The lineup for the Roamers is: P. Perreault, c. A. Fallson, p. H. Fallson, 1b; M. Fox, 2b; J. Downey, ss; J. Halner, 3b; R. Chonivert, lf; A. Charette, cf; F. Chamberlain, rf. The Roamers will play any team under 13 years of age. Telephone 3314-W.

The "Red Sox" challenge any 18-year-old team in the city to a game next Sunday. They will take on the Bunting A.A., the St. Louis team, the Belmonts or in fact any other team in their class. The manager will be at home any night between 6 and 7 o'clock. Phone 5536-M.

FULTON REINSTATED

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 4.—Fred Fulton of Minneapolis, heavyweight boxer who was suspended some two years ago, following charges of his having engaged in a "fake" fight with Jack Dempsey, was reinstated today by the Minnesota Boxing commission and will now be permitted to participate in bouts in this state.

WHILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLAYS POLITICS BIG INDUSTRY LEAVES LOWELL

SYRACUSE GETS BIG INDUSTRY

Lamson Co. Subsidiary of American Pneumatic Service Corporation, to Move Plant from Lowell

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 2.—A campaign of months by the Syracuse chamber of commerce closed successfully today with the announcement that the Lamson Co. of Lowell, Mass., a subsidiary of the American Pneumatic Service corporation would remove its plant to a site at Eastwood. Acquisition of the Lamson company means a new $5,000,000 industry employing upwards of 700 men for Greater Syracuse. Incidentally it is the largest company ever to move to Syracuse from another city. Negotiations for the removal of the industry were completed with the arrival in Syracuse of William F. Merrill, president and general manager of the Lamson company.—Boston Transcript.

The Chamber of Commerce was organized to bring new industries to Lowell. If it were doing its duty it would have its imported $5000 a year secretary, an out-of-town man, going throughout New England and the country advertising Lowell and bringing new business here and new taxpayers. That would help to reduce the tax rate. Yet here is concrete evidence that the Chamber is asleep at the switch. Instead of bringing new plants here we see them leaving Lowell. The Lamson Store Service Corporation, employing nearly 1000 skilled machanics, is going away. The Live Chamber of Commerce of Syracuse has taken this industry from us.

1000 skilled men will be out of jobs—

5000 others, their wives and children, are brought face to face with want. Many of them will have to leave Lowell. They are among our best citizens.

Answer this—Lowell Chamber of Commerce.

Why did you allow this disaster? Answer the people of Lowell. What have you done to prevent it? You not only have brought no new industries here but you are allowing our best ones to go away.

While you are playing politics and dividing your own membership on the question of contract labor, we are losing our biggest taxpayers.

Are you satisfied to have these 1000 skilled men driven out of employment? And will you be satisfied to have 1000 city employes driven out of employment by contract labor? What a record for the Lowell Chamber of Commerce! WHAT A RECORD!

While you are accusing Lowell citizens OF NOT HAVING BRAINS ENOUGH TO RUN THEIR CITY AND BUILD THEIR STREETS—

Look into the glass and see what your own record is. Playing politics—that's what you are doing.

GOOD BYE—LAMSON COMPANY

We are sorry you have been forced to leave our fair city. May you fare better at the hands of the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce. Our loss is their gain. We wish you the best of luck. Do not take with you too many of our skilled workers. We want them to stay with us. We need them.

WELCOME PRES. HARDING

Lancaster and Surrounding White Mountain County Join in Public Reception

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 4.—Lancaster and all the surrounding White Mountain country joined in a public welcome today to President Harding who is to spend the remainder of the week on vacation at Mount Prospect. Thousands from other towns came in by automobile and train to swell the crowd that gathered in Continental to cheer the chief executive and hear him deliver a short response. It was arranged for him to speak without leaving the automobile and public officials planned if possible to spare him from shaking hands.

The president agreed to come here for the occasion after a committee and called on him yesterday at the Mount Prospect lodge of Secretary Weeks, where Mr. and Mrs. Harding are guests. Former State Senator Irving Drew headed the committee and was chairman of the welcome meeting today.

Before he came into Lancaster the president played a round of golf on the miniature course improvised by members of the vacation party on the summit of Mount Prospect. A golf cup has been purchased for the winner of the week's play over the course, which covers only a small area, but has many obstacles in the form of huge rocks and underbrush. Although it was "Yonkers" before the president left White House, the proclamation of peace with the Central empires might be tested by him from Mount Prospect. It is not now expected that the step will be taken until the vacation is over. Under present plans Mr. Harding will be back in the capital next Tuesday or Wednesday and probably will give the question of a peace proclamation his first attention after he reaches the White House.

Capt. Gordon on Stand

Prosecute many cases from improper motives. Captain Herbert Gordon of the Cambridge police, who is attached to the district attorney's office, testified for the defense today.

Gordon was questioned about several cases which have been the subject of testimony and then was asked regarding money he borrowed from Daniel Sughrue, an associate of Daniel H. Conkley, an attorney, who represented several moving picture magnates in the settlement of cases growing out of a midnight liver at a Woburn roadhouse.

The witness said stock that he owned had slumped badly and Sughrue helped him out by transferring to Gordon's account about $6300 and some shares of stock. He assigned his own stock to Sughrue as security. He never told the district attorney of his transactions with Sughrue, he said.

Tufts was then called and testified regarding the alleged payment of $1000 by Louis "Poet" Bennett to secure his release from the House of Correction. Bennett claimed his money was paid to two employees of Sheriff Fairbairn of Middlesex county and was returned later.

Tufts said the story was brought to his attention by Fairbairn and that he placed it before the grand jury. Tufts' testimony before the grand jury was then read. In it he said no one had approached him with offers of money but that many persons had been to him urging Bennett's release.

Tufts Accuses Allen District Attorney Tufts repeated his charge that Attorney General Allen had sought to have him press for an indictment of John W. Combs, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, in order that he might be able to strengthen a civil suit against Combs in which Mr. Allen was interested as counsel.

The attorney-general was cross-examining the district attorney: "Do I understand that you said I called to have an indictment by the grand jury?"

"Certainly you did, you said you were interested in finding a car because you wanted to attach it. You thought if I pressed the matter it was the only way to break the man to the dough-dish."

"You had brought the matter to the grand jury in January and I called on you in March," Mr. Allen declared.

Delay Criminal Cases Mr. Tufts said he wrote to the Newton chief of police in an attempt to locate the car but did not request the aid of the Cambridge police because Mr. Allen had not requested it.

"Do you consider that wherever there is a criminal case of this character—a man being killed—that if a civil suit is pending, the criminal case must wait four or five years?"

"I know that repeatedly we have attempted to try such cases, and that there have been only two ordered tried in my experience, the almost invariable rule being to continue such cases if there are civil suits pending," was Mr. Tufts' answer.

Struck the Wrong Man

The defendant admitted that it was a case of mistaken identity, that he went forth to punish the man who hit his "kid brother," and of whom he knew only that the party's name was Buckley. "But where did you get this club?" queried the court, holding up an instrument which was identified by a police official as being a regulation police weapon. "That's my father's," explained Sullivan. Later the probation officer's list, consulted, revealed that his father is dead. "Oh, well, we've been keeping it," he volunteered. Mr. Dowd will inquire as to the exact status of the club, also as to other facts concerning Mr. Sullivan.

idents within as many days. This statement was made this morning by Chief William H. Cullinan of the Draught police department, who added that, in accordance with his recently issued warning, his officers had been active in spotting headless drivers of autos and motorcycles. Today leaders Morrisette was in on a Draught complaint, but lack of prosecution was noted because of insufficient evidence, and the case was dismissed.

One of the operators, who will be brought before Judge Enright by the police of the neighboring town was caught only after a hot chase in which Chief Cullinan and other officers pursued the motorcycle the man was driving at a mile-a-minute clip. Overtook him on a highway, and again he drew away from his pursuers. The second time he was overtaken, however, he stopped, and his name and number were taken. He will be only one of the many summoned, as a large batch were rounded up Saturday night.

Several complaints were sworn to this morning by Chief Cullinan at the office of the chief of the police court there. Cullinan declared that a relentless and rigid drive will be continued until the practice of "opening up" within the town limits of Draught is stopped. He said that since the first arrest was made before Judge Enright, conditions have somewhat improved and no more accidents have been reported.

SAYS ADVERTISING WILL BRING BUSINESS

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Fake fire sales were decried and predictions made that sharp legitimate advertising would cause a flood of business, by speakers before the National Congress of Retail Merchants yesterday.

W. Frank McClure, chairman of the advertising council of the Chicago Association of Commerce, which had charge of yesterday's meeting, said that advertising would "bring such a flood of customers that goods could be marked low and small profits on one customer will amount to large figures on many customers."

J. A. Davis, manager of the advertisers and investors' protective bureau of the association, told the retailers that "truth in advertising has become as necessary as truth in the home."

MONSTER DIRIGIBLE TO SAIL AUG. 25

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The monster British-built dirigible Z-R-2 will sail from Housden, England, Aug. 25 for its station at Lakehurst, N. J., the navy department announced today.

BOY BADLY INJURED

George Bates, aged 4 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bates of 55 Liberty street, sustained a compound fracture of the leg, abrasions of the temple and injuries to his back when he was struck and run over by an automobile in Smith street, yesterday. The driver of the machine, Perley Stuart of 550 Chelmsford street, claims the little fellow ran from behind another machine into the path of his car and that the collision was unavoidable. The boy was taken to his home, where he received treatment.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Edward Peredoff, of Saugus, will answer a charge of operating an automobile in Tewksbury, July 31, in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public, when his case comes before the police court here Aug. 11. He appeared this morning, but a continuance was taken. The alleged offence was committed on Pleasant street, according to the complaint.

MUST COME ACROSS

Leo Lohme, charged with non-support of his three minor children, drew a six months' sentence this morning, but carried a two weeks' suspension to avoid his ways. If he does not come across financially to the little tots, before the expiration of his fourteen days of grace, he will be incarcerated, Judge Enright stated.

FEUD OF 271 YEARS ENDS

Hereditary Indian Foes Bury the Hatchet and Smoke Pipe of Peace

PENETANG, Ont., Aug. 4.—Friendliness existed today between hereditary Indian foes, the Hurons and the Iroquois whose chieftain buried the hatchet yesterday and smoked the pipe of peace in the presence of a great multitude gathered on the shore of Penetang bay for the bi-centenary celebration of the coming of the pioneer, Champlain.

This ceremony ended a feud that began 271 years ago when the fury of the Iroquois fighters vanquished the Hurons from the land that is now Ontario. Warfare raged among them for more than two centuries, but in recent years they were but nominal foes.

Returning to the domain where once his ancestors ruled, the big canoe of Chief Ovide Sioul of the Hurons slipped upon the sands of Penetang bay yesterday and a moment later Big Chief Andrew Statat, leader of the Mohawk tribe of the Six Nations, stepped ashore. The chieftains, in full regalia with great feather in an arc above their straight, black locks, met in the shadow of a birch bark tepee.

"Now we go kill moose together," said the Huron to the Iroquois, when they had puffed at the pipe of peace and buried the war hatchet beneath a huge red boulder.

Chamber is on the Warpath

ing a letter to Secretary Manager George F. Wells, of the chamber of commerce in which he stated that he had made an investigation of alleged irregularities in connection with the purchase of paving blocks and had found that, in his opinion, no law had been violated.

Owens a Quarry

Yesterday afternoon an official of the chamber of commerce interviewed a member of a firm, owning a quarry within a few miles of Lowell, in which in the past, has supplied considerable quantities of paving blocks to the city.

"I would be glad today to furnish to the city," he said, "all of the so-called six-inch paving blocks, for which it is now paying $136 per thousand, for $100 per thousand. I would be able to make a good profit at that price."

The publication of the advertisement criticizing the chamber of commerce for an alleged failure to retain the Lamon company in the city resulted in the posting of the notice today regarding the company's leaving the city. In addition to other reasons given by an official of the company it was stated that the poor condition of the streets had led it to seek a city where its trucking could be done for a less cost than here because of better highways.

It was also stated by an official of the company that a lack of civic pride in Lowell, the lack of satisfactory lighting facilities and the refusal of some of its employees with homes in Boston to come to Lowell to live were responsible for the decision of the company to leave town.

Sends Telegram

Secretary Manager George F. Wells of the chamber of commerce today sent telegrams to the street authorities of a number of cities asking the prices paid by them for paving blocks similar to those used on Thorndike street, and for which the city is paying $136 and $132 per thousand.

From Fitchburg the reply came from City Engineer D. A. Hartwell that the price is $50 per thousand. Similar replies were received from other places.

The mayor completed his investigation of the purchase of paving blocks by the purchasing agent, made at the request of the chamber of commerce, and issued the following statement:

THE MAYOR'S LETTER

"Dear Sir: Assuming that it is desired that an immediate answer to yours of the 2nd inst. addressed to me shall be given, I submit, in the absence of the city solicitor, who it now on a vacation, and regretting my inability to confer with him as to the legal aspect of the matter, in question, the following is my opinion: "That insofar as any violation of the charter of our city is concerned, in the matter of the purchase of granite paving blocks for new construction of highways in the city of Lowell, it appears to me that whatever paving blocks have been purchased as aforesaid have been so purchased in a duly proper and legal manner."

On Requisition

"The granite paving blocks for highway construction purposes during the year 1921 were purchased upon requisitions through the purchasing agent, pursuant to the provisions of law contained in section 2, chapter 415, acts of 1898, as amended by chapter 645, of the acts of 1911.

"From my investigation into the purchase of granite paving blocks, I find that section 41, acts of 1911, provides among other things that 'The commissioner shall make and execute all contracts for the purchase of materials and supplies for the department for which the same are intended, etc.'"

"Further reference may be had to section 61 of the charter and there will be found the following language: 'There shall be a department of supplies, and all material and supplies for the city shall be purchased by the chief or head of such department, who shall be known as the purchasing agent, subject to the approval of the committee on the part of the department for which the same are intended, etc.'"

"From the point of view of the law as contained in the charter, I am unable to find any violation in the premises."

Contracts, authorized and empowered pursuant to section 27, stand in a different light from contracts executed and made pursuant to section 41 of the charter.

A Particular Department

"The one provides for the making or authorizing the making of contracts by the municipal council, the other deals with the making of contracts for the management of a particular department."

"It is my belief and conviction that the purchase of material and supplies for the city shall be purchased by the chief or head of such department, who shall be known as the purchasing agent, subject to the approval of the committee on the part of the department for which the same are intended, etc."

"I have examined further with the purchasing agent concerning the purchase of the granite paving blocks in question and it appears to me from the explanation of his attitude in the matter as confirmed and approved by the commissioner of streets and highways that the purchase was made in due legal and proper form."

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN!

Possibly the announcement that the Lamson Store Service company is to leave Lowell, will cause some of the unreasonable people who are trying to chain our city to the Rock of Inefficiency to stop, look and listen.

It appears that a number of political schemers who are interested in positions at city hall are out with perverted appeals to the laboring people to rally to their support. The laboring people will make a very serious mistake if they heed these appeals for, let it be understood that if the city be prevented from adopting a policy of economy and reinforcement, various other industries may decide to quit Lowell and go where they will have lower taxes, cheaper land, less trouble from agitators, better streets, and conditions generally more favorable.

Nine-tenths of the working people of Lowell have to look for their bread and butter to the textile factories, the machine shops, the shoe shops and various other manufacturing industries; yet the laborers employed at city hall under civil service protection, ask the factory workers to join them in support of a policy which, if passed, may drive out various other industries such as, for example, the Massachusetts and Merrimack mills.

When any industry moves out to seek another location, it does so because it finds greater advantages in its new location; when individuals sever the ties that bind them to their place of birth, their home and friends most dear, they do so because it is for their interest to move. When they seek another location, it may be in the south, the northwest, or on the Pacific coast. They want one where they will no longer be annoyed by the conditions that drove them out. It may have been lack of opportunity; it may have been the evil effects of misgovernment that promotes graft and robs the people; and, as with individuals so with industries, they, too, go where they can do better solely for their own interest.

In this respect Lowell as a city has to compete with the south, the east and the west, or wherever the greatest facilities and conveniences are offered to industries that had themselves embarrassed in their present locations. If the local tax-burdens are much higher than elsewhere, then our position as an industrial city is imperiled.

"Oh," the city hall shouter and the sidewalk agitator will say, "you are trying to raise an unnecessary scare."

Such a statement would betray gross ignorance of the situation. It is not such a difficult matter to blight the prospects of a thriving city and drive her industries to other places where they can do business without tax extortion, and can have all the advantages of economic and progressive government.

Lowell once had the greatest carpet factory in the country, the Bigelow company, one that paid better wages than any other local textile industry, one in which many men and women worked long enough to be able to purchase respectable homes; but that great industry after expanding its plant got into trouble locally and decided to go elsewhere. Labor listened to a few hotheads and thus caused the goose that laid the golden egg to take flight to a more congenial clime. That was a most serious loss to Lowell. The great plant is partly occupied by various smaller concerns; but to this day, Lowell and her people feel the loss of the Bigelow company.

No industry is tethered here. The Massachusetts mills has a branch plant in Georgia and the Merrimack

TAX REVISION PLAN

If Secretary Mellon has his way in tax revision, he will cut off some of the old war taxes and impose others almost as burdensome. He is very lenient in his demands upon the European powers that owe us money. He wants to put off repayment for forty years or more and even the interest is not to be collected when due. Nevertheless, he comes before the ways and means committee of congress and suggests a federal automobile tax with $10 as the minimum and reduction in the transportation tax. He does not seem to realize that at present the owners of automobiles pay a variety of state taxes, and that a federal tax would be regarded as highly unjust.

The sales or consumption tax which has been widely favored throughout the country is not included in Secretary Mellon's plan, although it would seem to be more practical than some of those he has proposed. The proposed scheme is expected to raise from $3,500,000,000 to $4,600,000,000 revenue while at the same time reducing the total amount of the taxes by about $500,000,000, which is a mere bagatelle where the total rises into the billions.

He would return to three cent postage on letters and two cents for postals. This will be unpopular, but it is better than something worse.

Mr. Mellon sees the injustice of the excess profits tax and would make the high surtaxes to favor less of confiscation. He would add to the taxes on cigarettes and tobacco, the which the smokers will pay feeling that they may be thankful that the suffragettes who run things through congress did not decide to tack another amendment to the constitution by which tobacco, like liquor, would be relegated to the hidden recesses of the subcellar to be drawn upon only in case of dire need and then only with moderation. But it is all right to luxuriate while removing or reducing the burdens that have operated as an incubus on industry.

This referendum on street paving will decide whether the city will be free to adopt business methods in street construction. A negative decision will stir the people to decisive action in reference to the go-as-you-please method that has been in vogue in the street department during the last few years.

Some of the agitators who are posing as leaders of the workmen, against contract work on streets haven't done a real day's work in ten years.

When a municipal department is run as a political machine, it is useless to look for satisfactory results or any proper accounting of expenditures.

SEEN AND HEARD

It looks as if a little sunlight should be thrown on the moonshine.

Looks as if the mayor ought to carry a gun. And, by the way, who would he get the permit from?

Chance for a little disarmament conference between Lloyd George and Lord Northcliffe.

Mayor Thompson owes it to the public to proceed against the men who threatened him at city hall Tuesday evening.

Jail is too good for the man who gives his money to sellers of hooch and neglects his wife and children. Direct sentences instead of fines should be imposed in these cases.

Perfect Answer
Members of the naval board were examining young applicants for appointment to a naval college. "Well," said an old admiral to one of the youths, "what must an officer be before he can have a funeral with full naval honors?" "Dead," answered the bright youth.

Here's Your Hat, Don't Hurry
"I trust, Mr. Borum," said Miss Cutting, as the young man was about to depart, "that you will spend one more afternoon with us before we move into our new house." "Delighted," I assure you, Miss Cutting," replied Borum. "By the way, when do you expect to move?" "I'm not positive as to the exact date," she answered, "but the workmen began excavating for the cellar yesterday, and papa expects the house to be finished in about 15 months."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Sunday Golf
"Chick" Evans, the brilliant golfer, was talking at a golf club dinner in Chicago about Sunday golf. "The prejudice against playing golf on Sunday," said Mr. Evans, "has practically disappeared, but in New England there are still clubs where the game is not permitted on the Sabbath. To deprive the modern player," continued Mr. Evans, "of his Sunday golf—the only day in the week that some men can play—is a great hardship." Smiling, the great golfer added whimsically, "And as a matter of fact, doesn't the golfer remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy?"—Chicago Evening Post.

Killing Concert
Mrs. Gilbert K. Chesterton, the wife of the English humorist, was talking about the rather ultra suits worn by Florida girl bathers.

"I like these swimming suits," she said, "when they are worn by girls who are beautifully built. Too often, though," Chesterton shrugged her shoulders.

"Too often you are reminded down there in Florida of the girl who said to her pastor:

"I am afraid I must confess to one sin—the sin of vanity. Whenever I pass a mirror in my swimming suit I can't help thinking how beautiful I am."

"O," said the pastor, with a wave of his hand, "that isn't a sin. It's a mistake."—Detroit Free Press.

A Clever Impersonator
"My little girl is very clever," said a woman to her guests. "She can imitate almost anyone." "She can indeed!" echoed the husband, proudly. "Come, my dear, show us what you can do. Pretend to be the housemaid." The little girl, honest to one of the guests, "Will you take a little more chicken, ma'am, or a little more beef?" she asked, politely. Then she turned to another. "Shall I put the screen before your chair, ma'am?" she inquired. "The fire is very fierce." At this the guests were greatly amused. "Go on, my dear," chuckled the proud father. Backing away from her parent, she exclaimed, in a terrified tone: "Sir, let me go! Don't touch me, sir! Give you a kiss, indeed! Supposing misas was to hear you." Then the clever darling was suddenly bundled out of the room.—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

Success—An Explanation
Most of the involved explanations we see in print about why one business is a great success and another a failure are pure humbug. One man or one business succeeds, while another fails, largely because of superior ability, or greater opportunity, or a happy combination of the two, and that is all there is to it. In a score of ways we may note how seriously people take that which is successful. Let a theatre put up a sign that tickets are to be had only for performances three weeks in advance and a crowd will form in line for two blocks trying to reach the box office. One restaurant man hit on the scheme of never having quite enough tables to take care of his crowds. At a season of the year when the crowds were larger he had more tables, but never quite enough. A few people always had to stand a little while before obtaining seats. In that way customers got the impression that they were in something especially good, because it appeared that the demand exceeded the supply.—Nation's Business.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I was amused last night on walking near the South common to see the great crowd of small boys following the Twilight League players as they left the ball field and walked toward their homes. The urchins kept at the very heels of the players, hanging on every word of their idios and quarrelling among themselves over the bats and gloves. They seemed to consider it an honor to be allowed to carry some of the player's apparatus and the young man who was fortunate enough to be carrying a glove for a bat would scarcely look a hair more humble brethren. It certainly augurs well for the future of the national sport when youthful hero worship takes on this form. I do not doubt that the highest ambition of every one of those kiddies is to be a Twilight League player when he grows up.

As I continued my walk out toward Pawtucketville I noticed a great many young couples strolling along the boulevard. I am told that this section of the city is a veritable "Lovers' Lane." There is evidently something about the atmosphere on the boulevard which draws young lovers to it. Mayhap it is the opportunity of being alone with the stars and The Girl. The officer on that beat, however, remarked the other day that if the city charged an admission fee for the autos that come to this trying place at night, it would have a new and substantial source of revenue.

ASKS AMERICAN TO ATTEND

Formal Invitation to U. S. to Send Representative to Supreme Council Meeting

Message Sent to American Embassy Through French Ambassador in London

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—A formal invitation for an American representative to attend the meeting of the allied supreme council, which opens in Paris, next Monday, was communicated to the American embassy here this afternoon through Col. De St. Alaire, the French ambassador in London. United States Ambassador Harvey, accompanied by a small staff, will leave for Paris on Saturday.

GROWING INSECTS ON ARM NOT PLEASANT

Growing a crop of insects on one's arm may not be the most pleasant means of observing and studying their life histories, but it is sometimes the necessary method and is frequently resorted to by entomologists when studying an insect that spends a part of its life cycle as a blood-eating parasite.

Through the utilization of this method Vernon Wildermuth, state entomologist for Arizona, undertook to make a careful study of the life history of the ordinary red "chigger," which persists so persistently on our camping trips and cross-country hikes and is especially prevalent about wheat harvest time.

Wildermuth studied this insect with a view to determining the most effective and practicable method of destroying it, but he made the interesting discovery that it is in a sense a beneficial insect and instead of being a pest it should be protected.

He discovered that in addition to relishing human blood the "chigger" can, when pressed to it, put up with a fare of wheat joint worms. In fact, considering the relative scarcity of human shocks on which to feed, the wheat joint worm is the chigger's principal article of diet at a certain season of the year.

Since the joint worm causes the destruction of much wheat by boring through the stalk, a joint, there, by causing the stalk to break over and the head to be lost, any insect living as a parasite upon the wheat stalk joint worm and decimating its numbers is a friend to man, despite its occasional depredations upon his exposed skin.

This parasitism of one insect upon another is a most interesting study and it is frequently resorted to by entomologists in order to encourage the growth of a certain insect in order to counteract the harmful effects of another insect.

SHIP TUSSELES IN FEDERAL COURT

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Further legal tussles between the United States Shipping board and the United States Mail Steamship Co., over the nine vessels seized from the company and later returned by injunction, will take place in federal court. The steamship company withdrew today its application to have proceedings remanded to the state courts.

When the withdrawal was made, before Federal Judge A. N. Hand, it was indicated that a hearing would soon be held on the injunction by which the company regained temporary operation of the seized ships.

NEW LAKEVIEW PARK

The roads to Lakeview are in splendid shape these days. If you prefer to go by automobile, don't hesitate, go by the way of Hammon road, through Pawtucketville, and you will find the surface to desire practically the entire way. Most people go on the electric, for that has become a fixed habit with thousands who usually go to the lake. Today's play brought together in the singles, Anderson, Australia and Wood, British Isles; Hawks, Australasia and Lowe, British Isles.

Arrest Crew of Boozie Ship violation of the Volstead act, and attempts to defraud the government of customs.

Millionaire Accused

The three accused men, besides the crew, are John G. Crossland, described as "an Atlantic City millionaire," William F. McCoy, who Federal Attorney Gross said had been described as the owner of the schooner, and a Dr. Holden, whose whereabouts was unknown.

The attorney said the crew, detained by customs men who took charge of the craft after it had been seized four miles off the New Jersey shore, declared that Mr. Crossland had gone to the Bahamas to supervise loading a whiskey cargo, and awaited the boat's arrival off the United States coast.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—United States District Attorney Hayward of New York, probably will be summoned to Washington to discuss the seizure as a liquor smuggler of the schooner Henry L. Marshall, outside the three mile limit off Atlantic City. Assistant Attorney General Goff said today that the department of justice had the matter of calling Mr. Hayward here under consideration.

SPURGIN IN MEXICO PRES. HARDING SPEAKS

Arrest of Missing Chicago Bank President Said to be Momentarily Expected

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 4.—Warren C. Spurgin, missing president of the Michigan Avenue Trust Co., of Chicago is in the vicinity of Chihuahua City, Mexico, according to a telegram received by the El Paso police. The telegram added that arrest of the banker was momentarily expected. Mexican officials, it was said, were co-operating with American officers in the search for the missing man.

In the absence of recognition of the Mexican government by the United States, no extradition treaty between the two countries is in force and the only legal method of securing Spurgin's return to the United States is for President Harding to order his expulsion from Mexico as a pernicious foreigner.

GREAT BRITAIN RISKS SEA COMMAND

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—Discussing the naval estimates in the house of commons yesterday, Lieutenant-Colonel L. C. Amery, parliamentary secretary of the admiralty, announced that the four replacement ships the government proposed to build would be battle cruisers of the Hood type, armed with 18-inch guns and designed to obviate the need of larger dockyards than at present exist.

Contending that there was no element of challenge or provocation in replacing obsolete ships, he said it was simply a policy circumscribed within the narrowest limits and postponed to the very latest dates consistent with the empire's safety.

Temporary Inferiority

Alluding to the building programs of the United States and Japan, he argued that the admiralty, by proposing the completion of only three ships by 1925, was laying itself open to the charge of accepting the risk that the British navy would temporarily be inferior in strength to the navies of other powers; but the government was facing this risk in order to avoid any step tending to invite fresh competition on the eve of a conference for disarmament.

Objecting to the disarmament conference, he said he was endeavoring to obtain by agreement no further expansion of the navies of the three greatest naval powers; but as it was quite unlikely that the other powers participating in the conference would offer to scrap the ships already built or under construction, it was obvious that the building of new ships, or even twice their number, could not in any way affect the problem before the conference.

Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for the colonies, replying in the debate for the government, made reference to the building programs of both the United States and Japan. He contended that there could be no conceivable cause for a quarrel with either of these countries. Still, the fact remained that, if England delayed another year the construction of necessary vital units, she would have to face a position of inferiority and perhaps final naval inferiority; she would sink to third naval power, and, having sunk, might never be able to recover.

"We should exist as a great power in the world only on sufferance," Mr. Churchill continued. "We have never done that yet. If profound peace might continue to rule in the world for many years, but during that peace everyone would know Great Britain's day was done."

Lady Astor declared that the United States was absolutely in earnest in saying it wanted a disarmament conference, but, simultaneously, with Great Britain, that country had the right to decide that it must go to the conference as a first-class, and not a third-class naval power.

GOV. HARDING DEFENDS HIS ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Gov. Harding today a defense of his administration before the congressional commission, which has heard a series of criticisms against the board, including those of John Skelton Williams, former controller of the currency. Workings of the national credit system, Governor Harding said, are in the hands of the reserve banks and over these the board had "general supervision," adding that this did not mean "control."

In law, the reserve banks are private corporations," he continued, "controlled by their directors. Congress did not attempt to establish a central bank, but did furnish a means of mobilizing credits."

Representative Funk, republican, Illinois, said that in 1920 there "had been a feeling in the west that reserves were being made available for their banks."

"The feeling was not warranted," Governor Harding said, "and I want to discuss it later. The difficulty was in the unsuitability of some of the available paper."

The question of individual credit extension "clearly is up to the reserve bank," Governor Harding said. "Now, if through prejudice or other cause, the district bank refused a rediscount, the member bank might appeal to the reserve board, but up to the point we could not interfere."

"It is true that the reserve board has power to change an interest rate on rediscounts after it has been put into effect by a district bank. But that has never been exercised."

BIG CONFERENCE ON ARMISTICE DAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Great Britain's willingness to accept any date for the Washington administration might desire for the opening of the forthcoming disarmament conference, has led to the definite suggestion of Nov. 11, Armistice day, of this year, as an appropriate occasion.

The matter has been the subject of informal conversations and while no formal announcement was available at the state department today, it was learned that, once assured of British acquiescence, American officials put the original suggestion of Armistice day into definite form for all the invited powers and now await acknowledgment from abroad.

Confident America's Example

Will Lead all Nations to Permanent Peace

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 4.—Confidence that American institutions are more firmly implanted than ever before and that in the near future America's example will lead all the nations to permanent peace, was expressed by President Harding today in an address at a welcome demonstration in Lancaster.

The coming disarmament conference the president said, "gave promise of an international agreement that would end wars and turn the attention of mankind to constructive and beneficial pursuits." He asked for the support of the American people in the government's trials over the reconstruction period and pledged in return that the administration would serve the nation to its highest ability.

The president's speech was delivered from his automobile in Continental Square here to a crowd of several thousand who had come to bid him welcome to the White Mountains. He was cheered many times while he was speaking and after he concluded the crowd broke into lines to crowd about him and shake his hands.

Mr. Harding began his speech with a tribute to the beauties of the New Hampshire mountains and a word of personal praise for Secretary of War Weeks, at whose home on Mount Prospect here, the president is taking his vacation. Mr. Weeks, the president declared, was one of the "most practical and courageous" men he had ever known in public service.

"A Real President"

In presenting the president, former Senator Irving Drew of this state declared the people of this section were proud to have the opportunity to come and see "a real president."

"Senator Drew has said that you are glad to come and see your president," began Mr. Harding, "and I want to add that your president is very happy to come here and see you. I think it is a perfectly natural and commendable trait of the American people that they like to see and know those that they place in authority, and on the other hand it is a mighty good thing for those in authority to know the people of the United States better. If I had my way, if the experiences of the situation would permit, I would like to come into contact and know all the people of the United States."

"I am glad to come for another reason. I am glad to pay tribute to the inspiration of the grandeur of the great natural scenes of beauty among which you live. Today I stood on Mount Prospect and saw a wonderful picture. In some of the valleys there were clouds and signs of storms, but above the peaks rose serene and untroubled. And while I gazed, my mind turned to the affairs of men and I said with some comfort to myself that though the clouds may be dark, my heart's confidence for I believe with all my heart that no matter what bedims the picture, we of America have a God-given destiny to perform which nothing on earth ever will prevent."

In a century and a third we of the United States have outstripped every record of civilization in the history of this world. This republic which had its beginning in a little group of colonies now is conceded the leadership of the world.

The story of the world is one stage after another of developing warfare until we of this generation have witnessed the most gigantic conflict of all time. The cost of the conflict was so great that we are coming to have a consciousness and determination that the whole development has been wrong and that acquisition by might is unjust. We of this country and all the world are resolved today that warfare ought to come to an end.

"I'm happy to bring you word that your government is doing all it can to have a conference at which the representatives of the nations can look each other in the eye and work together for a way to remove the causes of war and put an end to costly armament. I believe we shall succeed."

"I'd like to have in this country less of toll to maintain armies and navies and more of play to hearten the American mind. I'd like to have a land where there might be more opportunity for wholesome play not for the fortunate alone, but for everyone."

Referring to his conferences at Washington with leaders of various nationalities the president asserted that his contact with these men had deepened his confidence in the soundness of American public opinion. He told how he had received a letter here suggesting that he "behead" all those who had more than their share of wealth and continued: "I have never believed that to be the mission of this republic. I wonder what wealth is? I like to think of the leader in the community of the man to whom those who have less turn for counsel and advice. That's the great man of America, no matter how you measure his wealth."

"In the past few weeks I have had an opportunity to meet many such leaders—leaders of capital, of labor and of the other groups that make up the nation. And I want to say to you that there isn't one in any group who deep in his heart doesn't want to preserve our America and continue its onward course. Those who are suspected most sometimes are the most generous of all in their tenders of help to those in authority."

"Some times you think your government is not alert, but let me tell you—and I care not what party is in power—your government is always trying to serve you as best it can. You can't be told everything that's going on; that is not a practical plan, but it is fair to tell you that your public servants are really, honestly, and to the best of their ability, trying to promote the fortunes of our common country."

"And I believe with all my heart this day, though we have our discouragements and our depressions, that America is more firmly founded than ever and that the things for which we stand have come to have the approval of all mankind; and I hope that before the next four years shall have expired these things for which we stand will be so firmly rooted that mankind will give its attention to permanent peace and to the higher purposes for which we were created."

STOCK MARKET

The following is a complete report, giving high, low and closing quotations:

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The stock market opened irregular, but with an easier tendency which became more pronounced in the first half hour. Investment railroads and leading specialties exhibited the most weakness. Yesterday's decline in the railroad division and misgivings as to dividend action on certain industries encouraged broader selling for the short account. American Sugar and Central Leather fell one point and United States Food Products, Cuba Cane preferred, Central Leather preferred, Bethlehem Steel, Sears, Roebuck, General Electric, American Locomotive and United Drug, 1/4 to 1/2. Studebaker was a notable exception, gaining two points, while Chandler, Mexican Petroleum and Union Pacific, were bid up nearly a point. Selling orders did not follow prices down and the market began to show a little more stability in sympathy with the confident absorption of the motors. Domestic and international monetary conditions were regarded favorably, the large influx of gold here, and strength to foreign remittances, sterling rising 1 1/2 cents, causing a check to speculative selling. Short covering was an obvious factor on the rebound, but there also were signs of renewed accumulation of representative railroads with pool operations in some industries. American Sugar recovered fully and the general list got back to a parity with yesterday's close or above. Call money again renewed at 1/2 per cent. Trading was on a diminishing scale after mid-day, but prices of industrials continued to forge upward. International Harvester, American Woolen and Atlantic Gulf advanced two points, Atlantic Gulf preferred 3/4 and American International, Famous Players, Sumatra Tobacco, American Sugar, California Packing and Great Northern preferred one point. Business broadened when pressure was exerted against Crucible, U. S. Alcohol, General Asphalt, International Paper, Kelly-Springfield, Atchafson, Canadian Pacific and Pierce-Arrow preferred, the latter losing four points. Elsewhere prices receded sympathetically. The closing heavy.

Bomb Explodes—Boy Killed

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Twelve-year-old Frank Cafaro of Brooklyn is dead and his two brothers are seriously injured from the explosion of a bomb they found yesterday on the federal quarantine grounds on Staten Island, and carried home as a plaything. This morning, they got a hammer to bang against their new toy. When they did so, Frank was blown to pieces, John, 15, suffered an injury to his arm, and Joseph, 9, was slightly wounded.

Latest Report Says Caruso Left Two Wills

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Enrico Caruso left two wills, according to a Central News dispatch today from Rome, quoting the famous singer's legal advisers. One of the wills was made in New York in 1910 and the other was executed at Sorrento this year, according to the dispatch. By the terms of the latter document, the dispatch said, the usufruct of his estate is left to his widow who is to care for Caruso's mother, and upon the widow's death the property is to be divided among the children and the brother of the deceased.

Shaw Case Triangle—Follies Girl Discards Broker Whose Wife Sues for Divorce

MADRIENNE LA BARRIE (ABOVE) AND MR. AND MRS. PHILIP M. SHAW.

Copyright, 1921, by The Lowell Sun

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Two "blighted romances" are involved in the Shaw divorce case—a court drama that has taken the place, temporarily at least, of the Stillman case in capturing New York's interest.

Mrs. Philip Jordan Shaw charges her millionaire broker-husband with her off for a Follies show girl.

The ex-Follies girl, Madrienne La Barrie—the "Butterfly Girl"—weeps that she thought Shaw unmarried and that she was preparing her wedding trousseau.

Philip M. Shaw denies his wife's charges of misconduct with Miss La Barrie. This is what Mrs. Shaw says: Shaw spent $15,000 a year maintaining Miss La Barrie in homes in New York and Somerville, Mass.

He closed his home to his wife and wanted her to accept $500 a month in lieu of a life in which their expenses were $19,000 a year.

Miss La Barrie wrote him "Sweetheart" letters and was seen with him at New York hotels.

Through With Him
This is what Miss La Barrie says: "I am through with him. I am through. I am through—through—through."

NO CARS RUNNING IN DES MOINES IOWA

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 4.—Conveyances of every description were pressed into service on Des Moines streets today to provide transportation for thousands of workers following the cessation of street car service at midnight.

Des Moines street cars were in the hands in accordance with a federal court order ordering traffic suspension because the car company was unable to meet its obligations.

ALL OF MISSING FISHERMEN SAFE

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—The last of the 12 fishermen who became separated from the schooner Mary De Costa in a south channel fog last Sunday returned to this port yesterday aboard the schooner Mary P. Goulet. He is Dennis Boudreau of East Boston.

Eleven of Boudreau's mates were picked up by the Eleanor de Costa and brought here Tuesday after they had been reported as lost.

We were to be married December 1. We talked of our honeymoon in Northern Canada, and I didn't know that all the time he was married.

Although Mrs. Shaw's suit for divorce was filed early in May, it did not become public until late in July. Efforts of detectives to find Miss La Barrie resulted in her fleeing from her Somerville home.

The ex-show girl later was found at her studio in the Back Bay district of Boston. As she told her story of disillusionment a friend knocked a bottle of poison from her hand in time to save her life.

Asks Large Alimony
Mrs. Shaw asked for alimony of $1000 a month, $7500 counsel fees and $3000 for expenses pending trial of the divorce suit.

Among the documents filed by Mrs. Shaw is a postcard she says Miss La Barrie sent the broker. It read:

"Just the fondest recollections from another little Butterfly. Birthday greeting. Sweetheart."

Another letter was introduced addressed: "My Darling Sweetheart," and signed: "Your loving little sweetheart, Madrienne (Butterfly)." In this letter mention was made of being "engaged to be married."

POLISH PRIEST SUES FOR $100,000

DEDHAM, Aug. 4.—Rev. Stanislaus Bona, a Polish priest, through his counsel yesterday filed with the clerk of the Norfolk superior court a suit for $100,000 against Patrolman Kenesnek, both of Norwood, for alleged defamation of character. The plaintiff's declaration sets forth that on June 15, 1921, at Norwood, and concerning the plaintiff in his profession and office of priest, the defendant falsely and maliciously spoke defamatory words, as follows:

"He is a thief. He is spending the money you gave him for the church. He is spending it on himself. He is using the funds of the church for himself."

REPORT EX-EMPEROR IS IN HUNGARY

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unconfirmed reports still insist that the former Emperor Charles of Austria has left Hertenstein secretly and now is in Hungary awaiting an opportunity to launch a coup d'etat.

It is said that Capt. Werkman, private secretary to Charles, and several of the former monarch's servants already have left for Budapest. It is stated in usually well informed circles that Charles will make an attempt to regain his throne this month, in spite of the warnings of the allies.

The act of reciprocity with Canada, which has stood since 1911, would be repealed by the new tariff bill.

OVERLOADED TRUCKS DESTROY HIGHWAYS

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 4.—Discovery that thousands of dollars of damage was done to state highways during the recent hot weather by overloaded trucks has caused the state department of public works to inaugurate a campaign for the enforcement of the loading law.

This law, passed in 1917, provides that no truck may be so loaded as to produce on any wheel a weight of more than 800 pounds for each inch of width of the tire, and in no case may the total weight exceed 14 tons.

Yesterday nine truck operators were before the Dedham court on charges of overloading, eight were found guilty, and one defaulted. Today six others are being tried in the Waltham court.

Extremely hot weather causes the instrument called a "loadometer," which macadam binder on state highways to soften, and heavy loads passing over it not only cause little ruts in the surface, but also disturb the stones upon which the surface is laid. Displacement of the stones causes permanent injury to the road, bringing about that "wavy" surface to which every motorist objects. The macadam surface eventually returns to its proper condition, but the stones never go back into their proper places.

The campaign now going on is in charge of Arthur P. Porter, an engineer connected with the Institute of Technology. Mr. Porter has been given a district which includes the entire state, and no one knows in the morning where he will be during the day. He is just as likely to be in North Adams as Newburyport. His one instruction has been that he shall stop the overloading of trucks.

In determining whether a truck is overloaded, Mr. Porter uses a small instrument called a "loadometer," which at first glance might be mistaken for a particularly solid lifting jack. Whenever a suspicious looking truck is seen, Mr. Porter directs the operator to halt. Then he applies a loadometer first to one axle and then to the other, and immediately learns the weight of the load. If it is in excess of fourteen, Mr. Porter is notified to explain matters to the judge.

The state of Maryland has been conducting a similar campaign for the enforcement of its law, which establishes the weight limit at ten tons, four less than are allowed in this state. In Maryland, whenever an operator is found with an overloaded truck, he is required to remove the excess weight, leaving it at the side of the road until he can return or send another truck for it.

It is hoped that it will not be necessary to take this step in Massachusetts, but it will probably follow if truck owners and operators continue to ignore the law.

HATFIELD AND HIS LIEUTENANT BURIED

MATEWAN, W. Va., Aug. 4.—The tempestuous and picturesque careers of Sid Hatfield and his former lieutenant, Ed Chambers, shot in a gun fight at Welch, W. Va., last Monday, were brought to a close here yesterday with their burial at Baskirk, Ky., opposite Matewan on the other side of Tug river. No untoward incidents were reported in connection with the funerals.

For hours yesterday preceding their funerals scores of mountaineers, to whom the slain former Matewan chief of police had been a hero, passed before the bodies of Hatfield and Chambers. After leaving the homes of the men they scattered immediately.

More than $200,000,000 were recovered from junk heaps and metal scraps in 1919.

BIRDS DANCE WAY TO HEALTH

The ailments which affect birds and those which affect human beings are much the same.

Upon this theory, Mrs. Carrie Liberty, owner of a bird hospital in Chicago, has effected remarkable cures of sick and injured birds.

In her treatments, Mrs. Liberty uses medicine, surgery, music and dancing. Among the appliances used for restoring her patients to health is a little stick, looking much like a bandmaster's wand.

Mrs. Liberty keeps time with it to induce the bird to a gentle, swaying motion. This is to divert the patient's attention from its suffering, and to give it exercise necessary to restored health.

Turkish baths and special diets are other modes used in the hospital.

Dr. Liberty started the study of birds as a hobby; but now it has grown into a profitable business. In one year she took care of more than 3000 patients.

PIGEONS USED AS DRUG CARRIERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Carrier pigeons are the latest aids pressed into service by New York drug vendors to supply imprisoned customers. It was revealed today.

Detective Quigley, who yesterday arrested Anthony Adamo, an alleged drug vendor and confiscated $1000 worth of drugs and a pigeon, said there were at least two cases on record in which pigeons had taken drugs to addicts held at Blackwell's Island.

Adamo refused to admit that his pigeon was a drug carrier.

Meet Pope's Request to Inaugurate American Welfare Work in Italy

To Consider Irish Question Today—Flaherty Re-elected Supreme Knight

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—At the request of Pope Benedict, the Knights of Columbus have decided to raise $1,000,000 to inaugurate American welfare work in Italy. It was announced at the International Knights of Columbus' annual convention here today. The fund will be raised by popular subscription among the membership of the order.

Pope Benedict has requested this activity on the part of the Knights of Columbus to conserve faith and aid in the mental and physical development of Italian youth," said Supreme Advocate Joseph C. Pelletier, of Boston. "It is our aim to go into Italy and introduce American welfare work, to repay Italy in part the debt laid upon America when Columbus, the great Italian, found this western world and made it possible for Christendom to extend its sphere."

Mr. Pelletier added that it was improbable that the Knights of Columbus would extend its organization proper into Italy, saying that the immediate plans called for the establishment of an American service center in Rome under the patronage of Pope Benedict.

The closing session of the convention today, Mr. Pelletier added, will dispose of internal activities for the ensuing 12 months and will consider the Irish question.

Officers Elected
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia was unanimously re-elected yesterday supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus at the 39th annual international convention here. He had already served in that capacity six terms.

The other officers elected are: Martin H. Carmody, Grand Rapids, Mich., deputy supreme knight; William J. McGinley, New York, supreme secretary; Joseph C. Pelletier, Boston, supreme advocate; Daniel J. Callahan, Washington, D. C., supreme treasurer; Dr. E. W. Buckley, St. Paul, Minn., supreme physician; David F. Supple, San Francisco, supreme warden.

Archbishop Hanna of the San Francisco diocese spoke before the convention today on "The Campaign of the Catholic Church Against Tax Divorce Laws."

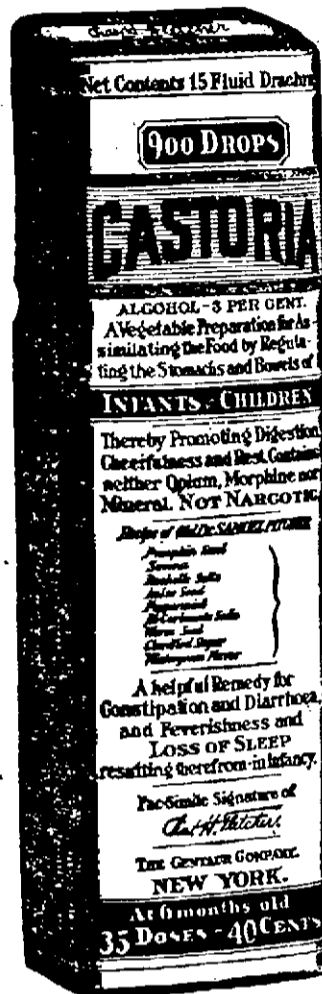

The chief business at the convention yesterday afternoon was a discussion of the historical commission program. John H. Reddin of Denver announced a series of contests for prizes for work

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for infants and children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Why make an all day job of washing clothes

When this new soap product soaks them clean in a few hours

ARE you still bending over the washboard in the middle of the day—rubbing away your strength?

Or do you have your clothes ready for the line an hour after breakfast?

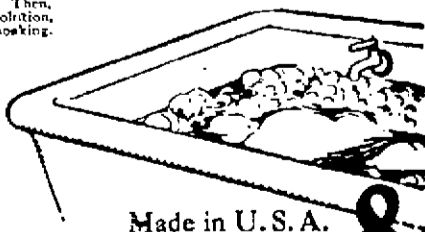

Hundreds of thousands of women who used to take all day to do their family washing are gaining time and storing up strength for the things they really want to do by soaking their clothes clean in Rinso.

This new soap product, made by the makers of Lux, is a perfect combination of pure cleansing materials that loosen and dissolve the dirt from even the heaviest pieces of the weekly wash without injuring a single fabric. You do not have to rub anything but the worst spots such as cuff edges, and these only lightly.

Don't rub your youth away. Get Rinso today from your grocer or any department store. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Perfect in washing machines
With Rinso you don't have to do any rubbing. Follow regular directions given here. Soak the clothes. Then, before operating the machine, add a fresh Rinso solution, using the same amount of Rinso as you used for soaking. No other product is needed when Rinso is used.

Rinso

Then let your clothes soak and rinse without any hard rubbing. Soak one hour—two hours—overnight—when time is convenient. These wonderful, mild acids loosen every particle of dirt. Rinso, to remove the loosened dirt, till water runs clear.

Dissolve: For each tub of clothes thoroughly dissolve a half package of Rinso in two quarts of boiling water. When water is hard or clothes extra dirty use more Rinso.

Pour into tub of lukewarm water—mix well. Keep adding the solution until you get a good, rich, lasting, soapy suds, even after the clothes have been put in.

on original research in primary sources in the field of American history.

The object is to "aid in creating an enlightened public opinion on the evolution of the United States, to perpetuate the American impulse, to promote American solidarity and exalt American ideals." Papers offered in competition should be sent to the National Shawmut Bank, Boston, before May 1, 1922. Noncompetitive papers will be received after Sept. 1 next.

Edward F. Mcweeney of Framingham, chairman of the historical commission, addressed the convention yesterday afternoon. He declared that "it is notorious that for 15 years an organized movement has been on foot to change American history by agreement" and that "it is a direct thrust at one of the bases of American nationality with the object of blotting out, by a conspiracy of silence, or by history based on false premises, the American impulse, ideal and solidarity."

"That movement," he said, "led to a call to arms of the fourth degree K. of C. The fourth degree regards racial history based on false premises, the wiles of diplomatic intrigue as common enemies of American liberty and of national brotherliness."

"SKYSCRAPER BURGLAR" INDICTED IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Melville Reeves, known to the police as the "Skyscraper burglar," has been indicted by a federal grand jury here, in connection with the arrest of John W. Worthington and the indictment of more than a score of others charged with being implicated in a number of recent mail robberies it became known today.

Two federal agents left today for a western city, the name of which was kept secret, bearing a warrant for Reeves.

At least two of those indicted in the case, which involved the alleged receiving and tampering with securities taken in various mail robberies, will be used as state's witnesses. It was indicated by officers, one of these is Joseph Stout, a Chicago broker, who has revealed considerable as to Worthington's past activities.

Development of Bulgarian Religion and Literature Discussed Today

WILLIAMSTOWN, Aug. 4.—The development of Bulgarian religion and literature was discussed before the Institute of Politics today by Stephen Panaretoff, recently appointed Bulgarian minister to the United States. Speaking of the relations between Turks and Christians, he admitted that a spirit of hostility now existed but expressed the conviction that "as the people of the Near East advance in religion and nationality, all will become more tolerant."

Tommaso Titoni, president of the Italian senate, is to give his first lecture before the institute tonight. Italian-American residents of this district planned a special welcome in his honor. They made arrangements to have him give an address in North Adams.

VIOLATION OF ANTI-JITNEY LAWS

The case of Patrick Keegan, charged with violation of the anti-jitney laws, was continued to October 4 with the understanding that the defendant in the interim commit no further offenses against the regulations. It was specifically charged against Keegan that on several dates he operated on Bridge street an automobile for transporting passengers for hire as a business, without first obtaining a license therefor from the license authorities.

has been sounded and has returned an answer unfavorable to the Sinn Fein overtures while in Belfast, after an important meeting of the cabinet, it was authoritatively stated that the Ulster ministry had received no communication from Mr. de Valera.

These reports at first glance seem irreconcilable, but it is pointed out that possibly both may be correct. The fact that the Ulster cabinet itself has not received a communication would not, it is noted, preclude the possibility of an informal discussion between northern and southern leaders.

It is understood that Premier Lloyd George, after conferring with Sir James Craig in London this week, sent a message to de Valera which might account for the calling of the Dail.

The British cabinet already has reached a decision regarding the release of members of the Dail Eireann, imprisoned in detention camps, and it is understood that Dublin Castle is free to release them as it thinks fit. Members who have been on their way to their homes in order that they may receive their summonses.

No Proposals to Ulster
LONDON, Aug. 4.—Reports published here that the government of northern Ireland had definitely and finally refused to have anything to do with the government proposals relative to peace in Ireland, were today officially declared to be "absolutely unfounded."

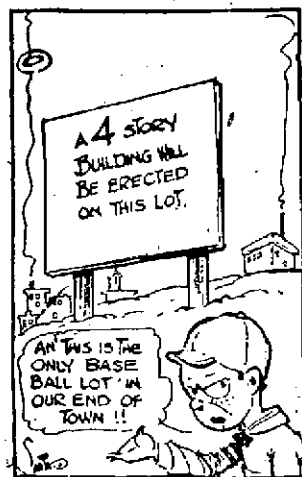

It was asserted that no proposals had been submitted to the Ulster cabinet by the government.

No Word from Sinn Fein
BELFAST, Aug. 4. (By the Associated Press)—The Ulster cabinet met this morning for a short session at the close of which there was no communication issued as to the subject of its deliberations. It was authoritatively learned, however, that no message from Eamonn de Valera, the Irish republican leader, has yet reached the northern cabinet.

JOURNEYMEN PLUMBERS

It is expected that the journeymen plumbers, who have been out on strike for the past six weeks, will be back for their work next Monday, for negotiations for a settlement of the grievance now existing are now being made. The strikers left their work after being given a reduction in wages of ten cents an hour in the early part of July. Since that time not a move has been made by one side or the other to bring the strike to an end, but it was learned today that negotiations are under way and that an early settlement is looked for.
